Specialists to Give Garden, Landscape Program on Monday

Fred Edmunds, prominent rose grower and past president of the National Rose Growers Association, will accompany Claude Mills to Morrow county where they will hold three speaking engagements on Monday, February 6.

Also traveling from Salem with these men will be Harold Miller, prominent nurseryman, who will talk on landscaping designs for our area.

The first meeting for these three gardening specialists will be at the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce noon luncheon. At 2:00 p.m. they will hold a clinic at the lone United Church of Christ, and at 8:00 p.m. they will hold a similar clinic at the Heppner Christian church. There will be coffee hours following the afternoon and evening meetings to give guests an opportunity to meet and ask them questions.

The guest speakers are being brought to the county by the lone Garden club, which cordially invites all gardeners, men, women or young people, to come and participate in the meetings. They are sponsored by the Oregon Association of Nurserymen, which is furnishing many worthwhile door prizes of roses and shrubs awarded.

Mr. Mills is a well-known lecturer and horticulturist, has appeared many times in lectures on Portland TV Channels 2 and 8. The men will tell their story with illustrations and colored slides, relating them primarily to conditions in this area.

Many Enjoy Altar Card Party Monday

A good attendance responded to the invitation of St. Patrick's Altar Society for its public card party Monday evening at the parish hall.
