We put automatic latches on all our folding seat-backs to keep them from flopping forward should you ever stop suddenly. The seat sits upright until you trip a latch.

Additional items we put into the '67 Chevrolet, as handy pushbutton releases for the seat belts, an ash tray that glides in and out on ball bearings, a 4-speaker stereo tape system you can add, not to mention noticeable improvements in the way the car rides and handles. Family Honors Mrs. E. Oliver

(Too late for last week.)
By DONNA EPPENBACH

IRRIGON—The family of Mrs. Edith E. Oliver gathered Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howell to honor Mrs. Oliver on her 95th birthday.

Dinner guests were Mrs. Oliver's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Oliver of St. Helena, who brought the decorated birthday cake, her son-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Holm and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howell, Irrigon, her grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Orville McKendzie, Irrigon, great-grandsons, Jon and Ron Swenson of Rufus and a cousin, Mrs. Bill Graybeal of Irrigon.

Mrs. Edith E. Oliver, who was born in Ada, Mich., has resided in Irrigon many years, with the Clarence Howells.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jorgensen drove to Portland Sunday and stayed overnight with her sister Mrs. Myra Miller. They returned to Irrigon Tuesday.

On January 27 Dennis Lamb, Kenneth Lamb, Bob Byrd and Michael Tolar left for Corvallis where Dennis Lamb participated in the State Free Throw contest held at Gill Coliseum. The contest, sponsored by the statewide Order of Elks, had 50 local champions competing.

Competition began at 8:30 a.m. with the four top shooters completing their competition during half-time of the Oregon vs. Oregon State game televised Saturday afternoon.

Following morning play-offs, the Elks Club of Corvallis held a luncheon to honor these boys. Guest speaker at the luncheon was Pete Pifer, All-American halfback from Oregon State.

They stopped at Portland and attended the Oregon Invitational Track and Field meet, as guests of Mr. Tolar, before returning home.

The 4-H community meeting was held last Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at the A. C. Houghton school. A business meeting was held. A project talk was given by Debbie Grochowksi, Tammy Sinder gave a demonstration on food. Leon Wilson, Darwin Christensen and David Stral presented a musical number. Games were played to round out the evening.

Irl Hobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hobbs, was admitted last Monday to St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton. She was released Wednesday after minor surgery.

The junior and senior classes of the Assembly of God church held a party at the basement of the parsonage last Thursday night. It was given by their teachers, Mrs. Al Partlow and Mrs. Earl Isom. Games were played and refreshments served.

The Community Baptist and the Assembly of God churches held a joint service Sunday night at the Baptist church. Rev. Herbert Vaughan was in charge with Rev. John Kenney bringing the message for the evening. There were refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee served after the service.

Mrs. Doris Courtney, Larry and Dannie of La Grande spent the week-end visiting with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Reeder and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart and family.

Mrs. Margaret Evenson of Lewiston, Idaho, visited over the week-end with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Horn and Tom.

Mrs. Merl Pacheco of Las Gatos, Calif., left Saturday after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Graybeal.

Word was received by Mrs. Elvora Paxson of the marriage of her grandson, Larry Paxson at Lake Wood, Calif., to the former Miss Vickie Reynolds. Larry sails February 1 on the USS Princeton for Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Partlow and Sheryl went to Vancouver over the week-end. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Berry at Portland then on to Vancouver to Mrs. Partlow's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Berg and Ronald. The Bergs and Partlows spent Saturday skiing at Mt. Hood.

Harry Snyder formerly of Irrigon, who works on Johnson Island for Holmes and Narver Construction Co., was married

Saturday to Lillian Cort of Yakima, Wn. While here they visited his mother, Mrs. Grace Snyder and his brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Snyder and family and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Snyder and family.
