

Heppner Elks Host Annual Celebration Here on February 25

Officers and committees of Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 are making preparations to observe the 70th anniversary of the local organization on Saturday, February 25, with afternoon and evening functions. Members who now reside in other towns are extended a special invitation to return and join in the day's festivities. Registration will begin at 11:00 a.m.

Theme for the day will be the appropriate "Spring Is Just Around the Corner," according to Mrs. Jerry Daggett, chairman of the officers' wives committee which is in charge.

On the schedule of events for women to attend while their husbands are participating in afternoon lodge sessions, is a champagne tea and wig show, from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m., with games of bridge, pinocle and yahtzee following until 4:30 p.m., at St. Patrick's parish hall.

Officers of Condon Lodge No. 1889 will be in charge of the afternoon degree work. Youth leadership awards will be presented by Whitey Schroth, OSEA 2nd vice president, Hermiston.

Dinner for members and guests will be served in St. Patrick's parish hall at 6:30 by women of the Rhea Creek Grange. Entertainment and dancing will follow at the lodge hall, with music by Roy Miller and his orchestra.

District Odd Fellow Meeting Announced

The 54th annual Umatilla-Morrow county Odd Fellow District Convention will be held Saturday, February 25, at the IOOF hall in Milton-Freewater. Lodges included in the district are Heppner, Echo, Stanfield, Pendleton and Milton-Freewater.

Two members of Willows IOOF Lodge No. 66, Heppner, are serving as district officers. These are Cornett Green, vice president, and Randall Peterson, conductor. They will assist in conducting the afternoon business session. The Milton-Freewater lodge will be hosts to the dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Lindstroms Greeted At Home Reception On 25th Anniversary

About 100 guests attended the open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom on Sunday afternoon, February 12, honoring the couple on their silver wedding anniversary.

Susan and Stephen acted as hosts for their parents and their sister, Christine, was in charge of the guest book.

Guests were served at a lace covered tea table, which was centered with a white and silver three-tiered anniversary cake flanked by silver candelabra with white tapers. Several relatives and friends served the punch, coffee and cake. The rooms were decorated with bouquets of red and white flowers.

Mrs. Lindstrom wore a pink crepe dress with lace bodice and an orchid corsage for the occasion. Her daughters, Christina and Susan, wore a pink dress and white suit, respectively, and white carnation corsages.

The Lindstroms were married on her parents' 24th wedding anniversary, February 14, 1942, at their country home.

Out of town guests here for the weekend were Mrs. Lindstrom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Haugen and three daughters of Lake Oswego; her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Haawk of Portland; her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Moller and two daughters of Gresham; Mr. Lindstrom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helina and John of Seattle; another sister, Mrs. Warren Crutcher of Gresham; an aunt, Mrs. Algott Lundell of Portland; and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem.

Peace Corps Worker To Share Experiences Through Talk, Slides

Miss Bonnie Zimmerman, Hermiston, who is home after spending more than two years in the Peace Corps in India, will be guest speaker at a special meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, February 22.

The public is invited to join the group and see the colored pictures of India and hear of her activities there. She will also show pictures of her tour through the Holy Lands and of most of the European countries which she visited on her way home.

Hostesses for the evening will be her grandmother, Mrs. Orlean Wright, and Mrs. Amanda Duval.

Farra Assists Niece At Wedding Service

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farra attended a family wedding in Portland on Saturday, February 12, where Bill had the honor of giving the bride away.

Anna Louise Ashcraft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ashcraft, Grandview, Wn., a niece of Mrs. Farra, was married at St. Mark's Lutheran church to Richard Allen Delaney of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Farra drove to Portland on Friday and were guests of a friend, Mrs. Grace Hiatt. They returned Sunday bringing Mrs. Farra's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wiest, Sunnyside, Wn., and her sister, Mrs. Ray Ashcraft, Grandview, home on their way.

Neale Penland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Penland, now of Tillamook and former Heppner resident, enjoyed a visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ed Schaffitz and with other friends here last week. He has been stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J. in army communications, and is expecting to leave soon for Thailand where he will serve with the Army Signal Corps.

SOCIETY

MR. AND MRS. GARY ALLAN MORGAN (Susan Freeman) (Kennell-Ellis Photo)

Portland Church Of Freeman-Morgan Wedding January 27

IONE—The marriage of Susan Freeman and Gary Allan Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, was held at the Kendall Presbyterian Church in Portland on Friday evening, January 27. The rites were performed by the Rev. Volvus Meachern, church pastor.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Freeman, was escorted to the altar by her father. She was lovely in a white satin brocade gown, which was designed with scoop neckline, bridal point sleeves and bell skirt. A crown of pearls held her elbow length veil and she carried a cascade of white roses and carnations with trailing ivy.

Mrs. Robert Knigge was matron of honor for her sister and Mrs. Lawrence Schilling and Patricia Paist were bridesmaids. They were attired in gowns of royal blue sculptured velvet and wore head pieces of blue velvet bows with shoulder length veils. They carried stylized bouquets of daffodils and acacia with white streamers.

The candles were lit by Janet Isfeld and the organist was Mrs. Merna Brown. Small bouquets of white roses and carnations with blue net frills and blue velvet bows decorated the church pews.

Bill Akers of Lake Oswego served as best man. Guests were seated by the groom's brother-in-law, Keith Peck, and Tom Ottinger with Harvey Freeman, brother of the bride, as junior usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parish hall with the ladies of the church guild as hostesses.

Mrs. Keith Peck, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

When leaving for their honeymoon on the Oregon Coast, the new matron wore a gold brocade coat ensemble with matching accessories.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Freeman wore an aqua two-piece dress with white accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a tangerine sheath dress with matching coat and bone accessories. Both wore white rosebud corsages.

The bride is a graduate of Clackamas High school and Portland Community College. She also attended Portland State College and is now employed as a dental nurse.

The groom graduated from Ione High school and attended Columbia Basin College for two years and Oregon Technical Institute. He is now employed in Portland, but plans to enter military service soon.

Morgans Announce Daughter's Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan of Ione announce the marriage of their daughter, Geraldine Joyce, to James Eugene Paavola, son of Okie Paavola and Mrs. Mildred Paavola, both of Astoria.

The marriage was performed Saturday, February 4, by the Rev. Carroll Farbanks, in the First Christian church in Vancouver, Wn. Attendants for the young couple were close friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Dougan, of Portland.

The new Mrs. Paavola is a 1962 graduate of Ione High school, attended Oregon State University for two years, and for the past two and a half years has been employed by the June S. Jones Co. in Portland.

The groom graduated from Astoria High school in 1962, and from Clatsop Junior College in 1964. He is now employed with the Shaver Transportation Co. in Portland.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Paavola left for a short wedding trip to Seattle and points along the Washington and Oregon coasts.

They are now at home at 7112 North Richmond St., Apt. B, Portland.

Makes Honor List

Jim Barclay, freshman at the University of Portland, has been named on the dean's honorable mention honor roll list for the first semester, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Barclay. Barclay, enrolled in the school of liberal arts, maintained a grade point average of 3.00. He was a graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1966.

Science Consultant Speaks to Teachers

George Katagiri, science consultant for the Oregon State Department of Education, was guest speaker for about 10 teachers at the elementary school Monday night.

A number of these teachers are taking an educational television course on science for elementary teachers which is taught by Katagiri and is broadcast on Mondays and Wednesdays over channel 10 at 4 p.m.

Katagiri discussed some of the new methods being developed in the field of science education and consulted with the teachers about their individual progress, both as students and teachers.

Coffee and cookies were served following the conversations. Mrs. Inez Meador served as hostess.

SCIENCE CONSULTANT George Katagiri spoke to grade school teachers at a meeting Monday night. He is shown at right in the photo. Teachers listening include (from rear) Mrs. Inez Meador, Mrs. Velva Bechtold, Mrs. Jessie Faye Morris, Mrs. Anita Stockard, Mrs. Inez Irwin. Second row, Mrs. Alena Anderson, Mrs. Cleo Robinson and Mrs. Frances Williams. Not pictured are Clifford Williams and Mrs. Lorena Jones.

Wranglers Discuss Items of Business, Enjoy Film Program

Several items of business and an interesting program were included in the meeting of the Morrow County Wranglers on February 7, with President Bob Bergstrom in charge.

Tryouts for the wrangler rodeo princess were set for Sunday, February 12, at the Wrangler grounds, with 14 girls eligible to try out if they had notified the secretary. A judge was to be invited from out of town.

Play days for the point system was announced to start the first Sunday in April, and continue through four consecutive Sundays. Bev Steagall was appointed to obtain the ribbons for the awarding at the play days.

Discussion was held on the Wrangler breakfast, with the club deciding to hold the breakfast at the same place at the fairgrounds that it has been held for a number of years, unless it is moved by the rodeo board.

John Eubanks was appointed to take charge of all the Wrangler races through the summer.

Tentative plans for the overnight ride and other events and meetings were delayed until after another meeting of the directors.

An application was made to authorize the barrel race at the Wrangler's Cowcutting Show on April 8 and 9 to be an OBRA approved barrel race.

Mrs. Harold Erwin presented an entertaining film on the "Calgary Stampede" furnished by Glen Ward, and also a film on the variety of uses of quarter horses for roping, showing, cutting, in color and with sound.

Following the interesting program, Mrs. Howard Bryant and Mrs. Gene Pierce served refreshments of coffee, punch and donuts.

Club Hears Review On Classifications At Luncheon Meeting

Program of the Soroptimist club at its luncheon meeting last Thursday noon was devoted to an educational discussion on various areas of club classification and membership. Leading the discussion were Mrs. Bill Collins and Mrs. Howard Betty-John, both of the classification and membership committee.

Roll call was answered with each member stating her official major and minor classification. Mrs. Elaine George, city recorder, was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Guests for the meeting were Miss Terry Lincecum, art teacher, and three Heppner High school senior girls, Kathy Melby, Jill Schmidt and Kay Daggett.

Qualifications for membership were reviewed, based on the new official key of the Soroptimist Federation. Various classes of membership include the active, associate, member-at-large, sustaining, life and honorary; with women eligible who are engaged in a business or profession, either independently or in an executive capacity. The process of classifying prospective members and inviting them into membership was discussed, with the club required to have on its roll 15 active members to qualify for keeping its charter.

Mrs. Farley Receives Birthday Greetings

Mrs. Frank Monahan entertained at her ranch home near Condon with a family reunion on Sunday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Farley of Heppner, complimenting her on her 80th birthday.

Mrs. Farley has been a lifetime resident of Morrow county. The daughter of Mary and Mike Kenny, she was born February 12, 1887.

Relatives attending were her sisters, Mrs. John Healy and Mrs. Bill Bucknum, both of Heppner, and Mr. Bucknum, also Mr. and Mrs. Clay Clark, Mrs. Olin Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farley, Valerie and Patricia Farley of Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Applegate of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Farley, Susan Farley of John Day; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Monahan and Susan, Wayne and Rene Monahan of Condon.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients who were admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital during the past week, and still are receiving medical care, include the following: Francis Robinson, Lexington; Fred Starns, Ione; Mary Cox, Heppner; Robin Hunt, Fossil; Sophrona Thompson, Heppner; Lena Neff, Heppner; Eva DeMerritt, Kinzua, and Jeffrey Ball, Ione.

Those who have received medical care, and were later dismissed, were the following: Douglas Troxell, Spray; Hannah Anderson, Heppner; Mary Van Blokland, Heppner; Burton Peck, Lexington; Sharon Bell, Kinzua; Frances Peck, Heppner; Cynthia Martin, Ione, and Sharon Mahoney, Heppner.

Heppner Elementary Highlights

The fourth graders of the Heppner Elementary have been viewing Educational TV. One of their favorite programs is "Exploring the Northwest With Buckey Beaver" which is enrichment for their social studies of the Pacific Northwest. Mrs. Jessie Faye Morris said that Richard McDaniels was so motivated by viewing the lesson on "Steamboat A'Comin'" that he constructed the "Beaver", an early steamboat on the Columbia River.

NATIONAL BOY SCOUT WEEK was emphasized with a display on the bulletin board of Heppner Elementary school last week. Cub Scouts at the school who were in uniform during the week were (front, left to right): Paul Van Marter, David Worden, Kyle Buschke, Steve Jones, David Brundhagen. Boy Scouts participation (back, from left): Mike Stephens, Jeff Marshall, Doug Gonty, Dave Hughes, Mike Hughes, Barney Marshall, and Tom Hughes.

Famous Artist Slated To Instruct Workshop

A "Workshop in Oil Painting" has been scheduled at the Northshore Art Studio near Goldendale, Wn., it is announced by George and Nancy Holden, owners.

Mrs. Holden is the former Nancy Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox, Heppner, who has become prominently known in the art field for oil portraits and landscape painting. She and her husband have given art instruction for a number of years from their studio, located on the Washington side of the Columbia River at the John Day Dam.

Merlin Enabnit, world famous artist and authority on oil color, will conduct the two week workshop, from April 17 through 28, will instruct in portraits. Enabnit, by many artists over America as being equivalent to two years in Art School. It is a course for both beginners and experienced artists.

Classes are open to everyone who wishes to enroll. The first week, April 17 through 21, will instruct in landscape art, the second week, April 24 through 28, will instruct in portraits. Enrollments are accepted for either one or both weeks.

Last day of the workshop, April 28, will be open to anyone who wishes to hear his lecture on fundamentals and under painting, in the forenoon, and complete painting in the afternoon, with the painting to be given as a door prize. Further information may be secured from Nancy Holden, Northshore Art Studio, Star Route, Goldendale, Wn.

BOY SCOUTS, who observed National Boy Scout week, have asked if they can raise and lower the American and State of Oregon flags at Heppner Elementary School. Principal Alan Martin states, Barney and Jeff Marshall are shown preparing to display the colors.

WHAT KIND OF TAXES?

What is your recommendation to the Oregon legislature in its efforts to ease the property tax load?

Do You Favor: yes no

1. Some sort of state tax to reduce the property tax?
2. If so, do you favor a state sales tax?
3. Or do you favor a broader base income tax?

Other proposals or comments: .....

Sign your name only if you wish to do so:

Clip this out, and send in your recommendation to The Gazette-Times, P. O. Box 337, Heppner. We'll pass your thoughts along to Irvin Mann, State Representative, 28th district.

Investors
DIVERSIFIED SERVICES, INC.
FOUNDED 1954

exclusive national distributor for

FOUR MUTUAL FUNDS

ONE FACE-AMOUNT CERTIFICATE COMPANY

pension and profit sharing services

For a prospectus-booklet

Call Investors man or clip this complete advertisement and send it to your INVESTORS man.

Robert H. Lerfeld
District Manager
Phone 276-2406
815 N. W. 11th, Pendleton

Also inquire about a planned approach to life insurance needs

Investors
SYNDICATE LIFE
INSURANCE AND ANNUITY COMPANY
A WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF INVESTORS DIVERSIFIED SERVICES, INC.

PHONE 989-8420

For Fast and Dependable
FREIGHT TRUCK SERVICE

Daily Overnight Service
From Portland including
Saturdays

MOVING? CALL US

Flatt's Truck Service
GENE ORWICK

POWER CONTROL

ELECTRIC MOTOR SERVICE

WE REPAIR:

- Electric Motors
- Power Tools
- Hydraulic Jacks
- Alemite Equipment

421 S. E. 4th Pendleton
Phone 276-5862