Garden Professionals Instruct at Clinic On Landscape Ideas

The Ione Garden Club entertained an enthusiastic group of gardeners at the Garden Clinic held at the United Church of Christ recently.

Claude Mills of Lake Oswego, horticulturist and workshop chairman of Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, showed some outstanding landscaping slides. Mr. Mills represents eight different commercial firms including the Oregon Nurseryman's Association and Jan De Graff Bulb Farms.

Lovely door prizes were received by many in the audience and among them were several bags of lily bulbs and five rosebushes.

After showing the group modern trends in landscaping with the aid of the slides, questions were answered by Mr. Mills and Harold Miller, a landscape contractor of Milwaukie and Mr. Yancey of the Blue Mountain Nursery at Milton-Freewater, who accompanied them to the meeting. They assisted with advice on what types of plantings were suitable for our climate and soil.

Following the meeting coffee and cookies were served by the hostesses.

The men were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Martin while in Ione.

Mrs. Cal Sumner returned to her home in Prineville on Sunday after visiting friends and relatives here the past two weeks. She was a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lovgren and son Frank, and with a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sumner and family.

Card Club Losers Host Annual Party

An Ione and Heppner Pinochle club, the Dealing Duzen, held its annual losers-host party, Saturday, February 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwayne Bergstrom in Heppner. Those present enjoyed a potluck dinner serving turkey as the main dish. Six tables of pinochle were in play after dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steagall were guests of the group.

At the close of the evening, high prize was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hams and low prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Steagall. Alice Devin claimed the traveling pinochle prize and the door prize was won by Dick Sherer.

Members attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Viall, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Devin, Mr. and Mrs. Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sherer, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Childers, Mr. and Mrs. John Jepsen, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moeter and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hams.

Portland Civic Leader Gets Honor from Club

Special tribute was paid to Mrs. Elvira Raven, aunt of Harold Scritsmeler, former Heppner resident, on her 87th birthday at a Portland Soroptimist club luncheon last Thursday at the Benson Hotel. Mrs. Scritsmeler will be remembered here as the former Patti Cason, sister of Mrs. Fay Proek, and the couple was in lumber business here for several years.

Mrs. Raven was lauded by many prominent Portland persons for her outstanding civic work in Portland, especially in promoting and continued work in the Overlook Community Center, a recreational and social center. Also for her work in the Junior Museum, in organizing the Junior Police and Junior Rose Court, and her work with the Junior Rose Festival Association. Her home has always been open to children and service men. Both Mrs. Raven and her husband, Herman, have displayed rare public spirit and at the same time have built up their Raven Dairy.

Mrs. Raven was a charter member of the Portland Soroptimist club.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM JAMES DOHERTY (Joan Frances O'Brien) (Lyons Photo)

Hermiston Ceremony Unites Joan O'Brien And William Doherty

Marriage vows were exchanged by Joan Frances O'Brien and William James Doherty at a nuptial mass on Saturday, February 4, at Our Lady of Angels Catholic church in Hermiston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. O'Brien of Umatilla, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Doherty of Lexington.

The Rev. Father Simon Coughlan, pastor of the church, was celebrant for the 11:00 a.m. ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attractively gowned in full length white satin. The gown was fashioned with oval neckline edged in chantilly lace with jeweled medallions circling the neckline, edging the hemline of the gown and the flowing, detachable train. Her short illusion net veil was held by a jeweled flower headpiece. She carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis with sprays of ivy.

Miss Marty Boyajean of Heppner, cousin of the groom, attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Wynman and Erin Tweedie, friends of the bride from Portland. Gowns of the attendants were of sea foam green satin with headpieces of matching color, and they carried bouquets of white spider chrysanthemums.

Jim Steagall of Portland, friend of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Jack Monagle, Henry Pointer, cousin of the groom, both of Portland, and Jerry Anderson of North Bend.

The couple greeted their many friends and relatives at a reception following the ceremony in the parish hall.

After the newlyweds cut and shared the first piece of the tiered wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. Harry Marks and Mrs. Don Ford, both of Hermiston. Pouring were Mrs. James Daly, Pendleton, grandmother of the groom; Mrs. George Maxwell, Sedro Wooley, Wn., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Walter Anderson. At the punch table were Mrs. George O'Brien, Seattle, Wn., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. A. C. Lindsay, Lexington, aunt of the groom.

Sandra Boyd of Corvallis, cousin of the groom, kept the guest book. Attending the gift table were Mrs. H. K. Hickey of The Dalles, and JoAnne Marks and Mrs. Harry Marks.

The bride attended Gonzaga University, Spokane, Wn., and Central Washington State college, Ellensburg, Wn. The groom attended Portland University and spent two years in Germany with the 3rd Missile Battalion, 79th Artillery, and one year in the armed services stationed in the states.

Following their wedding trip along the Oregon coast the couple is now at home in Portland, where Mr. Doherty is employed by Proctor and Gamble.

Guests came from the following towns in Washington: Walla Walla, Seattle, Sedro Wooley, Mount Vernon and Marble Mount. Others attended from the following towns in Oregon: Eugene, North Bend, Coos Bay, Yamhill, Milton-Freewater, Corvallis, Portland, La Grande, Pilot Rock, Pendleton, McNary, Umatilla, The Dalles, Ione, Heppner and Lexington.

Gayle Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox, will be on vacation from his work with United Airlines at the Portland airport during the next two weeks. During this time he plans to spend several days vacationing in Australia, Honolulu and New Zealand, according to word received by his parents.

Society Discusses Scholarship Fund

St. Patrick's Altar Society met in a regular session on February 7, in the parish hall. Mrs. Harold Curmuff, president, called the meeting to order.

A report was given on the Gertrude Applegate scholarship fund which the society maintains in Mrs. Applegate's memory. Discussion brought out that contributions may be made to this fund at any time by anyone as a gift or memorial. The fund finances college scholarship awards to be given to students going to college from St. Patrick's parish; Maureen Doherty and Tom Rawlins received last year's awards.

Members were invited to a Valentine breakfast which was served them by the men of the Holy Names Society on February 12.

Hostesses were Mrs. Ron Leonard and Mrs. Randy Lott.
