Relays to Open Track Schedule

First action for the Heppner High school track team for 1967 will be Saturday, April 1, at the Willamette Relays in Salem. Coach Adrian Cook has announced.

Track workouts have been started at the school despite the recent chilly weather.

Following the WU Relays, a series of eight meets are on the schedule for the Mustang cindermen.

They will participate in the Carnival of Speed on April 7 at Milton-Freewater, and both varsity and jayvee trackmen will take part in a 3-way meet with Grant Union and Sherman at Heppner on April 14.

On April 22, the Burns Invitational will call varsity and jayvee cindermen, and on April 29, the Heppner squad and school will be hosts for the big Heppner Invitational.

On May 5, the squad will go to La Grande for the Eastern Oregon College Invitational, and on May 13, they will enter sub-district competition at Madras.

Those who qualify will participate in the district meet at Burns on May 20 and in the state meet on May 27 at Corvallis.

Mrs. Mary Malcom left Tuesday to take her mother, Mrs. Joe Hamilton, back to her home in Eatonville, Wash. Mrs. Malcom expected to return by Thursday.

Lockjaw (tetanus) isn't contagious, but it's deadly. Tetanus bacilli are found in dust and dirt everywhere and can enter the body through any slight wound. Immunization of children and adults is the only sure protection.
