7th Grade Class Gives to Hospital

Mrs. Judy Gochbauer's seventh grade home room class at Heppner Elementary school has donated $24.75 to the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children in Portland.

Money was earned at a cake sale held at Central Market on February 25, after which a check was mailed to Larry Cook, rajah in the Shrine.

Responding to the donation, Cook wrote a letter to the class, saying, "As a representative of the potentate of Al Kader Temple in this tri-county area, may I express our sincere and deepest thanks to all of you for your most generous gift to our Portland Shrine hospital, dedicated to the Glory of God and all human kind regardless of race, creed or color. Your kind thoughts and generosity will help some crippled child to walk and play. What greater pleasure can we achieve than this.

"Your class will receive recognition from Al Kader Temple in the near future."
