Hand Made Projects On Club Program

Handcraft projects will occupy members of the Lexington Co-op Biddies at its afternoon meeting Monday, April 3, at the Lexington City hall. Instruction will be given on two main projects, the making of terry cloth pillows and the webbing of handbags. The meeting will get underway at 1:30 p.m.

Those attending are asked to bring the following materials for the terry cloth pillows: terry washcloths or a terry towel, doubled, matching or harmonizing yarn, and a large sharp pointed crochet hook.

For the medium size webbed handbags, materials needed are: 135 inches upholstery webbing (more or less depending upon size bag wanted), any type yarn, variegated or plain colors to harmonize, a large eyed tapestry or webbing needle. Instructors will be on hand to help with the making of either pillow or handbag.

Anyone who is interested in either of the projects is welcome to attend.

ROGENIA FAYE WILSON

Wilson-Hyde Rites Scheduled for April 6

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert C. Wilson are announcing the coming marriage of their daughter, Rogenia Faye, to Jonathan B. Hyde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hyde of Yuba City, Calif. on Thursday evening, April 6.

Vows will be exchanged at a 7:30 p.m. ceremony at the Portland First L.D.S. Ward, Southeast Harrison at Southeast 30th Street in Portland.

The couple extends a cordial invitation to friends and relatives to attend the ceremony and reception which will follow in the church social rooms.
