Grange Hears Speakers, Plans Dinner, Auction

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Lexington Grange met on Saturday for its regular meeting, starting with a potluck dinner. Following the dinner the group were fortunate to hear two fine speakers, Judge Paul Jones of Heppner, who spoke on the recent civil defense meeting, and Robert Jensen, who was a recent Washington, D. C. visitor for the Wheat League.

It was announced at the reg-

Association Plans Quarter Horse Show

Columbia Basin Quarter Horse association met in Hermiston March 25 with the new president, Harold Buchanan, in charge of the business meeting. Many items of business were discussed and plans made for the annual quarter horse show to be held at the Umatilla county fair grounds October 7.

Members voted to award a trophy saddle this year with Virgil Chapman of Boardman and Roicie Fullerton of Heppner appointed in charge of arrangements.

Plans were also made to purchase lumber and build panels for setting up portable stalls for use during the show. The large attendance last year indicated an inadequate amount of stall space available which will be corrected at this year's show.

Leon Kennedy and Don Smith of Hermiston were appointed chairmen of this project.

President Buchanan appointed Jess Montgomery of Hermiston event trophy chairman again this year after a job well done last year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harold Buchanan and a directors' meeting was then held.

The next meeting of the association will be April 22, at the UECA building in Hermiston.

State Republicans Select Officials

Mrs. Herman Winter, Morrow county Republican central committee chairman, and Don Turner, former state Republican chairman, participated in the meeting of the state Republican central committee at Baker Saturday.

The Republicans elected George P. Stadelman, Sr., of The Dalles as National Committeeman to take the place of the late Lowell Paget. They elected Irving Enna of Portland as state chairman of their party. He succeeds Don Hodel of Lake Oswego.

Mrs. Winter was a voting delegate and Turner voted by proxy for Joe Balfie, Morrow county vice-chairman, who was unable to attend.

All 36 counties were represented at the meeting with a total of 130 in attendance.

The group discussed a House bill that would make the central committee representation directly proportionate to population for both parties. It was voted to ask the Senate to reject the bill and to ask an interim committee to make a study of it.

Speaker at a luncheon during the meeting was Rep. Robert Smith, House majority leader.

ular meeting that there will be a buffet style dinner served at the hall Sunday, April 23, from 1:30 to 4 p.m. There is also scheduled an auction sale, at which time there will be two old fashioned lamps and other articles more modern in design sold at auction.
