

Couple Receives Congratulations On Anniversary

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crowell observed their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday, April 2. Due to failing health, no special observance was planned, but the couple received many messages and phone calls from relatives and friends congratulating them on the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowell were married in Cadillac, Mich., on April 2, 1907, and came to Oregon to make their home in 1908. For many years they lived on a farm on Willow Creek below Morgan, until poor health required Mr. Crowell to retire to the home they now occupy on Second Street in Ione.

The Crowells have five children, 15 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. The Crowell family includes Howard of Ione, Robert of Riverside, Wn., Mrs. Vester (Doloris) Nelson of Omak, Mrs. Charles (Kay) Markel of Tacoma, and Mrs. Merlin (Lela) White of Albany.

Mrs. Mary C. Emert is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Ward at Kuna, Idaho.

Mrs. Walter Roberts entered Pendleton Community hospital on Monday and Tuesday had major surgery on her hip, which she broke several years ago. Mrs. Joel Engelman took her over.

Enters Marine Corps

Mary Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols and a senior at Ione High school, has been accepted in the Women's Marine Corps and was sworn in at Seattle last week. She spent from Monday to Thursday there taking the required tests, and is now in the reserves until she completes her high school year. On June 28 she will report to the Seattle Induction Center and from there will go to South Carolina for seven weeks training, after which she will be stationed in Washington, D. C. She will be on active duty for three years and in the reserve for one year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Townsend are spending some time at their beach home at Sea View, Wash.

Mrs. Oscar Lundell left Pendleton by plane on Friday for Seattle, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Josephine Huff, and will be with her on Mrs. Huff's 62nd birthday on Monday. She will return home on Wednesday. The Ione PTA is sponsoring a Fun Night on Friday, April 14, to help finance projects of the organization this year. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the entertainment to be provided by both grade and high school students. Pie and coffee will be served in addition to the regular concessions. Adults and high school students will pay 75c admission and preschool and elementary pupils will pay 50c or a family ticket may be purchased for $2.50.

PTA meeting for April will be Thursday evening, April 13, with a discussion of the proposed six-six school program by Harold Beggs, principal. A musical selection under the direction of Arnie Hedman is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Martin recently returned from Portland, Salem and Dallas. Mrs. Martin, district director of Blue Mountain District, attended a state board meeting of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs. They also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Horton at Dallas and Ralph Martin, at Oregon City. Mr. Martin attended some sessions of the legislature.

Francis Troedson, brother of Carl and Verner Troedson of Ione, passed away at the Veteran's Hospital in Portland on Tuesday morning. He had been a patient there for some time. Funeral services at Ione are pending.

Topic Club, which was planned for Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Verner Troedson, has been cancelled.

The spring meeting of the Mid-Columbia Association of Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ was held in The Dalles on Monday. Attending from Ione was the president of the local fellowship, Mrs. Alfred Nelson, also Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse.

Melene Martin, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin of Othello, Wash., is recovering from a violent reaction to a measles vaccine. She was taken to the Othello hospital and then transferred to a hospital in Richland, where she has been seriously ill. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Martin, spent the week-end there with the family and were also there a week ago to celebrate the little girl's first birthday. Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Holloway of Albany, were also there this week-end.

Mrs. Adon Hamlett and Sharlene spent Friday and Saturday in Portland. Returning home with them was Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem, who will be here for a while with her mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson, who returned to her home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swanson of Portland were here on Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson.

Students of Ione High and Grade school will enjoy the following menus from April 17 through April 21: Monday, toasted cheese sandwiches, buttered corn, potato chips, apricots; Tuesday, meat loaf, buttered beans, bread and butter, and chocolate cake; Wednesday, creamed chicken on biscuits, buttered peas, carrot sticks, and cookies; Thursday, old fashioned stew, hot rolls and jelly, tossed salad, and cake; and Friday, clam chowder and crackers, assorted sandwiches, and fruit jello and whipped cream. Milk is served with all lunches.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner, Oregon 97836, Thursday, April 13, 1967 Sec. 2

CONTRACTORS E. S. Schnell and Ray D. Kalal of Hermiston have had heavy equipment in operation to prepare an access road to the new compressor station of Pacific Gas Transmission Co. now under construction near Ione. The pickup nearest the camera is a PGT vehicle driven by Orville Reiber of the Wallula crew of the company. (Pacific Gas Transmission Co. Photo).

Mr. and Mrs. Leland McKinney drove to Reno, Nev., last Thursday for the Northwest Regional meeting of the Lubricants Division of Texas Refinery Corporation, which was held at the Riverside Hotel on April 7, 8 and 9. Mr. McKinney attended meetings informing representatives and salesmen of the products available. Mrs. McKinney attended some of the dinners and luncheons planned to include the wives of the men.

Carol Holtz has returned from a Pendleton hospital, where she was confined for a few days with an infection. She returned to school on Friday.

Troy Lindstrom, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom, received second and third degree burns on his feet in the bath tub on Saturday. He had just had a bath and while his mother was answering the door bell, he turned the hot water on and then could not turn it off.

Guests of Mrs. Paul Tews this week were Miss Marie Reitz, who is a missionary from New Guinea visiting at the home of her parents in Hermiston, and Miss Ruth Ratke, who also works in the missionary compound and whose native home is Australia. They were brought over from Hermiston by a friend, Mrs. Norman Konningrud.

A workshop for teachers of the church school classes of the United Church of Christ was held at the church on Wednesday with a potluck luncheon at noon. Miss Ruth Bailey of Portland, director of Christian Education, spoke to the group and gave a general survey of the new United Church of Christ curriculum and the way it was planned and developed. Each teacher from the third grade through high school gave a short report on the material covered in each class for the benefit of the primary teachers and for general information and a discussion following. Fifteen teachers were present and a business meeting was held following luncheon at which time summer vacation school was discussed.

Mrs. William Melena was brought to Pioneer Memorial hospital on Thursday from a Portland hospital. Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann and Harold and Wayne assisted Mr. Melena in bringing her home. Family night was held Sunday evening at Valby Lutheran church with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Becket as hosts for the potluck dinner. Entertainment was furnished by Hjel Havnevik of Allsund, Norway, who is an exchange student at-

27 Ione Students On Honor Roll

Twenty-seven students at Ione High school are on the honor roll for the third nine weeks period. Principal Harold Beggs announces. Sophomores lead the roll with nine, followed by juniors with eight, and seniors and freshmen with three each.

To make the honor roll, students must receive a grade point average of 3.0 or better. The individual grade point averages were not announced.

Those who made the honor roll are as follows:

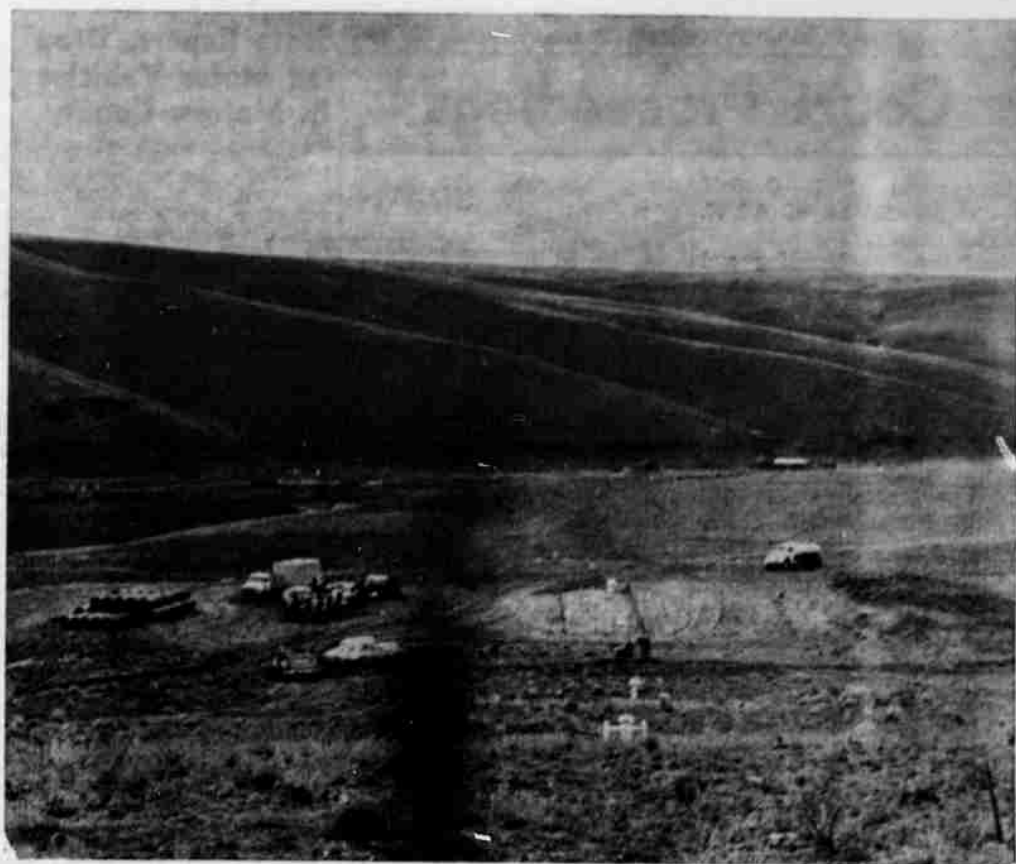

Seniors — Bonnie Hynd, Pat McElligott, Berniece Matthews, Deniece Matthews and Karen Nelson.

Juniors — Kathy Keene, Chris Lovgren, Maureen McElligott, Chuck Nelson, Terrie O'Connor, Janet Palmateer, Kerry Peterson and Janice Snider.

Sophomores — Bob Ball, Charity Beggs, Linda Nichols, Earl Pettyjohn, Eddie Sherman, Jodi Snow, Teresa Stefan, Jim Swanson and Teresa Tucker.

Freshmen — Joy Beggs, Ron Christopherson, Kristin Nelson, Linda Pettyjohn and Deborah Warren.

Need scratch pads? Get them at the Gazette-Times.

THIS GENERAL SCENE overlooks the new compressor station site of Pacific Gas Transmission Co. near Ione. The photo looks to the north downhill towards Highway 74 on the outskirts of Ione. At the center of the photo is a cluster of valves surrounding the Main Line Valve of the gas transmission line. This will be part of the station complex. Water truck at right is wetting down the soil in preparation for surface grading around the area of the compressor building. The auxiliary building (housing electronic controls and shops) will be at the extreme right. At left, pipe for the intake and discharge lines to and from the station has been stacked in preparation for welding to be done later this spring. Total cost of the project is estimated at $2,369,000. (Pacific Gas Transmission Co. Photo).

"Skippers"
BABY PICTURES
in EKTACOLOR

Only
99¢

NO APPOINTMENTS
HOURS: 10:00 A.M.
TO 5:00 P.M.

AGES THRU FIVE
Monday, April 17

Murrays Rexall Drug

217 N. MAIN 676-9610

$2466

Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price for the Camaro Sport Coupe with the Standard Six. This Camaro shown has at extra cost hood stripe, $14.75; style trim group, $40.05; wheel covers, $21.10; and whitewall tires, $31.35. All prices include Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge (transportation charges, accessories, other optional equipment, state and local taxes additional).

moves you up to the head of the class. Camaro, the sportiest looking and acting: lower, wider, heavier than any other car at the price. With the biggest Six, the widest stance, the roomiest interior. Drive it at your Chevrolet dealer's and see. You get more than your money's worth.

Compare CAMARO
and learn why it gives you that sure feeling