

Faculty Speaks Of Curriculum At PTA Meeting

Interested parents listened as the Heppner High School faculty presented a PTA program on the school's curriculum for the coming year at its meeting Wednesday, April 12, in the high school cafeteria. The session, planned by principal Dick Carpenter and staff, was intended primarily for parents of eighth graders who will enroll at the high school in the fall.

Each department of the school was described by a member of the department in a five minute talk. Speaking were Mrs. Conley Lanham who introduced the program and spoke on guidance and testing; Mrs. Dan Bronson, English; Elmer Weitzel, mathematics; Kirk Horn, science; Mrs. Ed Dick, reading, journalism and (substituting for Adrian Cook who was ill) social science; Mrs. Jim Thomson, library; Mrs. Everett Struckmeier, business education; Hal Whitaker and Ed Hiemstra, vocational classes; Mrs. Gene Winters, home economics; Miss Terry Lincicum, arts, and Bob Clough, athletics. Partway through the talks the group moved to the back of the cafeteria. Cookies and coffee were served and remaining talks and a question period followed.

During the business meeting before the program Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, high school PTA president, spoke on her participation in a PTA legislative workshop at the state capitol in Salem and gave a report on the very successful PTA-Band Carnival held April 1.

Report of the nominating committee resulted in the nomination and election of Dave Banett as vice-president of the high school PTA for the coming year and Mrs. Paul Warren as the secretary-treasurer.
