

Horn Speaks to Grange On Evolution of Birds

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — Kirk Horn, biology teacher in the Heppner High school, showed pictures of the evolution of birds from the ancient reptile family and several of the wild animals in Morrow county, many of which are slowly disappearing, at the Willows Grange program on Saturday evening, April 15. He urged protection of both animals and birds. Mrs. Omar Rietmann, chairman of the bird committee of the Ione Garden Club, introduced Mr. Horn, whose talk was most interesting.

During the business meeting Princess Berniece Matthews' rodeo dance was announced for July 15 and committees were named.

The Home Economics thanked the public for making the recent smorgasbord a success. The club will meet next Friday, April 21, at 2:00 at the Grange Hall.

Guests for the meeting, which followed a potluck supper, were C. C. Jones, master of Lexington Grange, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Chairman of District No. 6 of Home Economics Clubs, and Bob Cobel of Baker, State Grange Deputy for Eastern Oregon. Mr. Cobel spoke on several Grange subjects.

Next meeting of Willows Grange will be on May 20 at which time the Degree team will exemplify the 1st and 2nd degrees. Other Granges are invited to bring their candidates for initiation.

Mrs. George Griffith drove to Portland on Sunday to get her daughter, Charlotte, who was out of school with a case of chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rietmann were visiting in Portland last week with Mrs. Rietmann's niece, who is a patient at the Shrine Hospital after surgery on her arm.

Mrs. John Eubanks and her daughter, Mrs. Dale Rodriguez and twin sons of Hermiston and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen drove to Madras last Thursday to visit relatives. They visited Mrs. Eubank's niece, Mrs. Chet Herzberg, and her new baby son, Shawn Clifford, who was born on March 14, weighing 6 lbs. They also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner.

A large group of young people enjoyed a party at Valley Lutheran Church on Sunday afternoon. Twelve from the United Church of Christ attended. The film, "Parable" was shown and dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders and family of Portland were guests of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks this weekend. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rodriguez came over from Hermiston and took home their twin boys, who had been staying with their grandparents, for a few days.

Principal Outlines Plan

Harold Beggs, principal of the Ione schools, presented an informative talk at the April PTA meeting regarding the proposed change to a six-six school in Ione next year. This plan has been approved by the local advisory board, the county school board, and recently by the State Department of Education. According to the new schedule seventh and eighth grades will operate on the same class time schedule as the high school classes. Their classes will be taught by teachers from the high school in their particular fields, which is being done to some extent at present. It is planned to keep lunch times and social activities as separate operations. The library will be centralized with a librarian, a record system for all the upper six grades will be kept on one permanent record card.

Other numbers on the program included a medley of songs played on the flute by Karen Nelson accompanied on the piano by Terrie O'Connor.

Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, president, appointed Louis Carlson, Harold Beggs, and Rebecca Case to the scholarship committee. She also announced that the Ione PTA was cooperating in the auction at Heppner on May 13, with proceeds to be used for a new agricultural hall at the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry in Portland. James Marvin will serve on the committee to gather contributions for the sale.

The state PTA convention will be held in Pendleton on April 24, 25, 26 and 27. Anyone in Pendleton on any of those days is urged to attend some of the sessions. Mrs. Christopherson will attend on Wednesday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Ling this week were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Wilson of Brightwood.

Kathy Shockley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Shockley of Seattle, has been chosen for seven pep rally girls for Shoreline High school. The Shockleys lived here a few years ago, when Mr. Shockley was the principal of the schools.

Mrs. Garland Swanson, chairman, and her co-workers have collected over $265.00 for the American Red Cross in this community.

Ione Assembly No. 89, Rainbow for Girls is sponsoring a dance at the Grade School Gym on Saturday evening, April 22, from 8:30 to 12:00 p.m. Tickets will be $1.00 a person and the "Changing Times" will play. There will be special decorations and refreshments served. Topic Club, which was postponed last week will be held at the home of Mrs. Verner Troedson on Tuesday afternoon, April 25. Members are to bring a fashion trend, which is being repeated years later in either accessories, clothing, or furniture, as a roll call.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree were their son, Ron from Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Meyers of Portland.

Mrs. Esper Hansen left for her home in Portland on Thursday after a visit with relatives here.

Last Thursday morning Barbara Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer, had surgery on her leg at a hospital in Pendleton. She returned to school on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klingler and son of Portland were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe, this weekend.

Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Sr., is here from Portland visiting her sons, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr. and family.

Members of Ione Assembly No. 89, Rainbow for Girls and their advisory attended the United Church of Christ on Rainbow Sunday, April 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ottinger of Portland were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan.

Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Berl Akers, and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Jr., were hostesses for a luncheon preceding the Eastern Star Social Club at the Masonic Hall on Wednesday. Proceeds of $36.00 was given to the committee to be presented to the Knights Templar Eye Foundation committee of the Grand Chapter.

Ten members of the Riverside chapter attended the contest. Ronald Black is their advisor. Other chapters participating were Wy-East, Sherman, Heppner, Hermiston, McEwen and Mac-HI.

Linda and Jody Tatone were initiated in the first and second degrees at Greenfield Grange Saturday night at the regular monthly meeting. They will take the third and fourth degrees at Columbia Grange at Hermiston August 21.

Andy Skiles was appointed County Extension representative from the grange for Morrow county.

Announcement was made that Pomona Grange would meet at Rhea Creek Grange April 29, at 10:30 a.m.

The secretary was instructed to write a letter to the State Board of Health that the grange would support Columbia Grange's effort to establish a diabetic clinic in the area. Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black and Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Hug.

Mrs. Ronald Black was hostess for the Boardman Tillicum Club at her home last week with Mrs. Ralph Skoubo as co-hostess. The evening was spent making favors for the district convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs April 18.

The club will be in charge of the Cancer Fund Drive here April 18-25, with all members working.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Dewey West April 25, at 8 p.m.
