

County OEA Elects Officers at Session Preceding Dinner

About 55 teachers and administrators from Boardman, Irrigon, Ione and Heppner were guests at a Morrow County Oregon Education Association meeting and dinner at Heppner High school Monday, April 17.

Ron Daniels, principal of Riverside High school, installed new officers for the coming year during a general meeting at 5 p.m. Clifford Williams, eighth grade teacher at Heppner Elementary school will be president; Dante Dalto, Riverside High school vice-principal, vice-president; Mrs. Emile Groshens, music teacher at Heppner Elementary, secretary, and Mrs. Eleanor Sergeant, sixth grade teacher at Irrigon, treasurer.

Speakers at the meeting were Bruce Burns and Joe Daley, teachers who donate their time to the operation of the Umalla-Morrow Teachers' Credit Union. They described the services available to teachers through the credit union.

Members met before the general session in committee meetings at 4:00 and gathered for a coffee hour at 4:30. Following the general meeting the group adjourned to the school cafeteria for a banquet.

Heppner PTA ladies cooked the dinner and planned its service. Future Homemakers of America, under the guidance of Mrs. Gene Winters, home economics teacher, prepared coffee and appetizers and later served tables at the dinner.

According to Mrs. Groshens the OEA members were most grateful for a delicious meal and good service.

Jayceettes Discuss Summer Concessions

Pop, candy, gum and the serving thereof formed a large part of the discussion material for Jayceettes when they met April 20. The group is planning to operate a refreshment facility for Little League games when league play begins and also plans to help the Jaycees provide food concessions at the Morrow County Rodeo.

Members, meeting at the home of Mrs. Lyle Jensen with Mrs. Jerry Samples as co-hostesses, selected Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine to be chairman of arrangements for the Little League concessions. At the present time they plan to have popcorn, pop, candy and gum for sale at all games.

Mrs. Clyde Allstott and Mrs. Jerry Samples will be co-chairmen for the Jayceettes for the rodeo concessions and will assist Jerry Samples, chairman for the Jaycees.

Members present for the meeting were Mrs. Tom Wilson, Mrs. Oliver Devin, Mrs. Verne Nolan, Mrs. Darrel McLachlan, Mrs. Burkenbine, Mrs. Hollomon, Mrs. Allstott and Mrs. Jensen. Next meeting will be Thursday, May 18, at the home of Mrs. Darrel McLachlan at 5 p.m.

SOCIETY

Tour of Holy Land Basis of Religious Program by WSCS

Mrs. Ralph Crum and son, Monty, presented an interesting program with Easter emphasis at the regular meeting of the Methodist WSCS on April 5. The life of Jesus was traced, using slides of the Crum's recent trip to the Holy Land. Explanation and scriptural passages were narrated on tape by Rev. Don McCarty with musical background by Mrs. McCarty.

Mrs. Melvin Dixon assisted with the devotional hour and led the group in singing "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked." Mrs. Sam Miller accompanied them.

Mrs. James Hilderbrand presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Bill Farra and Mrs. Doug Drake were hostesses during the social hour. About 25 members and guests were present.

At the next regular WSCS meeting on Wednesday evening, May 3, Mrs. Bill Weatherford will provide the program, showing slides of her travels to the Orient, accompanied by discussion. Mrs. Carl McDaniel will assist.

New Members Added To Soroptimist Club; Initiated Last Week

Four new members were initiated into the Soroptimist club of Heppner during the program of the luncheon meeting last Thursday noon.

Welcomed into membership were Mrs. Glenn Smith, of the Morrow County Fair Board; Mrs. Elaine George, city recorder; Miss Terry Lincecum, school art instructor, and Mrs. Marjorie Wilcoxon, county extension agent. Conducting the special ceremonies were Mrs. Bill Johnson, vice president, and Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, president.

Two delegates, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Emile Groshens, will travel to Bellingham, Wn., to represent the club at the Northwest Regional Conference on Friday and Saturday, April 28 and 29.

Mrs. Matt Hughes announced plans for assisting the Elks Lodge in entertaining the seventh and eighth grade students at the annual dance Friday night. Soroptimist members will prepare and serve the refreshments for those attending the dance.

Club Meets Tuesday

Heppner Golden Age club will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, May 2, at the Episcopal parish hall. Members and guests will gather at 7:00 p.m. for potluck dinner and enjoy entertainment following.

MRS. FREDERICK MARTIN

District Clubs Name Director to 2nd Term At Spring Convention

Mrs. F. T. Martin of Ione was reelected for a second two-year term as district director of Blue Mountain District No. 10, Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, at the annual spring meeting at the Elks Lodge in Pendleton on Wednesday, April 19. Hostesses for the meeting were members of three clubs, the Pendleton Garden Club, the Dirt Dabblers and Petal Pushers. Mrs. Charles Dallas served as general chairman.

Mrs. Harold S. Huber, Heppner, was chosen for the office of secretary-treasurer for the district. By-laws for the district were adopted. About 85 members and guests registered during the day from garden clubs throughout the district. Roll call was taken by clubs with annual reports given by the presidents. A coffee hour at 9:00 a.m. opened the day's activities. Displays of spring flowers attracted interest, as well as a plant exchange and white elephant sale.

With an arrangement of pink stock and white tulips from her yard, Mrs. Martin won first prize in the fresh flower show. A bouquet of deep red roses made from velvet paper won for Mrs. Alma Rohlfman the first prize in the artificial flower arranging contest.

Mrs. Martin called the meeting to order, with Roger Atkinson giving the invocation. Mrs. Charles Dallas, general chairman, gave the speech of welcome.

The following state officers were introduced, Mrs. Marvin Ambuhl, president, and Mrs. I. E. Olsen, recording secretary, both of Lake Oswego; Mrs. Richard Westerfield, second vice president, Ashland; Mrs. Claude Mills, visiting gardens chairman, Lake Grove.

Also present was Claude Mills, state horticulture workshop chairman. He showed slides of the new Japanese garden in Washington Park, Portland, and pictures of landscape designs, various species of flowers and trees.

Attention was called to work of garden clubs in supporting the "litterbug" campaign to keep the nation's highways clean, and also the roadside beautification drive.

An invitation was extended by the Echo Garden Club to hold the next spring meeting, and was accepted by the members.

Door prizes brought by Mr. Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Yancey of Blue Mountain Nursery in Milton-Freewater, were drawn for and distributed.

The Round-Up motif was used by the hostess clubs in decorating the dining room and on the tables for the noon luncheon.

Pine City Extension Unit Elects Officers; Supports 4-H Club

Mrs. Tom Ashbeck presided at the regular meeting of the Pine City Extension unit at her own home Wednesday, April 12. It was an all day meeting with a potluck luncheon at noon.

Mrs. Jerry Meyers, 4-H chairman of the unit, reported on the progress of the Pine City Community 4-H club. Mrs. Bill Healy is the leader. Eighteen members are carrying horse and livestock projects. They meet the third Thursday of the month and are presently planning a trail ride.

Mrs. John Madison was elected president of the unit for the year 1967-68; Mrs. Willard French, vice-president and Mrs. Jerry Meyers, secretary.

Other business included plans for the Homemakers' Festival May 17, at the Lexington Grange Hall. The next regular meeting will be May 10 at the home of Mrs. Burl Wattenburger with Mrs. Bob McCarty and Mrs. Mike McCarty as project leader.

Mrs. Ashbeck and Mrs. Welden Witherrite presented the discussion of the day emphasizing the common sense items to check before calling a service man to repair a major appliance.

During the social hour the 16 members honored Mrs. Bob McCarty with a pink and blue shower.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Abrams, Everett, Wash., visited at the home of their son and family, the Bob Abrams, over the weekend.

Couple Announces Recent Marriage

Miss Susan Ann Vale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mell L. Vale of Portland, became the bride of James Austin Morris, son of Mrs. Edgar Morris, Heppner, on Friday, April 14. Vows were exchanged at the Trinity Lutheran church in Vancouver, Wn., in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Attending the couple were the bride's sister and the groom's brother, Clifford (Kip) Morris, Pendleton.

Following the reception, the newlyweds left for a short wedding trip to the coast, and are now at home near Beaverton. Both bride and groom are employed by insurance companies in Portland.

Among those attending the wedding were the groom's brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Nolan and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brosnan, and Dean Lovgren.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farra on Wednesday and Thursday, April 19 and 20, were Mrs. Farra's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Hochhalter and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wiest, all of Wishik, N. D. The two couples were visiting relatives in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

KATHLEEN RAY

Couple Announces June Wedding Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Willard O'Harra announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Kathleen Ray, to James H. Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Banks, Pendleton.

A 1965 graduate of Heppner High school, Kathy was a cheerleader and honor student. She attended Blue Mountain Community College and is now employed as a technician at Eastern Oregon State hospital and Training Center in Pendleton. Banks, who was graduated from Pendleton High school in 1961, served for four years in the U. S. Navy. He is presently employed by the Pendleton Police Department.

The young couple will be married Saturday, June 17, at 2 p.m. at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Heppner.

Diane Schaffitz, a student in Portland at Pacific School of Beauty, was home April 15, 16 and 17 visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Schaffitz.
