Mothers are Invited To Legion Meeting

Mothers of Legionnaires are invited to be special guests of the American Legion and Auxiliary at their next regular meeting, Monday, May 1. The usual potluck dinner will start the evening at 7:00 p.m.

Mrs. Frank Hamlin, Auxiliary president, calls attention to May as "poppy month," one of the most important programs of the Auxiliary's activities. "The poppy is an emblem of sacrifice and we must make every effort to teach the public the true meaning of the flower," she emphasizes. "Our public should be reminded that the disabled men in hospitals and their families are assisted by poppy funds. The public will then know that the American Legion and Auxiliary have 'taken up the torch' and are keeping faith with those who gave their all."

Special activities are being planned in preparation for Memorial Day and the sale of poppies.

Donations Start For OMSI Auction Slated on May 13

Donations have started to come in for the auction to be held at the Morrow county fairgrounds on Saturday, May 13, for the benefit of the agricultural addition to the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry. Gene Pierce and W. C. Rosewall, chairmen of the local committee, announce.

First donation was that of the Harris Drive-in offering a $10 meal ticket to be auctioned. Claude Graham donated a ton of hay. Willows lodge, IOOF, made an outright cash donation of $100 to the cause, and Morrow County Grain Growers gave $20 for postage on mailing letters requesting donations.

The local OMSI committee will start making contacts this week for donations around the county.

Anyone who has anything to give for the auction may bring it to the Bank of Eastern Oregon or may call Pierce or Rosewall, and arrangements will be made to pick up the articles.

Pierce emphasized that the donations are tax deductible. When the articles are given, a receipt will be furnished to the donor stating the value of the article and this may be used as a voucher for the deduction.

Committee members will contact merchants and farmers, and the PTA organizations will assist by working through the schools.

Members of the committee who may be contacted on the donations are Jackie Allstott, Edda Mae Lovgren, Gene Winters, Paul Jones, Floyd Jones, Bob Stevens, June Christopher, Don Bristow, Delpha Jones, Jean Nelson, O. W. Cutsforth, Larry Lindsay, Ken Turner, Wavel Wilkinson, Irene Dalzell, Dr. Jim Norene, Wes Sherman, Kirk Horn, Frank Anderson, Jim Wishart, La Verne Van Marter, Sr., and Bob Bergstrom, together with the co-chairmen, Pierce and Rosewall.

Bill Hust, Penney store manager, attended a district meeting of Penney store managers Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 18, in Spokane. Besides having a brief visit with his brother, also a store manager, he had the pleasure of finding a general good report on his store and of hearing that so far this month the Heppner store is showing the second best increase in earnings among stores of comparable size in the Washington, Oregon and Idaho district.

Peterson to Ask Funds for Project

Oscar E. Peterson, former county judge who will go to Washington, D. C., to the Rivers and Harbors Congress as a director of Inland Empire Waterways association, will urge pre-construction appropriation for the Willow Creek project while he is there.

Peterson will leave Friday as one of a group of 25 going to the nation's capital representing the Inland Empire Waterways. The group will testify on 107 Corps of Army Engineer projects before House and Senate sub-committees on appropriations.

The group will have luncheon with northwest senators and will make personal calls on all members of the Congressional delegation. Hearings will be conducted and meetings will be held throughout next week.

Peterson will take with him a resolution from the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce again urging Congress to approve pre-construction appropriation for the Willow Creek project. The resolution was approved at the Monday meeting of the organization.

Already in the President's budget is $55,000 for pre-construction planning on the irrigation feature of the project for the Bureau of Reclamation. The Chamber resolution urges funds for the Army Corps of Engineers pre-construction planning.

Warren's Essay Best in Idaho

Steve Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Warren of Heppner, has won the Idaho state competition in the peace essay contest sponsored by the Lions International and now will enter the world competition, according to a news release from Ricks College, Rexburg, Idaho, where he is a student.

Frank Webster, chairman of the Rexburg contest, said the Lions club in that city received word that Warren's essay won over all other Idaho entries and now enters a "world regional" contest.

"Out of this competition will come the eight best essays in the world and the world's top essay will be selected with its grand prize of $25,000," Webster said.

Warren's essay on peace won the local competition and district contest to qualify for the state.

Webster said he hopes to have the essay published because "it is so outstanding."

Jaycees Sound Plea for Talent For May 20 Show

(Entry Blank on Page 8) Morrow county Jaycees this week sounded a second call for talent for their 1967 Talent Show that is scheduled to be held in Heppner on Saturday night May 20.

Gail McCarty, chairman, said that there will be five divisions according to ages in the show with prizes offered for each. They are: Preschool, grades 1 through 5, grades 6 through 8, high school and adult.

All types of talent are desired—instrumental music, vocal music, ensembles, dancing, mimics, acrobatic acts, magic, skits or any other entertaining presentation.

McCarty has arranged with Patricia Hoff of a Portland television station for at least the best act to audition for Palace Showcase over the station. Deadline for entries is May 10. Those who are at all interested in taking part are urged to fill out the entry blank (printed on page 3 of this paper) and send it either to McCarty or to Harley Sager prior to that time.

Baker Elected Lions' President

David Baker was elected president of the Lone Lions club at the regular meeting in Lone Tuesday night. He succeeds Don Bristow, retiring president.

The club presented a gold Lions pen set to Jan Hager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hager, as winner of the recent local contest in the Lions peace essay competition. The club also gave her a certificate for her achievement.

Donation of $50 towards publication of the Morrow county history was approved by the club, and it was also voted to change meetings back to Monday nights when the club meetings start in the fall after the summer vacation.

Lindsay Kincaid was elected first vice-president of the club. Herb Ekstrom, Jr., was elected second vice-president, and Robert Drake, third vice-president.

Ray Boyce was reelected as secretary-treasurer. Other officers chosen are: Larry Prock, tall twister; Skip Pettyjohn, Lion tamer; Gene Kietmann and Joe Balfe, directors for one-year terms; and Harold Snider and Lloyd Morgan, directors for two-year terms.

Good Luck the Rule On Opening Day; Trout Plants Slated

Limit catches were the rule rather than the exception on opening week-end of trout season, Glen Ward, state game agent, said Monday. Water conditions were generally good, contributing to the success of the season's start.

Bull Prairie reservoir has been "slow" but on the creeks, which do not have the year-around pressure of Bull Prairie, anglers did very well.

Ward said that Willow and Rhea creeks each received 1000 Rainbow trout, averaging nine inches, Friday. Another 1000 were planted in Cutsforth pond.

The game agent said that Rock Creek was to be stocked with 1500 trout on Wednesday.

Roe Creek reservoir, also near Fossil, has received 6000 legal fish and another 6000 will be added before the summer is over.

Willow and Rhea creeks are to be restocked after May 1. Some 20,000 small Rainbow trout—about two inches in length—will be stocked in Bull Prairie this summer, Ward said.

The fish plants are made by the Oregon State Game Commission.

Pierce Presides At Bank Meeting

Gene Pierce, president of the Bank of Eastern Oregon, presided at a 2 day meeting of the Oregon Independent Bankers' association in his capacity as president of the association on April 17 and 18 in Salem.

A highlight of the meeting was a banquet at which J. F. M. Slade, superintendent of banks in Oregon, was honored. He is serving as president of the National Association of State Supervisors.

Distinguished guests included Governor Tom McCall; Clay Myers, Secretary of State; Robert Straub, State Treasurer; and some 25 members of the Oregon legislature, including Rep. Irvin Mann of Stanfield, representing the 28th legislative district.

Gov. McCall addressed the group and Slade was presented with a plaque from the association.

Some 150 were present at the banquet, including bankers and their wives, and the guests. Mrs. Pierce accompanied her husband at the meeting.

League Schedules Final Tryouts

Final tryouts for Little League baseball are scheduled for Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Little League field at the fairgrounds, Harley Sager of the sponsoring Jaycees announces.

There were not enough boys out at the first tryouts Saturday to fill the rosters of the four teams in the Willow Creek league, Sager said. He urged all boys of ages 9 through 12 to come out Saturday. This applies only to those who were not playing regularly with a team last year. The holdovers qualify without trying out.

For those who have not been playing previously, it is necessary to participate in at least one tryout before becoming eligible, Sager emphasized.

Towns Reappraisal Slated This Year

Reappraisal of real property within the city limits of Boardman, Irrigon, Ione and Lexington is scheduled this year to maintain the 6-year cycle of appraisals as required by state law. Bill Johnson, appraiser, said Tuesday.

The new values, however, will not go on the county tax roll until 1968-69. Under terms of the law, property throughout the county must be reappraised every six years.

Under the rotation plan developed by Johnson, the four towns mentioned above are appraised in the first year as district 1. Heppner will be appraised in the second year as district 2. Rural code areas 39-1, 25-2, 10-2, 5-1, and 0-1 (north end) will be appraised the third year as district 3. Rural code areas 8-1, 35-2, 12-2 and 12-3 (area surrounding Ione and north and west of Lexington) will be appraised the fourth year as district 4. Rural code areas 1-3, 1-4, 1-5 and 1-2 (surrounding Heppner) will be appraised the fifth year as district 5. Rural code areas 40-1 and 0-1 (south end of the county) will be appraised in the sixth year as district 6.

With this history in mind, the church will worship on Frank Anderson's ranch, joining with St. Michael's church in Condon.

Worship will begin at 11 a.m.
