

TIM MOORE, manager of Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company, can mix Boysen paints to any color or match any color that the customer desires. He is shown by the mixing equipment in his paint department. This is just one department in Tum-A-Lum's complete line of building and supply needs. (G-T Photo)

MARK ALLEN MARVIN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Marvin of Ione, discovers he isn't quite big enough to fill dad's shoes, but he learned that Gonty's in Heppner has shoes, boots and all kinds of footwear to fit everyone from babies to great he-men. Whether the home project involves mucky concrete work or carpet laying, Gonty's has the right footwear for the job. (G-T Photo)

Don't Be 'Caught'

BY HOME REPAIR RACKETEERS

With the arrival of Spring comes the Robin . . . and usually, right behind him is a whole flock of strangers soliciting orders for Siding, Awnings, Windows, Doors, Roofing, etc . . . Should you be solicited . . . "Don't get YOUR tail salted" . . .

BEWARE OF THE HOME IMPROVEMENT 'GYP'

PROPERTY OWNERS WOULD DO WELL TO READ THE FOLLOWING HOME IMPROVEMENT HINTS:

1. Check any "bargain" offer presented by a stranger which seems unrealistic BEFORE you deposit any money or sign any agreement.
2. Let NO ONE begin ANY work on your property before you ascertain the reliability of the firm they represent.
3. Beware of the "bargain job" or any idea that your home will be a "model home" for "advertising" purposes, entitling you to a rebate or commission, or a "Special Offer" which will soon expire.
4. Insist on knowing the TOTAL cost of labor and materials . . . don't rely on verbal promises. Require the solicitor to leave proposed forms with you for further consideration, and refuse to deal with him further if he is unwilling to comply.
5. Remember that the firm may not be too greatly interested in the matter of materials, quality or payment, because it will have a mechanic's lien on your property in case of non-payment.

May we suggest -

Before you purchase any home improvement deal from strangers, consult a LOCAL attorney, merchant, contractor, financial institution or the Chamber of Commerce.
