

Students Dine, Dance In Roman Holiday Atmosphere in Lone

The annual Junior-Senior prom and banquet were held at the Lone High school on Saturday, May 20. The festive evening began with a banquet in the cafeteria at 6:30 p.m. The Juniors chose "A Roman Holiday" as the theme for the occasion and the room decorations cleverly carried out the theme at the banquet.

Junior class president Kathy Keene gave the welcome followed by the response from the senior class president Pat McElligott. Ron and Neal Christopherson played two trumpet selections, "More" and "Dear Heart" and the junior class sang "You'll Never Walk Alone", which they dedicated to the senior class. Father Raymond Beard and Rev. Don Pederson gave the invocation and benedictions. A corsage of orchids was presented to Mrs. Robert Adams, the junior class advisor.

The delicious ham dinner was prepared by the mothers of Junior class members with Mrs. Joyce Keene and Mrs. Norman Nelson as co-chairman. Serving were freshmen and sophomore students, Ron Christopherson, Joe and Tom McElligott, Charly Boggs, Sharlene Hamlett, Jodi Snow, Teresa Stefani, Jim Swanson, and Teresa Tucker. They were dressed in traditional Roman garb with togas, garlands for their heads, slave bracelets, and were barefoot.

Honored guests were the seniors and their parents. Members of the class are Montie Crum, Bonnie Hynd, Leland and Leon Magill, Berniece and Deniece Matthews, Pat McElligott, Lois Messinger, Virgil Morgan, Karen Nelson Mary Nichols, and Linda Rowell.

The banquet was followed at 9:00 p.m. by the prom. The gym was beautifully decorated as a Roman garden with the main color scheme being purple and lavender. Huge gold grape clusters accented the lavender walls and lighted pillars lined both sides of the floor. Small tables and chairs were behind these.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served during the evening by eighth graders Kathy Holtz, Jane Krebs, Darlene Warren, and Christine McCabe.

At 11:00 p.m. the seniors and their dates were introduced and Bonnie Hynd and Leland Magill were crowned King and Queen of the Prom in an impressive ceremony. Crown bearers were Debra and Donna Palmer, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer.

Music for the evening was provided by the Talsmen of Wenatchee, Wash.

Juniors who planned the evening were Neal Christopherson, Willa Johnson, Kathy Keene, Chris Lovgren, Maureen and Jim McElligott, Chuck Nelson, and Terri O'Connor, Janet Palmateer, Kerry Peterson, and Janice Snider.

Club Hears Report On Regional Meeting; Elect New Officers

Some of the highlights of the 49th annual Northwest Regional Conference of the Soroptimist association were reported at the luncheon meeting of the Heppner club, May 18 by Mrs. Bill Johnson. Attending the three-day conference at Bellingham, Wn., the week-end of April 21-23 were Mrs. Johnson, local vice-president, and Mrs. Emile Groshens, regional representative.

Regional Governor Bernadine Batters of Vancouver, Wn., presided over the sessions, with interesting reports heard from regional and district officers. Delegates attended afternoon workshops on Saturday, related to international goodwill and understanding, to service objectives and memberships. An invitation from the Coos Bay club was accepted for place of the 1968 conference.

Three senior girls, Marsha Sowell, Martha Peck and Sandra Bryson were guests of the day. Also, Miss Evelyn Funk, state extension agent of Corvallis was a guest of Mrs. Marjorie Wilcoxon, Morrow county agent.

The following slate of new officers was presented by Mrs. Sadie Parrish, nominating committee chairman; Mrs. Bill Johnson, president; Mrs. Elaine George, vice-president; Mrs. Glenn Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Matt Hughes, recording secretary; Mrs. Groshens, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Pfeiffer, 3-year board member; Mrs. Parrish, 2-year board member; Mrs. Howard Pettyjohn, 1-year board member; Mrs. Wes Sherman, regional representative.

The Heppner club will entertain all senior girls, their mothers, wives of the men faculty and administrators at its annual Senior Girls' Tea on Sunday afternoon, May 28, at the home of Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson. Reception hours will be from three to five o'clock.

Among those arriving too late for the Pioneer Memorial picnic Sunday were Mrs. Edith Thorley Bowling and Mr. and Mrs. Imogene Slocum Snider, all of Boise, Idaho, and Mrs. Odile Groshens Luper of Portland. Mrs. Bowling, who graduated with the Heppner High class of 1915, and Mrs. Snider thought the picnic was to be on Memorial Day. Mrs. Luper realized it was on Sunday but was unable to get here at that time.
