

Community Fills Church Sunday For Dedication

By MARY LEE MARLOW
(Held over from last week)

BOARDMAN—Over 200 persons attended the dedication services for the new Boardman Community church, held Sunday morning following regular services. Rev. Walter Duff, Dallas, national chairman of the Village Missions, gave the dedication address. Rev. George Neeley, church pastor, sang "Nailed To The Cross," and Mrs. Wayne Kuhn sang "Down From His Glory." Following the address and prayer by Rev. Duff, Rev. Neeley cut the ribbon across the altar.

Following the services, a potluck dinner was enjoyed at the Greenfield Grange Hall with again over 200 attending. Many former members and friends of the church came from great distances.

HAROLD H. MILLER AGENCY

For all kinds of insurance, call the Harold H. Miller Agency in Hermiston, located at 911 N. 1st, or phone 567-5229.

This company is looked to for insurance service by a large number of people throughout Umatilla and Morrow counties. They represent some of the largest companies such as Hartford Casualty for fire and auto, and Prudential Life Insurance Company of America for life and disability insurance.

There are so many things over which we have no control, both of a personal and property nature. So many today are willing to risk their family's future security by not guaranteeing them of some protection in case of accident.

When in need of insurance, be sure to consult the Harold H. Miller Agency in Hermiston. Go over the ground with them as you do your lawyer, and they will be able to assist you in selecting the kind of insurance suited to your needs. Such men as Harold Miller, Dick Ervin, and Earl Davis, who are known to many of our Morrow county people, will be pleased to sit down with you and work out the correct insurance program for you and your family.

These men have made a study of insurance problems and will help you determine what your need is and how best you can meet that need at a minimum cost. In this 1967 Hermiston Business Review, we feel a sense of satisfaction in recommending this firm for insurance of all kinds.

CAMPBELL EQUIPMENT INC.

LARRY CAMPBELL—OWNER

When in the market for farm implements be sure to go to the Campbell Equipment, located at 535 N. 1st in Hermiston or phone 567-6529.

This fine company features the famous Ford Tractors and implements, the new Holland line of hay and forage equipment, and the Heston Windrower. And now—to make their equipment line complete—Larry Campbell has taken on the complete Oliver line of machinery, including the big 1950 4-wheel drive Oliver tractor. You are invited in to "Look 'em over."

Bob Wright or Larry will be pleased to arrange for a demonstration on your own land. These are lines of equipment that have proven themselves to the ranchers of Eastern Oregon.

Campbell Equipment Co. also features a complete parts and repair department so that when your equipment needs overhauling, as does all machinery at various times, they can give you the best service in the shortest time at the least possible expense to you.

Be sure and contact Campbell Equipment Inc. first when in the market for any type of farm equipment.

Just phone 567-6529 for information or stop in at their office the next time you are in Hermiston and let Larry Campbell show you the advantages of using Ford, New Holland or Oliver to put your farm on a really paying basis.

HARRY PHILLIPS CO.

HARRY PHILLIPS—OWNER

Conveniently located just north of Hermiston on the Hermiston McNary Dam road, or phone 567-5982.

This popular concern carries a complete line of boats, motors and accessories, and through their fair prices constantly offered, they have won an enviable reputation throughout all of Eastern Oregon.

The people of this territory have come to know that they can depend on Harry Phillips Co. for everything in boating.

They feature the popular Starcraft, Glaspar and fibertorm boats in every size, the E-Z loader boat trailer, and are headquarters for the famous Mercury boat motors. You will find here a complete service, including sales, parts, repairs, and a friendly staff that will be pleased to serve you. By the way, this company is also the Datsun distributor for our area and you are invited to take a demonstration ride in this popular car.

One of the essential features of any product is that it will stand the wear of the years. The same is true of the reputation of any business firm, and that is why the Harry Phillips Co. enjoys an ever increasing volume of business and popularity.

This 1967 Business Review certainly recommends them highly and we invite our readers to look over one of the best boating facilities in all of Eastern Oregon.

HAGG'S TRAILER SALES

LEO and ETHEL HAGG—OWNERS

There are millions of people living in mobile homes today because of the high price of real estate and rent. Then, too, they have discovered it is a very convenient, carefree and economical way of life, with no land problems. A home of this type can often be purchased for less than the price of a new automobile and paid for in convenient monthly payments.

They are occupied by a class of people who are engaged in various occupations. A number are purchased each year for portable ranch homes and they are particularly nice for retired families.

Hagg's Trailer Sales is located on Highway 32 in Power City near Umatilla and north of Hermiston. They offer only Mobile Homes that they can personally recommend, that are well constructed and priced so the intended purchaser gets the best for his money.

They feature the beautiful Marlette and Nashua Mobile homes. When you buy a Mobile Home, your home is completely furnished with modern up-to-date furnishings ready for you to move in.

In this 1967 Review we would like to bring to your attention, the more than 20 years of exceptional service that Hagg's Trailer Sales has made available to Eastern Oregon people and you are invited to stop in and "Look 'em over."

There is a good selection of used mobile homes also, and at mighty low prices—for Mobile Home Transporting, too,—anywhere in Oregon, call 922-3752 (Umatilla) for more information.

CAMPBELL RAMBLER and TOYOTA

325 N. 1st HERMISTON, OREGON

This 1967 Review strives to refer our readers to the better business houses of Hermiston who endeavor to give their customers that "Old fashioned" personal service and honest values for your money.

The Campbell Rambler, the oldest Rambler dealer in north-east Oregon is distributor for two automobiles that best fit the "Honest value for your money"—the 1967 Rambler and the Toyota.

Where quality is built in—not added on. The rust resistant bodies, two separate braking systems, spring construction of seating, and many other standard items for Rambler that are available only in five and six thousand dollar automobiles is an example.

The Toyota with its four wheel drive and rugged construction, its complete selection of pickups and cruisers seems expressly made for the ranchers and people of Eastern Oregon.

If the slogan, "America's new breed of workhorse" fits your need in transportation, be sure and see the Toyotas on display at Campbell's in Hermiston.

Lloyd Campbell contends that seeing is believing, and he invites our readers to stop in and really look at a Rambler or the tough ones from Toyota that are on display. P. S. For you sports car buffs, be sure and look at the new "Rogue" and the new "Rebel". They are really "something else".

1215 N. 1st
