

Kinzua Golfers Entertain Club From McNary

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA — On Sunday, June 4, the Kinzua golfers entertained the swingers of the McNary Golf Club of Umatilla at the local club. Throughout the day and into the late afternoon the course was crowded with devotees of the ancient sport who did their utmost to conquer the greens and fairways. The day was begun with a breakfast served by the men and a fine mid-day buffet was set out by the ladies of the club. Prizes were awarded to winners in different categories as follows:

McNary men: Low gross, Cartwright; low net, Shelton; long drive, Cartwright; closest to the pin, Welch. McNary ladies: Low gross, Opal Morr, low net, Janet Welch; long drive, Fran Follett; closest to the pin, Opal Morr.

Kinzua Men: Low gross, Dan Slinkard; low net, a three-way tie between Wayland Hyatt, Jim Hulet, Gary Couture; long drive, Lee Bailey; closest to the pin, Jim Hulet. Kinzua ladies: Low gross and closest to the pin, Lavina Conner; low net and long drive, Dorothy Close. To top the day 25 men participated in a sole survivor contest in which Ned Nickelson and Lee Bailey turned back the challenge of Jiggs Bowman and Milt Boring on the tenth hole to be the winner.

Thirty-three men of the Kinzua Golf club enjoyed the second stag night of the season at the local golf club on Friday evening. Nine holes of medal golf were turned in by the golfers with Don Slinkard and Don McConnell winning low gross and low net. Other winners were: Long Drive, Bob Misener; Closest to the Pin, Lee Bailey; Least Putts, Jim Hulet; Most Putts, Jack Gall.

Jim Walker served up fried chicken in sumptuous quantities which was savored by all present. In a short business meeting, Don Chase was elected president; Bob Reavis, vice-president, and Gary Couture, secretary-treasurer for the coming year.

Mrs. Forrest Logan and children of Salem spent from Thursday until Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woods. When she went home, Terri and Vicki remained with their grandparents to attend the Daily Vacation Bible School.

Pat Hammond of Ione, driver and lone occupant of a car that over turned early Sunday morning near the Alpine junction on the highway to Buttercreek, apparently escaped unhurt from the accident.

A state police officer who went to investigate said that Hammond had left the scene when he arrived about 2 a.m. The auto apparently went out of control as Hammond was driving south and rolled over in a plowed field. The auto was rather extensively damaged, the officer said.

Many Take Part In Ione Concert

IONE—An excellent musical program was presented at the Ione school gymnasium on Thursday evening, May 25, when the Ione Elementary and High schools presented the annual spring concert under the direction of Arnie Hedman, music instructor.

The program opened with two delightful numbers by the high school chorus: "Surrey With the Fringe on the Top" and "Bless This House." Deniece Matthews was accompanist for this group. Members of the chorus include: Janice Snider, Shariene Hamlett, Connie Emert, Teresa Tucker, Linda Nichols, Barbara Boyce, Kathy Keene, Deborah Warren, Jeri Krebs, Terrie O'Connor and Kristine Nelson, sopranos; Kristine Peterson, Linda Pettyjohn, Sandra Carlson, Bonnie Hynd, Berniece Matthews, Karen Nelson, altos; Chris Lovgren, Virgil Morgan, Neal Christopher, Chuck Nelson, Ron Christopher, Leon Magill, Kerry Peterson, and Keith Nelson, baritone.

High school band members played four numbers, followed by the beginners band with four numbers. Fifth grade students in the beginners group are Joan McElligott, Cheryl Hams, Debra Yocum, Teena Stefani, Donna Flack, Mickie Hoskins, Phil Carlson, Mark Rietmann, Shirley Nichols, Doris McCabe, Casey Chapel, Nancy Pettyjohn, Jimmie Kinzer, Freddie Sherman, Melanie Ball, Jan Ekstrom, Mary Pat McElligott, Marcia Linnell.

The intermediate band drew much applause with four numbers. Young people from the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade classes are in this band. Eleven of these students also play with the high school band.

The high school chorus sang "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho," "Alphabet," and "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" followed by four very enjoyable numbers from the high school band.

Both the intermediate band and the high school band members presented gifts of appreciation to Mr. Hedman, who will not be returning to the school next year.

Band mothers served punch, coffee and cookies after the program. The tea table in the cafeteria was attractively decorated with a bouquet of spring flowers in pink and white with white candles. Mrs. James Barnett, chairman, was in charge.

Summer Session Set at College

Six college transfer courses and 12 other courses will be offered by Blue Mountain Community College at its summer session, according to David Raynolds, director.

The courses, to start June 19, will run for six to eight weeks at the college with the exception of a course in art, which will be taught for two weeks at Pendleton High school.

Registration for the summer session will be from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. on June 19 in the Admissions Office at the college. Persons interested are requested to pre-register during the week of June 12-16 either by mail, by visiting the evening division, or by telephoning 276-1620, Ext. 35.

Murray and Lackey Horses Enter Races

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray, Mathew Murray, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lackey traveled to Emmett, Idaho, for quarter-horse races held at the Gem County Fairgrounds track the past week-end.

Murray and Lackey trained horses placed in three of five races entered.

Reed's Tonto, owned by Dr. M. W. Ickes, qualified in the qualifying race for the Futurity which will be run Sunday, June 11. Flaxie Tonto and Hula Time, owned by Walter and Grace Morgan, each won in a regular race.

Rockhound Corner

Mrs. E. E. Gonty, vice-president of Morrow County Gem and Mineral Society, presided at the May meeting, held Saturday evening, May 27. President Avery Taylor was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller told of various trips they had been on, one recently to Fountain Bar, where Mrs. Miller found some arrow heads. Mrs. Miller, co-chairman of the Rock Hound booth at the Sidewalk Bazaar, said she is gathering materials and urged members to cooperate by making things or cutting slabs. Many people interested in rocks have been pleased in the past with what the club has had to offer.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete McMurry were named to serve on the fair booth committee. They would appreciate materials to be used for display.

June 24 is the date of the last meeting for the summer. A potluck supper will be held at 6:30 p.m., and a work session on Sidewalk Bazaar materials will follow. On June 25 a field trip with sack lunch is planned for the Opal Butte area. All members are invited to attend both of these functions and will be notified of the meeting place and time for each field trip.

Mrs. Alice McCabe was hostess for the evening.

Ed Gonty showed slides on the Wallowa country, filmed and supplied by the Northwest Federation of Gems and Minerals.

How to Buy More with Your Income

Buy beef! It's as simple as that. While other living costs have skyrocketed, the price of beef has remained stable. You actually spend less of your disposable income for beef today than you did in 1960. In fact, only 18% of your tax-free income is spent on all food—the lowest amount in history.

Not only do you spend less of your income when you buy beef, you assure your family of having the important nutrition they need.

Shop wisely! Buy quality Oregon beef.
