

Delegates Give Rebekah Reports

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—Holly Rebekah lodge met last Thursday for its regular meeting. Reports were heard from two delegates, Mrs. Florence McMillan and Mrs. Ed Hunt, who attended the state Rebekah Assembly.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Altha Kirk of Hermiston, a member of Sans Souci lodge, and Mrs. Earl Eskelson of Hermiston.

It was announced that the lodge will vacation for the summer months of July and August. Refreshments were served in the dining room after the business meeting.

Lexington Grange will hold its regular meeting Saturday, with potluck refreshments following the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson and daughter Betty of Hood River visited with several of their Lexington friends recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool and children of Pendleton were visitors last Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Florence McMillan.

Virginia Majeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske, who has been a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital, is now confined at her ranch home where she is recuperating.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske returned Saturday following a week's visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Mounis in Maupin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson of Hermiston were recent Lexington visitors.

Mrs. Al Frost and children of Hermiston were recent callers in Lexington.

Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth has been a recent visitor in The Dalles where she was called by the serious illness of her father, John Denslinger, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall have been spending some time at their ranch home in Ukiah.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brent, former residents of Lexington, were callers here the past week. They were both former teachers here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., of The Dalles, visited with relatives here on Sunday.

Mrs. Dave George Wins Second $30 In 'Who's Who'

Lucy Peterson, this week's judge of the Who's Who contest for local merchants and the Gazette-Times, reached in a box full of entries in the contest and pulled out a slip.

It bore the name of Marcia George (Mrs. David George), and it had all the clues that correctly identified Frank Turner as the person of the week.

Thus, Mrs. George won the contest for the second time since it started, and she will receive a check for another $30. Under the rules, a winner may continue to enter for the duration of the contest.

Again, the entry boxes were pretty well filled and more than 100 entries in all were in this week's contest.

The clues were: Robert, 59 years, C of C, native, Jeanette, Anabel, 40 years in business, octogenarian, not a flood victim, first a farmer, former world champion.

Incidentally, Frank was once a world champion sheep shear-er.

In the contest for the upcoming week, clues are printed in this week's paper and may be found in display ads of participating merchants throughout the paper.

Entries may be submitted in boxes at Pettyjohn's Farm and Builders Supply, Chas. Ruggles Insurance, Ione Chevron Station and MILadies Apparel.

Entrants in the Ione area are especially invited to submit their entries in the box at Jim's Chevron Station there.

THESE YOUNGSTERS put forth a lively and noisy campaign last week on behalf of the swimming pool as they marched around town with signs proclaiming "Save Our Pool. Vote Yes Wednesday, May 31, City Hall." Their efforts were not in vain as voters approved the $110,000 bond issue for rebuilding of the pool by a margin of 5-to-1. (G-T Photo)

Banquet Planned For Bob Quinn

Bob Quinn, who is retiring as coach at Eastern Oregon College after many years in that position, will be honored at a testimonial banquet Saturday evening, June 10, at 6:30 in the banquet room of the Sacajawea Hotel in La Grande.

Featured speaker will be Howard Hobson, former head basketball coach at the University of Oregon and Yale University. While at Oregon, Hobson coached the famed "Tall Firs" of the late 1930's and led the Ducks to a national championship.

Ted Wilson, presently head basketball coach at Linfield College, will be toastmaster. Wilson was a star basketball player at EOC under Coach Quinn. Reservations may be made by contacting Grant Millering, La Grande.

Joseph Falardeau Dies Here Friday

Joseph Edgar Falardeau, 79, died Friday, June 2, at Pioneer Memorial hospital after an illness of several months. He had made his home in Heppner for the last three years with his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Wolff. He was very active in putting his knowledge and skill to work on many home projects and in spending much time with his five grandchildren.

Although he lived in Heppner for a relatively short time he had many friends here. He was a member of St. Patrick's church, the Holy Names Society and the Golden Age Club. Before his retirement he had been a garage owner in Wisconsin.

He was born July 28, 1887, at Langdon, N. D., the son of William J. and Frances Boyington Falardeau. His wife, Margaret Kelly Falardeau, preceded him in death in 1963.

Recitation of the rosary was Sunday, June 4, at 7:30 p.m. and a funeral mass was held at 10 a.m. on Monday, June 5, both at St. Patrick's church with Fr. Raymond H. Beard, celebrant.

Concluding services will be at St. Francis Xavier cemetery today (Thursday), June 8, at Superior, Wisc. Arrangements are under the direction of Sweeney Mortuary.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. Wallace (Rita) Wolff, he is survived by another daughter, Sister Mary Salvator O. P. of Sinsinawa, Wisc.; three sisters, Dr. I. V. Falardeau, Mrs. Harry Northote and Mrs. Inez Campbell, all of Winnipeg, Canada; five grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews in Canada.

Dwight Misner of Mesa, Ariz., and formerly of Ione, is renewing acquaintances here and visiting with relatives. He is a guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin, and has visited with Mr. and Mrs. Al Bunch. He enjoyed seeing many of his old friends at the Ione Auction on Saturday. He accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gabbert, now of Council, Idaho, and plans to leave June 10 for Couer d'Alene, Idaho, and on east to Michigan.

Thomsons Elected Parents' Directors

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Thomson of Heppner were elected to the board of directors of the Eastern Oregon College Parents club at the annual spring meeting of the group in La Grande this week.

They will serve as area representatives for the college parent organization throughout the 1967-68 academic year. They will be responsible for coordinating meetings in the area of parents, alumni and be available for questions from parents of high school students who may be seeking information about Eastern Oregon College.

At the same meeting William Jackson of Baker was elected president; Jack Harmon of La Grande was elected vice president; and Jack Rye of the college was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Illness Claims Grace Wood, 88

Grace Mary Wood, 88, died Tuesday, June 6, at Pioneer Memorial hospital after a lengthy illness.

She was born Grace Mary Neal on July 10, 1878, in Saginaw, Mich., and came to Morrow county in 1917 where her family farmed north of Ione. She moved to Washington state in 1934 and later resided in Portland for a number of years, but returned to Heppner five years ago to be near her daughters. She led an active life until the last nine months.

Mrs. Wood was a past matron of Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of the Eastern Star, Ione.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Fred (Beulah) Mankin, Heppner, and Mrs. Holmes (Greta) Gabbert of New Plymouth, Idaho, and Ione; four grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; two great-granddaughters; one sister, Mrs. Harold (Rachel) Cullum, Avon Park, Fla., and two brothers, Richard and Nelson Neal in Florida.

Bill Sherman Takes Counseling Position

Bill Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, will leave Tuesday from Eugene for Minneapolis, Minn., where he will spend the summer as a camp counselor for the Richfield Methodist church of Minneapolis.

He is a junior at the University of Oregon and will leave as soon as he is through his year's work there, driving back to Minneapolis. Bill will be one of three counselors at the camp sessions for all age youth of the church. A trip to the Black Hills, S. D., and a long canoe trip will be among summer activities.

A graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1964, Bill was student body president his senior year.

Rep. Mann to Attend San Francisco Meet

Rep. Irvin Mann of Stanfield will represent Oregon at a meeting of the Human Resources Committee of the Council of State Governments June 16 in San Francisco.

Serving his second two-year term as chairman of the House Interstate Cooperation Commission, Mann will represent Oregon on this committee and the Agriculture Committee during the 1967-69 interim.

Mrs. Mann will accompany him to San Francisco.
