

Lions to Install Officers June 24

Lone Lions Club will install officers for 1967-68 at a meeting in the American Legion hall on the evening of Saturday, June 24, it is announced.

At that time Dave Baker will be seated as president and other new officers will also begin their work. A social hour and dinner are being planned with wives of members invited.

Last regular meeting of the club for the year was Tuesday night at Ling's Cafe.

Dance Here Saturday

A dance will be held at the Heppner fair pavilion Saturday night, June 17, with music provided by The Henchmen of Heppner. Dancing will be from 9:30 until 12:30, with a special invitation given to the returning college students and other young people in the area. The local combo completed a successful week-end tour to Idaho the past week-end, playing Friday night at Lapwai and Saturday night at Kamiah, both near Lewiston.

Cooking Club Meets

The sixth meeting of the Kettles and Spoons 4-H club was called to order by Sandy Matthews, president, on June 6 at Mrs. Robert Abrams' home. Five members and one visitor, Robbie Abrams, were present. We planned the menu for our dinner which we hope to have the first part of August, and discussed what we should do with members of the club who did not attend regularly. We met again at Mrs. Abrams on June 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Notice of Budget Hearing

The budget for Heppner Cemetery Maintenance District for the fiscal year 1967-1968, beginning July 1, 1967, as detailed and summarized in the accompanying schedule was prepared on an accounting basis consistent with that used in prior years. Major changes, if any, and their effects on this budget are set forth in an accompanying statement. A copy of the budget document may be inspected by interested persons between the hours of 9-12 and 1-5 at Heppner City Hall. The budget document, or any portion of it, may be obtained for $75, complete, or $15 per sheet at Heppner City Hall. A meeting of the Board of Directors will be held July 5, 1967, at 7:30 P.M., at Heppner City Hall, for the purpose of holding a public hearing on this budget.

PAUL (SHAN) APPLIGATE

Applegate Receives Degree at Carroll

Paul J. (Shan) Applegate received his bachelor of arts degree at recent commencement exercises at Carroll College, Helena, Mont., the college announces.

His major was in history. Applegate is son of the late Mrs. Gertrude Applegate. He graduated from Heppner High school in the spring of 1963. In high school he was a star athlete and participated in many school activities.

Soward on Church Schedules June 25

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Soward and three children of Austin, Texas, are expected here for a visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Earl Soward, near the end of the month. He will be on vacation from his insurance work in Austin, and as director of music at the First Methodist church here.

While visiting here, Mr. Soward will be heard in special vocal numbers Sunday, June 25, at the 9:00 a.m. worship service in Lexington, and at 11:00 a.m. at the Heppner Christian church. He has become well known for his vocal recordings of religious and classical numbers.

Donna and David Bradley, children of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Piper, have been in Prineville visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Berg. The two spent a week there. Christy Bradley is visiting an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Kiggins, at Myrtle Creek and is with them for an indefinite stay. The Pipers went to Prineville Sunday and brought Donna and David home.

O'Harra Girl Gets High School Honors

Christene O'Harra, daughter of Will O'Harra, Heppner, was graduated with honors Wednesday evening, June 7, at Lakeview High school. She received a four-year tuition scholarship and partial fee remission from the Oregon State Scholarship Commission to attend Southern Oregon College; also the Elks most valuable student award, outstanding speaker cup and the Sroptimist citizenship award.

Her father, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Don (Kitty) Hughes and young nephew, Lown Hughes, drove to Lakeview last Tuesday and remained for the commencement on Wednesday. Speaker at the commencement was Chancellor Lieullien of the State System of Higher Education, by coincidence a family friend of O'Harra since both men lived at Weston.

Graveside Services Held Here Monday For Grace M. Wood

The Rev. Melvin Dixon conducted family graveside committal services for Grace Mary Wood on Monday, June 12, at 10:00 a.m. in the Heppner Masonic cemetery. Mrs. Wood died June 6 at Pioneer Memorial hospital. Born in 1877 in Saginaw, Mich., she would have been 90 years of age on July 10.

Family members who were here from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. (Greta) Gabbert of New Plymouth, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyer and four daughters of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Gabbert of Bear, Idaho.

Hubert Wilson is now at home, after a stay at Providence hospital in Portland. He returned home Monday, June 5, but is confined at home and under a doctor's care. He expects it to be at least a week more before he will be able to return to his duties at the Heppner post office.

Coming from Portland for the week-end were Mrs. Lucy Rodgers and Mrs. Sara McNamer, who were guests of Mrs. Sadie Parrish. They made the trip with Mrs. Mary (Van Vactor) Stevens, who stayed with the Red Leonards and P. W. Mahoney's while in Heppner.

recognize that youth is the greatest natural resource America has. The more they learn now, the better equipped they will be to contribute to our country in the future.

These are two of the many experiments outlined in the teaching kits that Standard Oil provides free to schools in the West. Each semester thousands of teachers use them to create an exciting and effective atmosphere for learning.

Teaching kits, films, charts, maps, scholarships and fellowships are some of the ways our Company makes known its continuing interest in today's young men and women.

Why our interest in education? We're specialists when it comes to natural resources and we
