

Kinzua Golfers Enjoy Summer Game Events

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA—Men of the Kinzua Golf Club enjoyed another of their now famous Stag Nights on Friday evening, June 16, at the local course. Due to some activity on the part of the club, the attendance was small but those present made up for this shortage in enthusiasm.

A two-man team competition was played for the first time with the team of Miller and Slinkard coming up with top team points, closely followed by Boyles and Boring. Don Slinkard was the heavy winner of the evening grabbing low gross and closest to the pin as well as tying for the least putts. Other winners were low net, Bob Boyles; long drive, Dave Lovell; least putts, Verlin Conner, Jim Hulitt, Dave Lovell and Don Slinkard, and most putts, Dick Sargent.

Following the evening's play, a delicious buffet dinner was served by "Q" Viegas after which a short business meeting was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Morgan, Kent Bell and Don Slinkard spent the week-end in John Day where Don and Milt participated in the Elks Tournament held at the Mt. View Golf Club. The affair was very enjoyable, the weather wonderful and the hospitality as usual was nearly overwhelming. Milt was defeated on the third extra hole for second place by Jim Barnett, OSU Athletic Director, as they ended the regular two days of play in a tie. "Uncle Milt" states that heat, old age and youth got to him.

It was a disastrous day for the Kinzua Golfers on Sunday, June 11, when they went down to defeat at the hands of the Mt. View Golfers on the John Day course by a score of 23½ to 6½. Not only was the defeat a hard blow but the coveted Slip Wright Trophy for which the two clubs vie twice yearly had to be left in the Mt. View clubhouse until the local golfers can wrest it from the possession of the enemy. As usual everyone enjoyed themselves due to the fact the John Day people are wonderful hosts. A sumptuous buffet luncheon served the golfers was a highlight of the day. Prize winners for the day for Kinzua were: low gross, Milt Boring; low net, Mark Jellick and Gary Couture; long drive, Mark Jellick, and closest to the pin, Bob Misener.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dale Saddler of McChord Field, Wn., are spending their leave visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Saddler. After this leave Marvin is scheduled to go to Vietnam.

Visiting from Saturday until Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keller and family were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lehnen of Middletown, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Todd of Vandalia, Mo. The Lehens are Mrs. Keller's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wall and son John and Bob Wall of Omak, Wash., flew to Medford last Wednesday to attend the funeral services of H. A. (Heinie) Botchek of Rogue River. Mr. Botchek is a former resident of Kinzua.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hyatt and son Travis spent the week-end in Portland visiting with relatives.

Bobby Wall of Omak, Wash. is spending the week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Wall and John.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wham and family went to Oswego Friday evening to attend the Saturday afternoon wedding of their niece Miss Kathleen Thorington to Gary Boughn.

Morrow Educators Attend Workshop

Three Morrow county high school principals and a number of teachers from the district participated in the workshop for small high schools held at the University of Oregon from June 12 to 16.

Ione High and Riverside High are members of the Small High School Improvement Program and Heppner High school is an associate member. Principals Harold Beggs of Ione, Ron Daniels of Riverside and Dick Carpenter of Heppner took part, as well as some of their teachers.

Small group seminar sessions were held in the areas of English, mathematics, science, social studies, vocational training, art and music. Dr. William Georgiades, chairman of the Department of Secondary Education at the University of Southern California, was director of the institute.

The improvement program is a federally-financed project sponsored by the Baker county Intermediate Education district, and program coordinator is Charles P. Haggerty, with offices at the State Department of Education.

The workshop was primarily on curriculum at the session last week and participants worked on individualized instruction in independent learning.

More than 200 teachers and administrators from 70 small high schools in Oregon took part in the workshop.

Judge, County Agent To Meet Portlanders

County Judge Paul Jones and Gene Winters, county extension agent, will meet a busload of touring Portland Chamber of Commerce members Wednesday in northern Morrow county.

With Mayor Dewey West of Boardman the officials will go with the visitors to the Boeing installation, to the area being considered for irrigation through the forthcoming Bureau of Land Management land sale, and to the Dunn and McClannahan potato development in the north-eastern tip of the county.

Those making the tour from Portland are for the most part members of the agricultural committee of the city's Chamber of Commerce who are concerned with future agricultural development throughout the state.

The judge and county extension agent will tell them of possibilities of agricultural development in Morrow county.

Rockhounds Slate Potluck, Field Trip

Two activities are being planned by the Morrow County Gem and Mineral Society for this week-end, it is announced.

The rockhounds will meet at the old city library Saturday night, June 24, for a potluck at 6:30 p.m. Rolls, butter and beverages will be furnished. Members are asked to bring materials to work on for the Sidewalk Bazaar.

On Sunday the group will take a field trip to Opal Butte. Members are to meet at 9 a.m. at Farley Motor Co. All are asked to bring a sack lunch.

Tillicum Club Plans for Dance

The Boardman Tillicum Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Ralph Skoubo with Mrs. Carroll Donovan as co-hostess. Plans were discussed for the princess dance August 5, and further plans were discussed for a possible tour of the Boeing testing site. The exact date for this will be announced later.

Mrs. Dewey West is in charge.

Mrs. Harold Baker was a guest, and she and Mrs. Roy Partlow presented a program to the group on "Creativity."

The next meeting will be a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. LaVern Partlow July 11.
