Helen Graham Weds Michael Walsh In Church Ceremony Here on June 10

Before an impressive all-white altar setting, Miss Helen Ann Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham, exchanged marriage vows with Michael Patrick Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Walsh of Wychoff, N. J., on Saturday, June 10.

The double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dirk T. Rinehart at All Saints' Episcopal church at 2:00 p.m. White English chrysanthemums and white gladioli in tall standards were at the altar, flanked by candleabra holding tall white tapers. White pew bows marked the center aisle.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned by the bride. The graceful A-line skirt extended into a flowing chapel train, and her finger-tip illusion veil fell from a white satin and pearl pillbox headdress. She carried a bridal bouquet of large white phalaenopsis orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bernard Damon, Eugene, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Walsh, Wychoff, N. J., sister of the groom, and Miss Lendine Smith, Sacramento, Calif., close friend of the bride.

The three attendants were gowned in shocking pink crepe street-length dresses, fashioned in the A-line style. They carried bouquets of white English chrysanthemums. Their headdresses of shocking pink tulle were held with matching pink satin bows.

Playing the traditional wedding selections was Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, organist, who also accompanied Mrs. Dirk Rinehart when she sang the selection, "My Perfect Love".

Tapers were lit before the ceremony by Jimmy Schaffitz, Heppner.

Marcie Carnes, La Grande, served as flower girl and ring bearers were John and Mark Damon, nephews of the bride.

Attending the groom as best man was Joe Odryzowski of Niagara Falls, N. Y. Ushers were Bernard Damon, Eugene, and Amos Gardlin, Seattle, Wn.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Graham chose to wear a beige brocade afternoon dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Mary Winterholder, of Lackawaxen, Pa., grandmother of the groom, attended in a pale blue and pink lace afternoon dress.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted their many wedding guests at a reception in the church parish hall.

Guests were served from a long damask-covered table, centered by a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink roses and topped with a white wedding bell. Green ivy encircled the base of the cake, flanked by tapers in crystal candleabra decorated with pink and white carnations. An artistic background for the serving table was a bank of gardenia foliage and white candleabra.

After the newlyweds had cut the first slice, the cake was served by Mrs. Ed Schaffitz and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney. Pouring were Mrs. John LaSota, Scottsdale, Ariz., aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Pat O'Malley, Tigard; Mrs. Delbert Piper, Lexington, and Mrs. Jim Bothum, Pendleton, former schoolmates of the bride.

In charge of decorating, helping in the kitchen and about the rooms were Mrs. Eddie Gunderson, Mrs. James Thomson, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Walter Wright and Mrs. Carl Spaulding.

The new matron changed to a cream beige ensemble with shocking pink accessories for their wedding trip to Phoenix, Ariz. They will make their new home in Fresno, Calif., where Mr. Walsh has accepted a teaching position for the coming year.

Following her graduation from Heppner High school, the bride graduated from Oregon State University. The groom is a graduate of Arizona State University at Tempe.

The couple and their wedding party were feted at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening, June 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney. Hosts, with the Mahoneys, were Dr. and Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson.

On Wednesday evening, June 7, Mrs. Dick Robinson, Mrs. Bob Laughlin and Mrs. Delbert Piper were hostesses for a shower and reunion honoring the bride. Twelve high school classmates gathered at the Robinson home to exchange memories and to present the honor guest with an electric mixer for her future home.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding were Mrs. Sara McNamer, Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Daune Graham and boys, Miss Bernice Thomson, Mrs. Cachot Therkelson and Susan, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart Haack, Nancy Jean and Kathy, of Milwaukie; Mary Van Stevens, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gemmill, Salem; Amos Gardlin, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Malley, Tigard; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rawson, Moscow, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Wilo Graham, Battleground, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. E. ## Rodeo Court Family Entertained June 14 By Parents of Queen

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French and daughter, Queen Verina of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court, were hosts Thursday evening, June 22, for a dinner get-together for the girls of the court, their parents, chaparron and members of the Morrow County Rodeo Board.

The dinner, held in the banquet room of the Wagon Wheel restaurant, followed an afternoon session when the girls met together in Heppner wearing their official outfits to have the court pictures taken.

Mrs. French presented each member of the court with a burlap tote-bag trimmed to match her parade outfit. The hand-made bags will get much use this summer as the girls travel to various events to represent Morrow county.

Guests for the dinner included Queen Verina, Princess Linda Tatone and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tatone, Boardman; Princess Maureen Doherty and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doherty of Lexington; Princess Bernice Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Matthews, Ione; Princess Ruby Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. Roice Fullerton, Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers, Susie French, Mr. and Mrs. Tad Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gardner.

Bridal Shower Party Honors Tass Morrison

Cheryle (Tass) Morrison was complimented at a bridal shower on Thursday afternoon, June 15, at the Masonic Hall. She opened her gifts at a linen covered table decorated with lovely bouquets of pink gladioli placed at each end. Assisting with the gifts were Karen McCurdy, Susan Lindstrom, and Mrs. James Martin of Portland.

Guests were served refreshments at a white satin covered tea table centered with an arrangement of yellow and soft orange colored roses, the colors which the bride has chosen for her wedding. A lovely decorated cake in the same colors was served.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, Mrs. E. M. Bristow, Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Mrs. John Eubanks, and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn.

Miss Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jodie K. Morrison, is attending summer school at Oregon State this summer and a late summer wedding is planned.

Oslunds Are Guests At Wilkinson Home

Visiting Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson and family are her daughter, Mrs. Walt (Frances) Oslund, and her granddaughter Judy, of Newcastle, Wyo.

Judy and her two sisters, Nancy and Carol Sue have been frequent visitors to Heppner. This summer Nancy and Carol Sue are attending summer school at the University of Wyoming; in the fall both will enroll at Temple Buell College in Denver where Carol, a junior and honor scholarship recipient, will be president of the Student National Education Assn. and vice president of Chimes, the junior honor society. Nancy, also an honor scholarship recipient, will be a freshman. She is past student body vice-president of Newcastle High, a member of the Northwest States Select Choir for 1967 and twice member of the Wyoming all-state choir.

Judy came directly to Heppner from Wyoming American Legion Girls' State. While here, she is also visiting her cousins, Jody and Jill Rugg at Parkers Mill.

Mr. Oslund is employed in Newcastle as president and general manager of Plains Pipe Line, a crude oil carrier, and is a director of the National Bank of Newcastle.

Mrs. Olive Hughes returned to the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughes, in Sweet Home on Tuesday, where she will help care for the family while the daughter-in-law is helping in the school's "head start" summer program. She accompanied Mrs. Tom Hughes and boys who are moving to Monroe. Tom will work through the summer at Tupper Guard Station, and Pam is helping in a summer camp for crippled children in Southern Oregon.
