Scharn-Monagle Vows Exchanged in Ceremony

White gladioli and blue delphinium, flanked by candleabra, graced the altars of St. Mary's Catholic church in Pendleton for the 11:00 a.m. nuptial mass on Saturday, June 10, when Miss Patricia Anne Scharn and John Bernard Monagle exchanged marriage vows.

The Rev. James O'Connor officiated, assisted by altar boys, Michael Cappiello nephew of the bride and Brian Doherty, cousin of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Scharn, Sr., Pendleton, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monagle, Heppner.

White satin bows marked the pews. Mrs. Walter Moore played the traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of traditional white chantilly lace over taffeta and net, outlined with imported Alencon lace, styled with a sabrina neckline and brush train, and featured white taffeta roses at the back. Her lingerie veil of French illusion was held in place by a Mary Stewart cap of seed pearls and sequins. Her bouquet of white butterfly roses, with a cascade of Stephanotis, completed her ensemble.

The handkerchief she carried was a keepsake from her aunt, the late Nellie Murray; the rock crystal rosary was a gift made by Miss Clare Mark, and her blue garter from Mrs. Robert Lockwood.

Blue set the color pattern for the crystal satin floor-length gowns worn by the honor attendants. Maid of honor was Miss Barbara Kopp, lifetime friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Patty Cappiello, Miss Janet Cappiello, niece of the bride, and Miss Deanna Fujita, college classmate.

Miss Susan Scharn of Salem, junior bridesmaid, wore an identical costume. Their headdresses were crowns of blue daisies over brief veiling, and they carried nosegays of white mums and daisies.

Larry Lindsay, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were William Monagle, brother of the groom, Natick, Mass.; James Walton and Riney Seeger, both of Pendleton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Scharn chose a willow green sheath jacketed costume with lace overlay and white accessories. Mrs. Monagle, mother of the groom, wore an aqua two-piece ensemble with matching accessories.

Guests were greeted at a reception in the church social rooms, decorated by Mrs. Herman Lorenzen and Mrs. Robert Lockwood. Blue daisies with white bells and entwined rings were used throughout the room, and centerpieces of silver doilies and bells were on small tables where guests were seated. Hostesses were Mrs. Michael Cappiello, Mrs. William Scharn, Jr., sister and sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Walter Mott.

After the initial cut by the bride and groom, the five-tiered cathedral wedding cake was served by Mrs. Donald Scharn, Salem, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Larry Lindsay, cousin of the groom. An arrangement of white mums and blue stock flanked by silver tapers graced the main serving table.

Pouring were Mrs. William Konasek of Walla Walla, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Alex Lindsay, Lexington, aunt of the groom. At the punch bowls were Mrs. Riney Seeger and Mrs. Mack Cambell, classmates of the bride, Mrs. Robert McLaughlin, sister of the bride, kept the guest book, and Mrs. Bernard

District Represented At State Garden Club Federation Meeting

Seven delegates from Blue Mountain District No. 10, Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, attended the 1967 convention of the state organization at Roseburg from June 12 to 14.

This was the 40th anniversary of the federation. Appropriate honors were given 40-year clubs in the state and the ruby red color was carried out in outstanding floral arrangements. Clubs of the Umpqua District No. 16 were hosts for the convention which had as its theme, "Forty Years of Progress in Beauty."

Delegates who attended from Blue Mountain District were Mrs. Fredrick T. Martin, district director, of Ione; Mrs. Omar Rietmann, president, and Mrs. Tom Huston, vice-president of the Ione Garden club; Mrs. Homer Kuster, secretary, and Mrs. S. A. Moore, both of the Umatilla Garden club; Mrs. William Roesch, president, and Mrs. Harvey Queen, vice-president, both of Dirt Dabblers Garden club in Pendleton.

Two clubs in this district received honor awards. The Pilot Rock club received the 1967 Community Improvement project award of $200 from Sears, Roebuck Co., for landscaping the steep embankment facing Highway 395 at the Pilot Rock Community Center. Mrs. Walter Karnopp was leader of the project.

The Hermiston Bloomer Girls' Garden club was awarded the 1967 Richfield Conservation of Civic Beauty award for their project of landscaping the Rocky Heights Elementary school in Hermiston. Mrs. Martin received the special redwood plaque in their behalf. Second part of the award is the purchase of trees or shrubs of their choice up to $50, given by the Atlantic-Richfield Company.

Mrs. Huston of the Ione club received a second place red rosette for her horticulture essay entry on "Daffodils."

A second place award also went to the Freewater Garden club for its horticulture essay on "Lilies."

The Umatilla Garden club received a fourth place award for its club scrapbook, prepared by Mrs. S. A. Moore, chairman.

Mrs. Martin gave a report on the past year's activities of the Blue Mountain District, and she also served as chairman of the tellers for the election of state officers.

Mrs. Edward S. Grandt, Arch Cape, was elected state president; Mrs. Richard Westerfield, Ashland, first vice-president; Mrs. T. R. Fettes, Portland, second vice-president; Mrs. Mildred Wold, McMinnville, recording secretary; Mrs. Gwendolyn Smith, Seaside, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Raymond Elmstrom, Portland, treasurer.

Mrs. William Hedley, national treasurer, installed new officers and district directors, following her banquet address. "According to Midas." Other guest speakers were Jim Anderson of the Portland Zoological Society, and Frank Brawner of the Oregon Mutual Savings Bank. Guest arranger was Bob Thomas of Nashville, Tenn., floral consultant, author and arranger, who carried out the theme "Tradition and Trend" in his daily variety of arrangements.

Charles C. Hoover of Medford, known as "Oregon's man who gave away a million trees" received the citation for "distinguished achievement in horticulture," the federation's highest yearly honor.

Church Has Parish Reception for Lows

Women of All Saints' Episcopal church arranged a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe, newly-married members of the parish family, on Sunday morning, June 25. The reception in the church parish hall followed 10 a.m. church services.

Coffee and punch were served from a table centered by a tiered wedding cake in white and yellow and flanked by tall yellow candles. Pouring were Mrs. Earl Gilliam and Mrs. La Verne Van Marter, Jr.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH ERIC NELSON (the former Julianne Smith)

Ken Nelson Weds Miss Julianne Smith In June 10 Ceremony

Miss Julianne Smith of Kennewick, Wn., became the bride of Kenneth Eric Nelson of Lexington, at a pretty evening ceremony on Saturday June 10, at the Chapel of the Bells in Reno, Nev.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Eva Smith and Marcus Smith, both of Kennewick. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., Lexington.

The Rev. John Eaton officiated at the 8:00 p.m. double ring ceremony, in the presence of parents and other relatives.

The bride was attired in a white, simply-styled street-length dress and white prayer cap, trimmed with pink net. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink rosebuds surrounded by pink net and white lace, with a shower of satin streamers. Pedestal floral arrangements and tapers in candleabra, trimmed with fern and satin streamers, added to the chapel setting.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Karen Nelson, Lexington, sister of the groom.

Serving as best man was Keith Nelson, brother of the groom.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Nev. They will make their home near Lexington where the groom is engaged in operating the Nelson Brothers Ranch.

The bride, a graduate of Kennewick High school, has been employed at Pacific Northwest Bell in Portland. After graduating from Ione High school, the bridegroom attended Columbia Basin College in Pasco, Wn.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend a reception which is being planned to honor the newlyweds on Saturday evening, July 8, at the Ione United Church of Christ basement rooms. The couple will be happy to greet guests between the hours of 8:00 and 10:00 p.m.

Pre-Wedding Shower Honors Kathleen Ray

Among events which preceded the wedding of Kathleen Ray and James Banks was a bridal shower, given Wednesday evening, June 14, in the Episcopal church parish hall.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland, Mrs. Joyce Cross and Mrs. Merritt Gray. Mrs. Cecil Berry, Pendleton, and Mrs. Don Hughes, Condon, assisted Kathy with her gifts.

Large bouquets of mixed flowers and white candles decorated the room and serving table for the occasion. Coffee, punch and assorted cookies were served to about 25 invited guests attending the party.

Special guests at the shower were the bride's mother, Mrs. Will O'Hara, and three close friends who drove from Pendleton to attend.

Invitation Extended To Blake Anniversary

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake in Monmouth will be the scene of an open house reception on Sunday, July 2, which will honor them on their 25th wedding anniversary.

A cordial invitation is extended by their daughters, Mrs. David Fitzgerald and Mrs. Dennis Herbison, who are planning the occasion, to all their Morrow county friends to come to the Blake home at 262 South Stadium Drive Monmouth, between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m.

The Blakes, who were raised in Heppner, were married here July 3, 1942. They moved to Monmouth in 1964 when Blake returned to college. He was presented his bachelor's degree at OCE this year, is working in counselling at the college this summer, and will continue studying for his master's degree.

Past Regional Governor Installs Soroptimist Officers

Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, president, welcomed about thirty Soroptimists and friends who gathered at the Episcopal parish hall Saturday evening, June 24, to install into office those who will administer the affairs of the Soroptimist Club of Heppner for the coming year.

Mrs. Olive Hughes, a sustaining member and past president of the local club, gave the invocation before the potluck buffet dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin, past officers of the Heppner American Legion and Auxiliary Post, led the salute to the flag. Mayor W. C. Rosewall extended a welcome to the visiting guests and Mrs. Veda Younger gave the response. Mrs. Elaine George presided as mistress of ceremonies for the evening.

Several visiting guests were introduced from Portland. These were Mrs. Alice Dowell Jones, past regional governor of Northwestern Region; Mrs. Veda Younger (the former Veda Bundy of Lexington), recently installed president of the Portland club; Miss Elmo Malinen, Mrs. Frankie Wallace, regional representative for the Portland club, and Mrs. Alice Moore.

Miss Munson initiated Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland into membership in the Heppner club. Mrs. Jones served as installing officer. New club officers are Mrs. Bill Johnson, president; Mrs. Elaine George, vice president; Mrs. Glenn Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Matt Hughes, recording secretary; Mrs. Sadie Parsh, board member, and Mrs. Wes Sherman, regional representative.

Assisting Mrs. Jones with the initiation ceremonies was Mrs. Charles Starke, past president.

An attendance prize was awarded Mrs. Loyal Parker who did not miss a club meeting during the entire year. The annual scholarship prize was won by Mrs. George who earned the customary $5 for the scholarship fund by selling some furniture and writing a poem about it.

Mrs. Starke presented the past president's pin and a gift from the club to Mrs. Wilkinson, who in turn expressed her appreciation to her officers with token gifts.

Mrs. Hughes was chairman of the buffet dinner; Mrs. Johnson served as program chairman, and decorations of blue and gold floral arrangements were by Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Marjorie Worden and Mrs. Wilkinson.

The new president, Mrs. Johnson, spoke briefly of her hopes for the coming year and closed the meeting.

Who's Who In Morrow County?

"Clues Hidden in Any Ad in This Section or in Any Ad by Merchants in This Newspaper"

- This is a family fun contest. Entries welcome from every member of the family old enough to fill out his or her own. You may submit one entry per person at any OR ALL of the Sponsoring Merchants whose ads are heavily bordered this week—but only one entry per person at any one store (more than one will disqualify all entries of that person for that week).
- Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by The Gazette-Times. Sponsoring Merchants and their families, and their employees and families are most welcome to enter EXCEPT during the weeks that the ad of your own store is heavily bordered in this section.
- Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. DO NOT put your entry into an envelope. Not necessary to be present at the drawing to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to The Gazette-Times to participate.
- WHO'S WHO may be anyone in Morrow County. Clues to his (or her) identity will be hidden ONLY in ads of Sponsoring Merchants (every sponsoring Merchant has a little ad in this group ad). Clues may be hidden in ANY ad of ANY name you think the WHO'S WHO Sponsoring merchant. ANYWHERE in the paper. Clues will be scattered—many ads will have no clues, while others may have as many as five. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts!
- If by coincidence, the name of the WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him) happen to appear in news items, editorial matter, or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues.
- To enter, write down the WHO is. List all the clues you can find in all the ads of the Sponsoring Merchants in this issue. Don't forget your own name and address! Then, drop your entry at any Sponsoring Merchant whose ad is between the heavy borders in this group ad this issue. You may enter at all four if you wish! There are no other places where entries will be accepted—and mail entries will not be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.
- This week's contest starts when you receive this issue, and closes at 4 p.m. Tuesday of the following week. At that time, a drawing will be held. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies the WHO'S WHO will win $500. If THAT entry also lists every clue hidden in all ads of Sponsoring Merchants, a BONUS of $25 will be added. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS which will continue to grow until it is won. Winning the BONUS requires a PERFECT list of clues—the exact number, and all copied exactly as in the paper (watch those capitals, etc.).
- Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED (by anyone). The Gazette-Times will be the judge in all questions, and their decision is final.
