Hood River Girl Weds Henry Pointer June 17 In Church Ceremony

Kathleen Marilyn Hyskell carried a lace-trimmed handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother when she became the bride of Henry Pointer on Sunday, June 17, at St. Mary's Catholic church in Hood River. Father T. J. Moore officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Elene Hyskell of Hood River, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Don Pointer of Lexington.

Miss Hyskell, wearing a white organza cage dress over peau de soie banded in white satin with a train appliqued with daisies and banded with white satin, was escorted to the altar by her brother, David Hyskell. Her shoulder length white tulle veil fell from a headpiece of daisies and her bridal bouquet was of daisies.

Carolyn Downing was maid of honor for her cousin. Her pink tulle cage dress, banded with pink satin on the sleeves, hemline and narrow train, matched those worn by bridesmaids Phyllis Land of The Dalles and Louise and Donna Pointer of Portland, sisters of the groom. Their headpieces were of pink tulle held with pink daisies and they carried pink daisies.

Brother of the groom, Tom Pointer, stood as best man and Jerry Anderson of North Bend, Bill Doherty of Eugene and James Steagall of Portland assisted as ushers.

Mark and Charles Pointer, brothers of the groom, were altar boys and Stan Conlon, the groom's uncle, was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. George Ackerman of Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Downing, aunt and uncle of the bride, hosted a reception honoring the couple in their home following the ceremony. Mrs. Jane Franz catered the event and the cake was served by Mrs. Raymond Downing of Hood River and Mrs. Richard Farra of Lake Oswego, both aunts of the bride. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Maude Pointer of Corvallis, grandmother of the groom, and Mrs. Harriet Batty of Klamath Falls, aunt of the groom.

Mrs. Judy Downing, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Virginia Conlon, aunt of the groom, served punch. Passing rice and scrolls were Alisa and Jeff Moore. Mrs. Jerry Anderson of North Bend was in charge of the gifts.

The new Mrs. Pointer chose a yellow dress and green print coat ensemble with yellow accessories for her going away outfit.

Following a honeymoon trip to the coast, the couple is now at home in Salem where the groom is employed as a salesman for Proctor and Gamble Co.

Reception to Honor Newlyweds Saturday

A public reception is planned in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nelson on Saturday, July 8, in the basement rooms of the Lone United Church of Christ. The newlywed couple was married at the Chapel of the Bells in Reno, Nev., on June 10.

Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., Lexington, are extending a cordial invitation to all friends and relatives in the area to attend the reception. The young couple will greet their guests between the hours of 8:00 and 10:00 p.m.

Davis-Vinton Vows Exchanged June 17

St. Michael and All Angels' Episcopal church in Portland was the scene of the marriage of Miss Wanda Davis and Larry Vinton, grandnephew of Emile Groshens, on Saturday, June 17. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Vinton, all of Portland.

The groom had often visited here at the Groshens home and had worked on ranches here during the summers. He is presently enrolled at Portland State College, majoring in secondary education. The young couple traveled to Washington, D. C., for their honeymoon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Groshens were among those who attended the wedding ceremonies, and spent some time visiting relatives while in Portland.

Mary Smith is Bride Of Thomas G. Martin

Miss Mary Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Everett J. Smith of Chicago, Ill., became the bride of Thomas G. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin of Lexington, on Saturday evening, June 24, in Carson City, Nev.

For her marriage the bride was attired in a street length dress of white silk shantung, with a flowered headdress and short veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of rosebuds.

The bride attended Mt. Assisi Academy in Lemont, Ill., and the De Paul University in Chicago, where she majored in philosophy. She has spent some time traveling in Europe.

The groom has just completed a military tour of duty in Europe. Following his graduation from the Lone High school, he attended Columbia Basin College and Oregon State University previous to going into the army service.

The newlyweds are now making their home on the Martin ranch near Lexington.

Locust Chapter Seats Incoming Officers At June 27 Ceremony

IONE — Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Jr. were seated as worthy matron and patron of Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of the Eastern Star, at a public installation of officers on Tuesday evening, June 27, at the Ione Masonic hall.

Installing matron was Mrs. Claude Graham of Ruth Chapter No. 32 and assisting here was the new worthy matron's mother, Mrs. Archie Ball, Sr. Mrs. Inez Huffman was installing musician and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter was installing chaplain.

Elective officers installed were Mrs. Omar Rietmann, associate matron; Omar Rietmann, associate patron; Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, secretary; Roy W. Lindstrom, treasurer; Mrs. James Barnett conductress and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, associate conductress.

The following officers were appointed to serve for the ensuing year: Mrs. Rudy Bergstrom, chaplain; Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom Sr., marshal; Mrs. Charles O'Connor, organist; Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, Adah; Mrs. Berl Akers, Ruth; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Esther; Mrs. James Lindsay, Martha; Mrs. E. R. Schaffer, Electa; Berl Akers, Warder; and Lewis Halvorsen, Sentinel.

The newly installed matron chose shades of blue and lavender for her colors, the orchid for her flower, and the praying hands as her symbol. These were used in the decorations of the room. She presented each of her officers with an artificial orchid corsage.

Special guests present were Mrs. Dick Wilkinson of Heppner, who was installed Grand Ruth of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Order of the Eastern Star, at installation ceremonies at the Memorial Coliseum on June 21; and Mrs. Bill Cox, newly installed worthy matron of Ruth Chapter No. 32 at Heppner.

Mrs. Ekstrom had the pleasure of introducing her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ball, Sr. and her four sisters, Mrs. Rudy Bergstrom, Mrs. Gene Hall and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter of Heppner; and Mrs. Roger Steiger of Portland.

A lovely bouquet of blue and lavender delphinium and larkspur, flanked by lavender candles, decorated the tea table. Mrs. Hall presided at the silver service, Mrs. Steiger served the decorated cake, and Mrs. Keith Rea poured punch. Mrs. Walter Jacobs assisted about the rooms. Cindy and Jan Ekstrom were in charge of the guest book.

Birthday Feted

Mrs. Norah Rasmus was honored in Walla Walla, Wash., on the weekend of June 24 and 25 when relatives complimented her on her birthday. She was guest of her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dysart, and also visited her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Cecil, and Mrs. Mabel Cecil, who is Mrs. Rasmus' sister-in-law and mother of Mrs. Dysart and Mr. Cecil. Mrs. Dysart has been a bookkeeper for the Van Petten Lumber Co. there for many years. Mrs. Rasmus said that she had a very enjoyable time on the weekend.

The Rev. and Mrs. Al Boschee plan to leave Monday, July 10, on a vacation trip of some ten days. They expect to go to Yellowstone Park, taking a house trailer, and will continue on to Billings, Mont., to visit friends. They plan to be back in Heppner by July 20.
