

Directors Face Predicaments

of seconds—a motion was passed that the district call for contract bids from the Dr. Huber place to the Bob Jepsen place. The simple matter becomes quite involved in all its facets, and whether this motion will settle it remains to be seen.

Budget in Squeeze
Financial report showed that expenditures barely squeezed within revenues for the fiscal year 1966-67. Balance at the end of the year was just $100.51, the report showed. Mrs. Alice Vance, clerk, reported expenditures of $1,087,044.07.

Daniels pointed out that if the instructional expenditures had not run $13,000 less than expected, the district would not have kept within the budget.

He said that it will be necessary to watch expenditures under the new budget because the cost of instruction may possibly be higher than expected for the coming year.

Because no major tax turnover for the new fiscal year will come until November, after a small turnover on quarterly-paid taxes in August, the board empowered Mrs. Vance to borrow up to $100,000 for the district as needed until the November turnover.

Driver Training Problem
The board bumped into another problem involving the budget when the matter of driver training came up. Daniels proposed that schedule of Dale Holland, driver training instructor, be changed so that he would spend half of each day for the first six weeks at Ione and Riverside on the classroom teaching of the program. The other half day for the six weeks would be teaching social studies at Heppner. After the first six weeks, he would spend all his time at Heppner on social studies and driver training and other instructors would give actual driver training at Ione and Riverside.

This would mean a more practical schedule for Holland with less inter-school travel for the instructor and probably less cost to the district.

Daniels proposed that the district obtain three Chrysler autos, which he has been assured would be furnished without cost for driving training. Separate cars would be used in Ione, Riverside and Heppner, instead of one to serve the entire county as has been true the past two years when Holland divided his year between the three schools.

However, it was brought out that an agreement had been reached with Heppner dealers to supply cars for driver training on an annual rotating basis at $65 per month. This coming year would be the third year and Farley Motor Co.'s turn to supply the car.

A section of the minutes was produced to show that this was the agreement arrived at some three years ago.

However, this agreement was apparently forgotten when the 1967-68 budget was drawn, for a $750 item in the budget was pared to $150 at that time on the theory that the Chrysler cars could be obtained for driver training at no cost, except for installation of dual brake systems. The remaining $150 is for instructional materials in connection with the subject.

A letter from Jim Farley was read, stating that he feels he is entitled to supply the car as agreed. Hence another predicament.

Finally, consensus seemed to favor obtaining two Chryslers and the third to come from Farley. However, Director Jack Sumner objected to this procedure, and asked that he be placed on record as objecting, because the major portion of the sum had been withdrawn from the budget.

Attorney Bob Abrams said that additional funds could be transferred to the driver training item from contingency, unless the item had been cut entirely. The matter was left with Daniels agreeing to check to see if the Chrysler cars can be obtained without cost and if Farley would be willing to cut the rental on his car because of lesser use. It would serve only the Heppner area instead of the entire county.

Fees Discussed
The board appeared no nearer to a settlement with Architect Howard Glazer on his fees as a result of the meeting. A letter from Glazer was read. It was written after he had received $45,000 as part payment on his bill, but an additional sum had been withheld.

Glazer contended in his letter that his fees were charged in conformance with approved structure of the American Institute of Architects, that he had done many hours of work for which he had not charged, that counselling fees and other professional services used were itemized, and that he should be paid in full for the amount of the bill.

However, Daniels and Attorney Bob Abrams expressed the belief that Glazer is charging on the basis of the original bid of $1,789,000 which was rejected by the Corps of Engineers, and that fees should be based on the bids accepted by the district—those that would come within the $1,484,000 available for the Riverside project.

Daniels gave computations to support his contention that Glazer was charging on the basis of the higher amount. He said that he had attempted to contact the A. I. A. but was unable to do so, and expected to reach the organization later this week.

The matter was left open with Attorney Abrams urging that the board get further clarification of the charges but to hold back payment of the balance of the amount billed until the clarification is received.

Hire Clerk of Works
More debate came up when the matter of a clerk of works for the Riverside school was brought up. A Heppner man apparently is the architect's choice for the position, and Daniels said that the man appeared at his office recently, requesting copies of state code books to begin work on the job.

At the Monday night meeting, however, some of the directors were puzzled as to why the man considered himself hired. Others felt this impression might have been left at a previous meeting when no objection was raised to the suggestion that he be hired at $167 per week, which includes his transportation from Heppner.

One director said that he did not want to hire a man recommended by the architect. Several expressed the idea that it is important to have a man on the job to thoroughly check to see that the work is being done properly. Daniels pointed out that work progress reports need to be kept accurately since these furnish the basis of payment from the Corps of Engineers.

The clerk of works would keep these reports.

In the end, it was decided that the district would advertise for applications for a clerk of works, allowing until August 14 for the applications to be received. In the meantime, the Heppner man will be employed at $167 per week if he will accept the position on that basis.

Daniels said that work has been started on leveling and excavation for the new school.

Playground Action Tabled
Action requested by the City of Lexington to deed the old school playground at Lexington to the city was tabled until the next meeting. Directors discussed the possibility of deeding it to the Frank A. Rasmussen is now here, replacing Jack Krieger. He comes from the Baker Ranger District and had lived in Baker since 1959. The Rasmussen family consists of wife, Joan; four young sons, Mike, Greg, Mathew and Thomas, and baby daughter, Karen.

Marvin L. Chitty, who is resource assistant replacing Bob Benson here, worked for seven years at Enterprise in the Ches-nimnus Ranger District. He and his wife, Irene, have four children at home, Gail, 18; Jill, 16; Jack, 10, and Mark, 18 months. Their oldest son is a Marine serving in Vietnam.

Louis Case Dies; Services at Elgin

Louis H. Case, who was a cabinet maker and carpenter in Heppner for a number of years, has died at Elgin, according to information received here.

Funeral services were Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Elgin. Case, who was in Heppner for five or six years between 1950 and 1960, built some houses in the area, including the Roice Fullerton home in 1956. Fullerton was among those attending the funeral Tuesday.

city with the provision that if it were ever needed again for school use, it would revert to the school district. It was also suggested that a clause be inserted requiring the city to maintain the playground.

Attorney Abrams advised that the district check the present deed to see if it might contain a clause stating that if the property is used for anything other than school purposes it would revert to the original property owners.

"HMMM, IT'S A REAL GOOD BARGAIN . . ." This is what Dee Ann Pettijohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pettijohn, seems to be musing as she views some of the merchandise offered in the Sidewalk Bazaar. Hundreds of good bargains were found by the large crowd on hand for the event and merchants report a brisk business, particularly on Friday. (G-T Photo)

House guests of Mrs. Earle Bryant over the week-end of July 7-9 were Mrs. Joan Adamson and Miss Willa Lynn, both of Kingston Surrey, England. They accompanied Mrs. Bryant's sister, Mrs. Norman Lynn, here for the week-end, and was the third return visit here for Mrs. Adamson.

1. This is a family fun contest. Entries welcome from every member of the family old enough to fill out his or her own. You may submit one entry per person at any OR ALL of the Sponsoring Merchants whose ads are heavily bordered this week—but only one entry per person at any one store (more than one will disqualify all entries of that person for that week).

2. Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by The Gazette-Times. Sponsoring Merchants and their families, and their employees and families are most welcome to enter EXCEPT during the weeks that the ad of your own store is heavily bordered in this section.

3. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. DO NOT put your entry into an envelope. Not necessary to be present at the drawing to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to The Gazette-Times to participate.

4. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in Morrow County. Clues to his (or her) identity will be hidden ONLY in ads of Sponsoring Merchants (every sponsoring Merchant has a little ad in this group ad). Clues may be hidden in ANY ad of ANY name you think the WHO'S WHO Sponsoring merchant. ANYWHERE in the paper. Clues will be scattered—many ads will have no clues, while others may have as many as five. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts!

5. If by coincidence the name of the WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him) happen to appear in news items, editorial matter, or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues.

6. To enter, write down the WHO is. List all the clues you can find in all the ads of the Sponsoring Merchants in this issue. Don't forget your own name and address! Then, drop your entry at any Sponsoring Merchant whose ad is between the heavy borders in this group ad this issue. You may enter at all four if you wish! There are no other places where entries will be accepted—and mail entries will not be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

7. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED (by anyone). The Gazette-Times will be the judge in all questions, and their decision is final.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot. Your wife, husband, or some bright-eyed youngster MAY spot a clue that you miss!

Got any Perry Mason in you? . . . Think YOU can outwit the contest?—Remember, you can't win if you don't enter!

Reavis Transferred To Naval Hospital

Cpl. John Reavis, son of Mrs. Cliff Harris, has improved sufficiently to be removed from the critical list after a serious accident recently, and was moved by air to Oakland Naval Hospital, Calif., for further treatment.

According to Mrs. Harris he was able to sit up in a wheel chair in a Portland hospital before the transfer and is determined to walk and to regain the use of his right arm.

At the naval hospital more surgery will be performed immediately to improve the condition of his injured arm. Reavis' other injuries are healing satisfactorily.

He was involved in an accident while riding a motorcycle in Portland several weeks ago.

Enjoying a fishing trip to Idaho during the first week-end in July were Emile Groshens and Ambrose Chapin. They traveled to Ponderay Lake, Idaho, to test their fishing skills.
