

Adventist Families Participate in Camp Meetings This Month

The Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Prentiss, Betty Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Grasser all attended the Oregon Camp Meeting of the Seventh Day Adventist church at the permanent camp site in Gladstone Park near Laurelhwood Academy in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Grasser, who attended for the week-ends of July 7 to 9 and July 14 to 16, brought Buck Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Jones back to Heppner with them on July 9.

The big meeting features events for both adults and young people. Many families come and stay for the full ten days and others are able to attend only on week-ends.

Events at the meeting include musical performances and talks by missionaries and church leaders on Monday, July 10, a meeting featured the staff members and friends of the Quiet Hour, a church radio program that has been on the air for 30 years.

Seattle Family Visits At Gonty Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Gonty of Seattle, Wash., spent the week-end here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gonty and brothers, and to get their children, Ramona and Russell who had spent the week with their grandparents while their parents were on vacation to California and Nevada with friends from Portland.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Gonty and Mrs. Darrell McLachlan took ten local Boy Scouts to their summer camp this week at Wallowa Lake. The Gontys returned by way of Ukiah to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Blevins and daughters.

MR. AND MRS. LEONARD GUY BEDORD (Patricia Ann Beall)

Beall-Bedord Service Unites Couple July 1 In Boardman Community Church

Miss Patricia Ann Beall, daughter of Margaret Beall, Eugene, and Frank Beall of Portland, became the bride of Leonard Guy (Chipper) Bedord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bedord of Boardman, in a 1:00 p.m. double ring ceremony at the Boardman Community church on Saturday, July 1. The candlelight service was performed by the Rev. George Neelley, church pastor.

Mrs. Wayne Kuhn sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Harold Baker, who also played the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of peau de soie with empire waist and short sleeves, trimmed with pearls and lace, and chapel train. Her finger-tipped veil was held by a crown of pearls. She wore white gloves and carried a spray of white bladioli.

Delma Porter of Hood River was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Deanna Riney and Gloria Baldino, cousins of the bride. All the attendants wore yellow gowns of crepe georgette, with daron waist trimmed in white daisies, and net headpieces. They had shoes of yellow satin and carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies and red roses.

Best man was Greg Bedord, brother of the groom. Ushers were Vance Moe, Brush Prairie, Wash., and Larry Zunker of Kennewick, Wash., both cousins of the groom.

Candlelighters were Terry Hayes of Condon, cousin of the bride, and Billie Bedord, brother of the groom.

Daria Hayes was ringbearer and Stacey Hayes was flower girl, both cousins of the bride. Mrs. Joe Tatone was hostess for the reception at the Greenfield Grange Hall, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Ken Jenkins and Mrs. Rollin Bishop. The four-tiered cake, topped with bells, was cut and served by Mrs. John Baldino of Portland, aunt of the bride, and Barbara LeTrace of Hermiston, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Jeff Hayes of Condon, aunt of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Charles Higuera of Othello, Wash., aunt of the groom, served the punch. Mrs. Melvin Hayes of Condon, aunt of the bride, had the guest book, and Leslie Cline of Portland, was at the gift table. There were 125 guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Beall wore a yellow linen dress with lace coat with mint green accessories, and had a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother chose a white banded lace dress with beige accessories. Her corsage was a coffee orchid. Mrs. Walter Hayes and Mrs. Mary Beall of Portland, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. Guy Ferguson and Mrs. Mel Debeck of Frenchtown, Mont., grandmothers of the groom, all wore corsages of pink carnations.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of South Eugene High school and attended the University of Oregon last year. The groom is a 1964 graduate of Riverside High school and has attended Eastern Oregon College and Blue Mountain Community College.

After a trip to the coast they are living in Boardman. Out of town guests attended from Othello, Brush Prairie, Vancouver and Kennewick, Wash.; Missoula and Frenchtown, Mont.; Ashland, Maupin, Irrigon, La Grande, Crabtree, Heppner, Condon, Portland, Mik-kalo, Hermiston, and Mosier.

The Rev. and Mrs. Don McCarty and family left after evening service at the Church of the Nazarene June 28 for an extended vacation and visit with their parents in Albuquerque, N. M. They planned to return some time before July 23.

Royal Arch is Host To Guest Companions At Mountain Meeting

Heppner Chapter of Royal Arch Masons entertained companions from Oregon, Washington and Idaho at their annual mountain outdoor conferral on Saturday afternoon and evening, July 1, at Cutsforth Park.

Chapter was opened in short form at 3:30 p.m. and the evening ceremonies began about 7:30 p.m., at which time all dignitaries were escorted to the East, introduced and extended the proper Masonic honors. These included dignitaries from Washington, Idaho and Oregon; Grand Scribe Paul Jones, and District Deputy of the Grand High Priest Harold Becket.

The Royal Arch degrees were conferred to Don Gilliam, Al Boscchee and George Simonson, all of Heppner. The degree work was beautifully presented, and appreciation was extended to Jim Davidson, Grand Master of the Third Veil of Idaho, and Norman Hoard, Grand Master of the Third Veil of Oregon for their assistance in the ceremonies.

Prior commitments for the Royal Cross of Honor degree at The Dalles cut attendance from Milton-Freewater, Baker, La Grande and other nearby areas, but about 70 members were present.

Hot cakes and sausage was the menu at noon, and the annual steak dinner was served at 5:30 p.m.

Wives of the visiting Royal Arch men, who accompanied their husbands here, were entertained by local Masonic wives. After enjoying some of the Sidewalk Bazaar events, they gathered for dinner in the Masonic hall. Card games were in play during the evening. A good attendance of about 30 women were present, coming from Richland, Kennewick, Tigard, Oswego, Portland, Wheeler and Fossil. Mrs. Jim Davidson and Mrs. Norman Hoard, wives of Idaho and Oregon Grand Masters, were among those present.

Mrs. Paul Jones served as chairman for the planning committee, assisted by Mrs. Howard Bryant and Mrs. Harold Becket.

Summer Trip Takes Girl to Exposition

A tour of "Expo '67" in Montreal, Canada, was a highlight for Karla Weatherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford, during an enjoyable month's vacation trip to the east.

Karla left June 13 on her first plane trip, flying to Erie, Pa., with stops in Chicago and Cleveland and returned Sunday, July 16. In Erie she visited Mrs. Dorothy Livingston, who was a close friend and wedding attendant of Karla's late mother.

Karla accompanied the Livingstons to Canada, visiting Niagara Falls en route. They spent 2 1/2 days sightseeing among the interesting exhibits at Expo '67 in Montreal, and were especially impressed with the national buildings entered from France and Thailand. Crowds and lack of time prevented them from seeing as much of the exposition as they would have liked to have seen.

Their return trip to Erie took them through Quebec where they toured the Thetford Mines, and stopped at places of historical interest around Boston and Buffalo. On her return flight home, Karla was an overnight visitor with her mother's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nelson at Fondu Lac, Wisc. She was met in Portland by her parents.

Lonerock Reception To Honor Goldenweds

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Davis of Lonerock will be the occasion for a reception in their honor on Sunday afternoon, July 23. Friends and relatives are cordially invited to greet the couple at the Lonerock Annex in Lonerock between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m.

Hosts for the affair will be the children of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis of Genesee, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McDaniel of Hardman; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis of Lonerock, and Carroll Davis of Lonerock.
