

Summer Activities
Enjoyed by Erwins

Visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Erwin for the second visit of the summer is their grandson, Mike Erwin, of Pasco.

Mrs. Erwin returned to Heppner July 21 after attending a two-week workshop on individualizing instruction at Eastern Oregon College in La Grande. While there she stayed with her daughter, Mrs. Dick (Shirley) Clark who is caring for the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark, in La Grande. The Clarks are in Illinois for the summer while Mr. Clark attends a six-week workshop on mathematics at the Illinois Math Institute of the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin and daughter are in a county where there are approximately 1800 4-H members and where 4-H demonstration competition in Home Economics alone takes four full days in a real change from judging at smaller fairs. She remembered particularly one outstanding cooking demonstration where the contestant demonstrated cooking Mexican food and had worked up an introduction in the Spanish language to add interest to her opening remarks. This original young lady won out over the rest and was grand champion in her field.

During the week the Winters family was in Medford, the city had visits from both Senator Wayne Morse and Senator and Mrs. Mark Hatfield. Mr. and Mrs. Winters had the pleasure of attending a reception for Senator Morse and enjoyed hearing the articulate Senator express himself on various issues. Winters also had the opportunity of attending a luncheon in honor of Senator Hatfield, and with his friends, the Jess brothers, had an interesting talk with the Senator and his wife.

Travelers Enjoy Trip To Scenic Vancouver

A combined boat and auto trip to Vancouver Island, B. C., provided a pleasurable vacation trip this month for Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Scherzinger of Riverside, Calif., and a friend, Mrs. Mary Robertson of West Linn.

The group returned to Oregon last week, after enjoying the beautiful scenery along the eastern coastline of Vancouver Island. After ferrying from Vancouver across the strait to Nanaimo, they traveled north by car to Kelsey Bay, finding the island roads and scenery excellent.

At Victoria, B. C., at the southern tip of the island, they visited a former Heppner resident, Mrs. Frances Blunt, whose late husband, Rev. Neville Blunt, was a former rector of All Saints' Episcopal church. They came by ferry from Victoria to Port Angeles, Wn., and returned to Portland along the Washington coastal route.

Family Spends Week
In Medford; Help
With Fair Judging

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Winters, Pat and Stephanie, spent the week of July 23 to 30 in Medford visiting and attending various events in connection with the Jackson County Fair. Mrs. Winters judged 4-H Home Improvement projects and Home Economics demonstrations during the five days of 4-H Home Economics Week, July 24 thru 28.

They stayed part of the week with former neighbors and friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ward and family, and for the remainder of the week at the home of two friends, William Jess and George Jess, Jr.

According to Mrs. Winters, ghter enjoyed a June stay of almost a week at Hoquiam, Wn., where they visited Mrs. Erwin's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Martinson and family, and had trips to the port of Westport and the resort of Ocean Shores.

Over the Fourth of June and over the Fourth of July, the Erwins vacationed with their horses at Wallowa Lake. They rented a cabin and were hosts to relatives and friends during their stay. Among the visitors were Mrs. Duckworth of Clatsop, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. George Martinson and family of Hoquiam and Mrs. Roy Lusk and daughter of Walla Walla. The ladies are all sisters of Mrs. Erwin. Shirley Clark was able to come from La Grande to visit with the family over the Fourth.

Gilliam County Court
Gets Parade Trophy

Members of the Gilliam County Fair and Rodeo court were informed last week that they had been awarded a trophy for being judged the best mounted group of those who rode in the Port Dalles Parade on Saturday, July 22, at The Dalles.

One of the court's princesses is Jodi Snow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snow of Ione. Others in the court are Donna Mikalo of Arlington, Rita Lear and Carol Edwards, both of Condon.

The court wears attractive outfits of turquoise and white, with matching aqua serapes for their horses. They are appearing in several fair and rodeo parades in this area this summer and plan to be one of the mounted groups at the Morrow county rodeo parade on Saturday, August 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Dick and Debra were in Heppner and Lexington over the week-end from their home in Portland. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper, his grandparents, and with other friends and relatives.

Relatives Visited On Summer Trips

Summer trips have been enjoyed by Mrs. Lena Kelly with visits to homes of relatives in Colorado and California. In June she accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelly of Umatilla to Montrose, Colo., where they were guests of her brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelly. Enroute they traveled through Wyoming, enjoying the scenic Yellowstone Park.

Mrs. Kelly returned Saturday from an extended bus trip to California with her sister, Mrs. R. K. Pfeil, of Salem. They were guests of another sister, Mrs. Marvin Gaarde, at Muhphys, Calif., and visited a cousin, Mrs. Annie Webster, at San Bruno. A highlight of their trip was the opportunity to enjoy the personal appearance show of the Lawrence Welk show at Lake Tahoe.

In Salem she visited Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hughes, and was brought home by Mr. and Mrs. Pfeil on Saturday.

Pomona Supports Spray Program

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Greenfield Grange was host for the Morrow County Pomona Grange meeting last Saturday at the hall. The evening started with supper at six o'clock. The program was presented by the Junior Grange and their matron, Mrs. John Phillips. They did two square dances, "Red River Valley" and "Loop-de-Loop", and sang "We Are the Grangers of the Future." Neta, Rita and Teena Phillips sang the opening song.

During the business session a resolution was passed to write to State Highway Commission thanking them for spraying weeds in the county in the past, and to ask them to re-establish the spraying program. The resolution committee included Kenneth Smouse and Cecil Jones from Lexington Grange, and Nathan Thorpe from Greenfield.

Guests included Bob Coble, Baker, state deputy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smouse and Mrs. Skip McDale from Columbia Grange. Coble spoke on grange rituals, pointing out the mistakes that are made. Mrs. McDole spoke on Bureau of Land Management lands in Morrow county, and asked the grange and individuals to write letters to the BLM office by August 12 asking them to withhold the land from sale and to transfer it to the Bureau of Reclamation Irrigation project. The grange voted to do this.

Mrs. Chub Warren was in charge of the dinner assisted by members of the Home Economics Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Shaw and three children of Kalama, Wash., visited two days last week at the home of Shaw's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer.

Mrs. A. R. Fortner has returned home from three weeks visit with her daughter, Isabel Davis in Portland, and with other relatives in Seattle, Wash.

Week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chub Warren were Warren's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clark and children Marilyn, Carolyn, Danny and Bonnie of Portland. Carolyn and Danny remained here for the week. Visitors Monday included Mr. and Mrs. Lester Albertson of Redlands, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ranny and Mrs. Gertrude Shaw of Pendleton. Mrs. Shaw is Warren's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Bishop went to The Dalles Thursday of last week to visit at the home of Mrs. Bishop's sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Chronicle, whose son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chronicle and sons Gary and Greg, were there from Sacramento, Calif.

Mrs. Esther Emmons and Eva LaChance of La Grande were recent week-end visitors at the home of their sister, Mrs. Glen Carpenter.

Mrs. Frank Marlow returned home Monday from a ten-day trip to Sacramento, Calif., where homes of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie George Schrader, and at the she visited her cousin, Mrs. Woolley and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Woolley, former residents here. She also visited in Modesto, Calif. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hendley, and she and Mrs. Schrader and daughter Donna spent one day in San Francisco.

Jayceettes Schedule
Projects for August

Several items of business were under discussion at the monthly meeting of the Heppner Jayceettes, held Thursday, July 27, at the home of Mrs. Irene Samples, with Mrs. Dorothy Wilson presiding.

An outline of work schedules, and supplies needed for equipping the 4-H Snack Shack during the rodeo were discussed. Suggestions were also made for floats for the parade, and the ideas will be presented at the next Jaycee meeting for decisions.

A committee was named to sell concessions at the Queen's Coronation ceremonies on August 12.

The next meeting, on August 18, will be held at the home of Mrs. Shirley Gray.

Ted Nedderman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Nedderman of Portland, is a guest this week of a close friend, Buck Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. Greald Jones. The boys, who have attended school together in Portland, are enjoying some vacation trips this summer in Washington and Oregon. They are accompanying Buck's parents on a five-day back pack trip into the Wallowa Mountains, leaving here on Wednesday evening. They had previously taken a trip together with the Neddermans in the Olympic peninsula area in Washington.

Friends Here View
Severinsens on Show

Friends in Heppner and Morrow county had the pleasure of watching Doc Severinsen and eldest daughter, Nancy, appear on the Mike Douglas television show on Wednesday, July 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spaulding, who had previously had a telephone call from Mrs. Severinsen informing them of the show, received numerous calls from friends while it was in progress. Many had happened to catch the event and thought the Spauldings might miss it.

Mrs. Spaulding said Severinsen appeared in jeans and tennis shoes since those were the fanciest clothes he had with him on a horse-training trip. Producers of the show displayed the whole ensemble in full length and led into a discussion of Severinsen's horse-training business at the family farm in Warwick, N. Y.

Several horses were in special training at a farm near Baltimore, which specializes in jumping, and Robin, Cindy and Allen Severinsen were staying at the farm and participating in the training. Severinsen himself was there when called for his guest appearance on the Mike Douglas show.

Nancy Severinsen traveled from Warwick to the studios to be on the program and surprised her dad. She sang two songs in French.

Two Organizations
Join in Fun Evening

Legionnaires and Heppner firemen collaborated on Saturday, July 15, to throw a "ball" for their respective members and guests. A good crowd attended the party which was held in the newly refurbished Legion Hall.

Jukebox dancing, a smorgasbord table and refreshments of all kinds added to the gaiety of the evening with guests lingering until late.

Those planning and working ahead of time to get things ready included Legionnaire's Don Munkers and Jerry Rood and Firemen Forrie Burkbine and Charlie Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Green left by train last week for Minneapolis, Minn., where they will join their son, Lawrence, who has been spending the early part of the summer in a study project there. The son drove back in June, and his parents will return with him in his car, stopping at scenic points of interest along the way.

three weeks before the showing here on Wednesday and Severinsen is now at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas, filling a three-week engagement.

Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr. is enjoying a few weeks visit with relatives in Minnesota. She left by plane last Tuesday to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Parma Nelson at Waseca, Minn., and with several other relatives in the area. She expects to return about the middle of August.

Visiting at the Maude Craber residence last week were her granddaughter, Mrs. Paul Davidson and small son from Middletown, Ind. Also, Mrs. Craber's son, Harold Craber, was here from The Dalles. Coming from Portland on a business visit were Gladys M. Carrigall and Shirley A. Holdaway.
