One Little Ad Sells Household Furniture

One little classified ad in The Gazette-Times last week sold a whole house full of furnishings for Mr. and Mrs. Jim Follensbee. They recently bought the home of Mrs. R. B. Rice, and since it came furnished, they had twice their needs in household goods.

They listed the goods in the classified ad, and they were surprised with the results. Follensbee called early Tuesday morning to be sure the ad wasn't run again. Everything was sold. The sale wasn't to one buyer, but to a number of different buyers who responded.

"It really brought results," Follensbee said.

Another satisfied customer who came to the office Tuesday was Dean Long of Hermiston Cycle Shop. He inserted a two-inch display ad to run until further notice.

Last time he ran an ad in the Gazette-Times, he said, he had an immediate response from the people of Heppner. There is no bicycle repair shop here.

"It really brought us business," Long said.
