

Heppner Council Issues Bid Call On Swim Pool Job

agreement that if bids come in too high and the pool must be redesigned and scaled down to obtain lower bids, the engineers will do the redesign at no cost to the city.

Stuart Dick, lifeguard, was also present to discuss ideas that he feels should be incorporated into the plans.

Steketee said that he felt it advisable to call for bids at once so that if it should happen that costs are too high and another call would be necessary, this could be accomplished and construction could be completed before the summer season of 1968. He said he expects that it would take about three months to do the construction work.

Discussion of the present condition of water in the pool came up with Lynn Pearson appearing before the council to say that dirt which he had noticed in the bottom of the pool gave him the impression that it was "anything but sanitary." However, Councilman Bill Collins replied that he felt the sediment that accumulates at the bottom does not mean the water is unsanitary. It is both filtered and chlorinated. The matter was discussed at some length, and later in the evening Pearson went to the pool and brought back a sample of water and sediment from the bottom, apparently taking a late swim to get it.

If there were anything unsanitary about the pool's condition, it was corrected by Wednesday morning. Mayor Clarence Rosewall said that city crews had cleaned the pool Tuesday.

Zoning Again
The inevitable zoning ordinance came in for more discussion in connection with lot lines. The matter came up when some applications for building permits were presented.

Clayton Ayers asked permission to build a garage at 405 Water St. but pointed out that he couldn't comply with the provision of allowing five feet to the lot line. He said that if this could not be done, he would rebuild an old garage on the property. The council agreed to the rebuilding of the old garage.

Alex Ulrich sought permission to tear down a shack at the corner of Center and Chase streets and to build a small residence there at a cost of $1500.

The lot line here, too, is in question. The application was approved provided that it complies with the ordinance on the lot line.

Other permits granted were: Claude and Margaret Buschke, remodel Gilliam and Bisbee building to provide two offices at a cost of $3,000; Charles Starks, remodel bathroom, do electric wiring, install furnace at a residence on Main street adjoining Northwestern Motel, $1500; Dr. Wallace Wolf, install new roof on office and garage at Main and Church streets, $600.

Building permits which had been approved at a special council meeting in July included: Carl Spaulding, utility room; Lowell Gribble, remodel bath; Jim Follensbee, construct garage; C. F. Hall applied for a permit to surface his driveway, but it was decided—with Attorney Abrams' counsel—that no permit was necessary because no structures were involved.

Roof Ordinance Amended

An ordinance, carrying the emergency clause, was passed amending Ordinance 293, relating to the fact that all roofs in the fire zone shall be of non-combustible material. Abrams had previously pointed out that the term "roof" includes the structure supporting the roof covering, and it would be impractical for this to be non-combustible. The amendment changes the wording to be "roof coverings shall be of non-combustible material."

Ordinance 368, amending ordinance 366, was passed to second reading. It changes the procedure on variance in the zoning ordinance and empowers the council to decide upon variances.

A third ordinance, No. 369, alters an ordinance to width of sidewalks. This permits the Forest Service to build a 6 ft. sidewalk where the ordinance specified a 12 ft. walk (behind the Gilliam and Bisbee building) and also makes legal a 6 ft. sidewalk that the city had constructed itself in front of the city park, an area where 12 ft. walks were stipulated. This ordinance also received the council's approval.

The council approved an agreement with the county on terms and conditions for the use of the county jail for city prisoners, specifying the same charges as permitted under the laws of the state and exempting the county from liability for city prisoners.

It turned down a request from Max Harris to buy some property from the city on Birch street because of uncertainty about boundary lines of the street and its possible future use.

Mayor Rosewall also brought the council's attention to complaints that Hager street had been used for a dumping ground for grass clippings and fish heads. He said this is in violation of the anti-litter ordinance and asked Chief Glen Kolkhorst to investigate.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spaulding left early this week for Las Vegas, Nev., to meet Mr. and Mrs. Doc Severinsen of Warwick, N. Y. Severinsen is filling an engagement there at the Sands Hotel, and Mrs. Severinsen telephoned the Spauldings last week, asking them to join them for a visit. The Spauldings left Monday by airplane and expected to be home again Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine and family enjoyed a week's vacation trip to the coast and Washington points last week. With his brother-in-law, Ray Bugarsky, of Portland, Forrie went fishing out of Warren-ton and scored on a limit catch of silver salmon. The families remained in Portland for a visit. The Burkenbines then went to Pacific Beach, Wash., for clam digging and continued to Hoods Canal where they did some more fishing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Case, for that week.

Who's Who In Morrow County?

"Clues Hidden in Any Ad in This Section or in Any Ad by Merchants in This Newspaper"

- This is a family fun contest. Entries welcome from every member of the family old enough to fill out his or her own. You may submit one entry per person at any OR ALL of the Sponsoring Merchants whose ads are heavily bordered in this section—but only one entry per person at any one store (more than one will disqualify all entries of that person for that week).
- Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by The Gazette-Times. Sponsoring Merchants and their families, and their employees and families are most welcome to enter EXCEPT during the weeks that the ad of your own store is heavily bordered in this section.
- Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. DO NOT put your entry into an envelope. Not necessary to be present at the drawing to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to The Gazette-Times to participate.
- WHO'S WHO may be anyone in Morrow County. Clues to his (or her) identity will be hidden ONLY in ads of Sponsoring Merchants (every sponsoring Merchant has a little ad in this group ad). There are no other places where entries will be accepted—and all entries will not be accepted. ANYWHERE in the paper. Clues will be scattered—many ads will have no clues, while others may have as many as five. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts!
- If by coincidence, the name of the WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him) happen to appear in news items, editorial matter, or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues.
- To enter, write down the WHO is. List all the clues you can find about him in the ads of the Sponsoring Merchants in this issue. Don't forget your own name and address! Then, drop your entry at any Sponsoring Merchant whose ad is between the heavy borders in this group ad this week. You may enter at all four if you wish. There are no other places where entries will be accepted—and all entries will not be accepted. ANYWHERE in the paper. Clues will be scattered—many ads will have no clues, while others may have as many as five. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts!
- This week's contest starts when you receive this issue, and closes at 4 p.m. Tuesday of the following week. At that time, a drawing will be held. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies the WHO'S WHO will win $500. If THAT entry also lists every clue hidden in all ads of Sponsoring Merchants, a BONUS of $25 will be added. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS which will continue to grow until it is won. Winning the BONUS requires a PERFECT list of clues—the exact number, and all copied exactly as in the paper (watch those capitals, etc.).
- Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but erroneous typographical errors CAN NOT BE GUARANTEED (by anyone). The Gazette-Times will be the judge in all questions, and their decision is final.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the Jackpot. Your wife, husband, or some bright-eyed youngster MAY spot a clue that you miss!
Get any Perry Mason in you? ... Think YOU can outwit the contest? —Remember, you can't win if you don't enter!

What Mothers Should Know about BOYS' BOOTS

The main thing to know is that Acme makes boots especially for boys... not mere "graded down" men's sizes. Acme bootmakers know that growing young arches need strong support. They know boots must fit properly—snug but not tight. They also know the "grown-up" styling a real boy likes. That's why they have earned the right to display the Parents' Magazine seal of approval.
