Grahams Represent Lodge at National Meeting in Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham attended the annual national convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks in Chicago July 16 to 20. Graham, who is the local exalted ruler, represented Heppner Lodge No. 358 as its official delegate.

The couple stayed at the Palmer House with other convention delegates but found this famous Chicago hotel to be somewhat below the quality of many Portland hotels.

About 15,000 Elks and members of their families attended the convention from every state, the Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, Guam and the Philippines.

Business sessions were held in the Conrad Hilton Hotel and included planning for the Order's centennial celebration in 1968.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham enjoyed a sightseeing tour of north and south Chicago and felt fortunate to have "wonderful weather" for their stay in the "windy city."

Following the convention the Heppnerites made a three-day trip to Harrisburg, Pa., to visit Mrs. Graham's uncle, Will Wightman, in a rest home and to take care of some family business.

Club Takes 'Hats Off' To Royal Fair, Rodeo Court at Luncheon

"Hats Off to the Court" was the theme used by the Soroptimist Club at its annual luncheon last Thursday when they entertained the queen and princesses of the fair and rodeo court, their mothers, and chaperone, Mrs. Archie Munkers.

Welcoming the guests and presiding at opening ceremonies was the club president, Mrs. Bill Johnson.

Places were marked by brown miniature cowgirl hats made of styrofoam. Under each guest's place setting was a large brown placemat in the shape of a steer and "branded" with the registered family stock brand of each guest. A large plaque with words of the theme written in white rope accompanied a mannequin hand holding a rodeo hat. These were on a separate table centered with a beautiful arrangement of gladioli in white and shades of purple.

Mrs. Emile Groshens, chairman for the day, welcomed the court and introduced Mrs. Munkers who had words of praise for this year's court, stressing the pleasure that she has experienced in working with them and complimenting them on always "knowing what they are doing and what is expected of them." She felt the court is a fine ambassador of good-will between Morrow county and the other counties that have fairs and rodeos in Eastern Oregon.

Members of the court introduced their mothers and each told of highlights of rodeos and parades in which they had participated through the summer. Of enjoyment to all was a poem, "Rodeo Cowboy", read by Miss Shannon Mahoney. Princess Rubianne Fulleton gave an informative talk on the importance and kinds of stock branding and asked each girl on the court to describe and explain the history of her family's registered brand. One brand, that of the Bernard Doherty family, has been used through generations and brought by ancestors from Ireland.

Mrs. Groshens expressed deep appreciation to those who helped provide the attractive decorations. Much of the art work was done by Frances Abrams; others who helped were Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland, Mrs. Charles Wilcoxen, Mrs. LeRoy Gardner and Shannon Mahoney. Program time of the club's luncheon today (Thursday) was spent in assisting the Morrow County Chapter of the American Red Cross in gift wrapping items for the 25 dittybags which are being sent to overseas servicemen for Christmas.
