

Anniversary Observed
By Hughes Families

Mrs. Olive Hughes returned to her home here last week after spending several weeks in Sweet Home with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughes, and with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Keith (Ellen) Marshall. The Bill Hughes family has since moved to Sutherlin where he will coach basketball and football for the coming year.

On Sunday, August 20, the Marshalls celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a reception at their home, attended by 125 guests. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Roberts and two sons of Cambridge, Mass., were among those present. An OSU graduate, Roberts is now in his second year at Harvard Law School, and Mrs. Roberts is an elementary teacher in Cambridge.

Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hughes and family, now of Monroe. Hughes will be head football coach, assistant basketball coach, teach driver training and boys' P. E. at Monroe High school. Mrs. Hughes will continue her studies at OSU, toward her degree in physical education.

Guests from Missouri
Visit Mrs. Duvall

Mrs. Amanda Duvall returned home Monday from a three weeks trip to Missouri where she visited relatives and friends.

Coming home with her were her long-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cook of Republic, Mo., who will visit here for several days, then return to their home by jet plane from Portland.

On the trip East, Mrs. Duvall was accompanied by another friend, Mrs. Julia Lloyd of Springfield, Mo. Mrs. Lloyd had spent several days here, coming to Portland by plane where she was met by Mrs. Duvall.

Verina French Gets Scholarship to OSU

Verina French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French, received word from the Oregon State Scholarship Commission last Wednesday that she has been awarded a partial tuition scholarship for college study for the coming year.

Miss French, a 1967 graduate of Heppner High school, was an alternate for the scholarship last spring. She will use it to enroll this fall at Oregon State University, also attended by her sister, Karen.

Golden Age Meetings To Resume Tuesday

Regular monthly meetings will resume for the Golden Age Club on Tuesday, September 5, at the Episcopal church parish hall.

The club has not met during the summer months but members and guests are urged to be present for the coming meeting, to start at 7:00 p.m., with a pot-luck dinner. Entertainment will follow. The club welcomes new members, who are 50 years of age or older, and visitors are also welcome.

SOCIETY

MRS. KENNETH VERNON MOLAND (Vicky Barratt)

Barratt-Moland Vows Exchanged in Spokane

St. Stephens Episcopal church in Spokane, Wn., was the setting for a summer wedding ceremony which joined in marriage Miss Victoria Lee Barratt, daughter of former Heppner residents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Barratt of Spokane, and Kenneth Vernon Moland, son of Mrs. Evelyn V. Moland, and Vernon M. Moland, also of Spokane. Vows were exchanged on Saturday, July 1.

Pale pink carnations and darker pink gladioli in brass vases decorated the altar for the 3:00 p.m. ceremony, at which the Rev. Harold K. Lawrence officiated. The pews were marked with pink satin bows.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of Venice lace-trimmed linen with an empire bodice, her bracelet sleeves were edged in lace. The A-line skirt was banded with double rows of lace which were repeated on the edge of the shaped chapel length train. A crown of crystals held her shoulder-length veil of imported silk illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations, pink roses and stephanotis.

The bride wore a baroque pearl bracelet borrowed from her paternal grandmother and a pearl ring, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Michael Hollensworth, Spokane, was matron of honor, attired in an azalea pink floor length gown.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jackie Ganquet, Dixie, Wn.; Miss Susan Gross, Woodland, Wn.; Miss Kathie Cox and Miss Brenda Barratt, both of Corvallis. Their floor-length gowns were of pale pink barthea, designed identical to the honor attendant, with fitted bodices, scoop necklines and elbow-length sleeves. Watteau panels flowing from the shoulder complemented the modified bell skirts. The attendants carried nosegays of pink carnations and white pompon chrysanthemums.

Ronald Moland served as best man for his brother, Scott Barratt, brother of the bride; Michael Hollensworth, Kevin Veleke, Maple Valley, Wn., and Terry Hulín, Tacoma, seated the guests.

Jay Barratt, brother of the bride, was ring bearer and Laurie Barratt, a sister, was the flower girl.

Mrs. Barratt wore a pale pink A-line jacket-dress of worsted and silk by Abbott East and a flowered ribbon hat in two shades of pink for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom wore a pale aqua jacket dress with a matching hat and accessories.

The newlyweds greeted their wedding guests at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents in the Moran Prairie district.

Fouring were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. P. Ferguson, Lake Oswego, and her godmother, Mrs. R. B. Ferguson of Heppner.

Others helping with the serving were her aunts, Mrs. James G. Barratt, Jr., Corvallis, Mrs. Alexander Hunter, Mrs. John Lealand, and cousins, Janis Hunter and Janet Barratt, Corvallis.

Among the out-of-town relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Barratt, Mesa, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marshall, Ladner, B. C., and Mr. and Mrs. E. Harvey Miller, Portland.

The bride attended Heppner High school before the family moved to Spokane, where she graduated from Lewis and Clark High school. She attended Washington State University and was graduated from Weaver Airline School in Kansas City, Mo.

Moland is a graduate of Central Valley High school, attended Columbia Basin college, and is presently enrolled at Washington State University.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, who has made her home in Portland for several years, suffered a stroke the first of the week, according to word received by friends here. She was taken to Willamette Falls hospital in Oregon City, where it was expected that she would be hospitalized for some time.

Mrs. Burkenbine Joins G-T Staff

Mrs. Forrest (Gail) Burkenbine will start Tuesday as a member of the Gazette-Times staff. She will replace Mrs. Bob (Marion) Abrams who accepted a position with the elementary school as a teachers' aide.

Mrs. Burkenbine will work on society and local news and will assist over the counter and with office work. She will be on duty in the afternoons only. Those with personal news items, meeting notices and similar items are invited to call for her at the Gazette-Times in the afternoons (676-9228).

The new staff member is wife of Forrest Burkenbine, manager of Central Market and Heppner fire chief. She has been very active in PTA, Jaycees and other community activities.

Tommy Howell was confined to his home over the week-end, following a heart attack at the store last Thursday morning. He has been finding it difficult to regain strength and is able to be at his work at Economy Market for only brief periods. He had experienced a previous serious attack in 1958, but had been in fair health during recent months. Helping Mrs. Howell with work at the store during his recovery are their daughters and his sister, Mrs. Clarence Wise.

Family Gathering Held in Centralia

Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Griffin and Sheryl of Beaverton were Heppner visitors on Wednesday, August 9, returning home the same day, accompanied by Mrs. Stanley Cox and Debbie. The group spent Thursday and Friday in the Salem area visiting Mrs. Cox's grandmother and other relatives. On Saturday, they traveled to Centralia, Wash., for a large family gathering and picnic, with relatives coming from Poulsbo, Wn., and Tacoma.

On Monday, they traveled to the coast, taking the Griffins' camper. The next couple of days were spent fishing and enjoying the beach. They returned to Beaverton Tuesday evening with a catch of several nice salmon. On Friday, August 18, Mrs. Cox entered the University of Oregon Medical Center for major surgery on August 21. She is recuperating quickly and has returned to her home in Heppner.

Mrs. North Rasmus enjoyed a trip last month to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C. She drove to Walla Walla where she joined a niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Dysart, and accompanied them to Seattle and on north to British Columbia. She especially enjoyed the tour of Victoria, realizing her wish of several years.

Kindergarten Needs More Registrations

More five-year-olds are needed for kindergarten this year, according to the committee in charge from the sponsoring Heppner Civic League.

Parents interested may register their youngsters on the opening day—Tuesday—in the downstairs of the Heppner junior high school building (the old high school).

A total of 29 has registered but 40 are wanted to fill the two sessions planned. The first session will start at 8:30 a.m. and continue until 10:45, and the second session will be held from 11:00 a.m. until 1:15 p.m.

Parents who would like to enter their 5-year-olds are asked to bring them to the school at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bergstrom and Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom went to Portland Sunday to bring the Gerald Bergstrom's two-months-old son, Michael John Bergstrom, home from Doernbecher hospital. The baby, born prematurely and weighing only 2 lb. 10 oz. at birth, has been in the hospital for care. But Michael now has gained so that he weighs 5 lb. 6 1/2 oz.

Wedding Changed

Unforeseen circumstances have made necessary a change in plans of the marriage of Tamara Dee Smith and Rodney Warren Brown in La Grande, according to word received through friends here. The couple will be married at a private wedding in that city on Friday, rather than on Saturday, as had been announced previously.

Miss Mary Becket, who had made here home in Portland for several years, is now receiving care in Pioneer Memorial hospital.
