

Montana Mother Is Travel Companion On Vancouver Trip

Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie has recently returned from a trip with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Lehner of Missoula, Mont., to Victoria, Vancouver Island, and Vancouver, B. C. The trip was a birthday gift from Mrs. McQuarrie for Mrs. Lehner's 80th birthday.

One of the highlights of the trip was the chance meeting on the boat from Seattle to Victoria, with a Mr. Heppner. After visiting with him it was discovered that he is a nephew of Henry Heppner, for whom the town is named. He had never lived in Heppner, but as a grown man, was a grocer in Walla Walla before going into the coin business in Seattle. Many interesting aspects of the two Heppner families were discussed and Mrs. McQuarrie invited him to visit the town named for his uncle.

At the time of their visit, Vancouver was celebrating its 100th year of the union of the colonies of Vancouver Island and the mainland with Canada.

The two women enjoyed a short side trip to Roseburg to see Mrs. McQuarrie's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ruhl and Dana. Mrs. Lehner then went by plane from Portland to her home in Missoula, and Mrs. McQuarrie returned to her home in Heppner on Saturday, September 2.

Over The Tee Cup

By MARIE McQUARRIE

Nine girls who braved the dewey grass to play golf on Tuesday, Ladies Day, were Barbara Clough, Beverly Gunderson, Mary Lou Kelly, Helen Schaffitz, Karen Thompson, Coramae Ferguson, Suzanne Jepsen, Zaida Suniger and Marie McQuarrie. Mrs. Suniger, of Florence, was a house guest of Mrs. Jepsen. Three of the girls are comparatively new at this game of "swing the clubs"—Karen, Barbara and Suzanne—but are coming along with "vigor" and doing very well.

Prize for low score on No. 7 was a tie between Marie and Helen, with Helen winning the toss. A ball for low score on No. 9 was won by Karen.

Having these new golfers out and playing with such enthusiasm gives the "old timers" a shot in the arm to keep on playing, and playing well. Glad to have you.

Golf starts at 9:00 o'clock as the weather is cooler now, and will continue at that time until further notice. A short business meeting was held before playing. The girls are happy to report that new chairs for the club house have arrived and we want to thank Gina Leonard for her part in getting them. Let's have more of the "veterans" out next Tuesday.
