IRRIGON NEWS

Benjamin F. Pummel of Wier, Idaho, spent Saturday visiting with Mrs. Perry Pummel and Anita, Donna and Darrel.

Friday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Partlow and Sheryl were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Berg and Ronald of Vancouver, and Mr. and Mrs. James Mills and family of Hermiston. The Bergs remained in Irrigon and spent the weekend.

TRAFFIC TUNE UP

(This is the ninth in a series of 13 articles to test your knowledge of Oregon's traffic laws and safe driving practices.)

1. You are driving on a three lane highway. A school bus in the far opposite lane stops and flashes its red lights. You are going in the opposite direction and there is a lane between you and the bus. Is it necessary for you to stop?

ANSWER: Yes. In this situation no matter which of the three lanes you are in, or your direction, you must stop if the bus has its flashing red lights in operation.

2. A conviction for driving while intoxicated means a heavy fine and a possible jail sentence. Conviction on the first offense for this charge means the driver's license must be suspended for how many days?

ANSWER: 90 days. Second offense results in a one-year suspension, and third or subsequent convictions result in a three-year suspension.

3. You are arrested for driving under the influence. The arresting officer asks you to take a breath test to determine the alcohol content of your blood. Is there any law that says you have to?

ANSWER: An implied consent law took effect in Oregon on January 1, 1966. This law provides that those who operate a motor vehicle in Oregon have consented to a breath test when arrested for driving under the influence. If an arrested driver refuses the breath test, his driver's license will be suspended. Opportunities for hearings prior to suspension are provided.

District Meeting Set; Talk Informs Group Of Club Structure

Plans for sending delegates to the annual District 2 Convention of Soroptimist Clubs were discussed at the luncheon meeting of the Heppner club last Thursday noon.

Representing the club at the meetings, which will be held in Redmond on Saturday and Sunday, September 23 and 24, will be Mrs. Bill Johnson, president; Mrs. Elaine George, vice-president; and Mrs. Wes Sherman, regional representative.

Mrs. Duncan Lincoxon, mother of a local member, Terry Lincoxon, art instructor, was introduced as a special visitor. She is a member of the Soroptimist Club of Lakeview, and told of their attending the Ashland Shakesperian Festival on August 5 in a body of 100 Soroptimists, who represented various clubs throughout the district. She also told of some of the service projects of the Lakeview club.

Mrs. Charles Starks presented an educational program, reviewing the basic structure of the Soroptimist organization, including the interrelation of district, regional, national and international associations. Rules relating to classification, types of membership, duties of members, and general discipline were reviewed, especially to instruct new members.

Mrs. Starks was introduced by Mrs. John Pfeiffer, program committee chairman.

As a farewell token, Mrs. Leta Thomas invited members to accept books which she had brought from her personal library as gifts of remembrance from her.

Members Honored At Rebekah Meeting; Plan for Visitation

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 had a good attendance of members for the last regular meeting on Friday, September 15, in the IOOF hall.

The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Roy Neill, who had been a 35-year member of the local lodge prior to her death August 8. Mrs. Ralph Scott attended this ceremony for her mother. Also in memory of the lodge has made a donation to the Neill Memorial Fund at the Christian church.

Three members, who have had recent illnesses, were remembered. These are Mrs. Letha Archer, Mrs. Alice Luttrell and Mrs. Prudy Hough.

Under the direction of Mrs. Ed LaTrace, noble grand, plans were introduced for entertaining state Assembly President Jesse Darrar of Madras, who will make her official visitation here October 20. The District Convention, which will be held November 2 in Lexington, was discussed briefly.

Mrs. Mary Bailey, who had not been present to receive the honor previously, was presented an Assembly Seal of Perfection in unwritten work for the past term by Mrs. Altha Kirk, outgoing deputy president.

In honor of Mrs. Leta Thomas, who has been out of the area for some time and will be moving away soon, members surprised her with a card and handkerchief shower as a token of friendship and reminder to return soon and often to Heppner.

Also honored was Mrs. C. R. McDowell, past noble grand and conductor of Sans Souci. She was presented a going-away gift from the lodge, and extended good wishes as she leaves to make her home in Pendleton.

Mrs. Larry Cook reported on serving luncheon to the royal courts and their guests the day of the Heppner Rodeo and Parade.

Hostesses for the social hour which followed the closing ceremonies were Mrs. Dean Connor and Mrs. McDowell.

Penelope Jones Weds John Sealy in Church Ceremony August 20

Miss Penelope Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell C. Jones of Irrigon, became the bride of H. John Sealy on Sunday, August 20. The groom is the son of Mrs. Dorcas Sealy of Corpus Christi, Texas.

The afternoon ceremony was solemnized at St. John's Episcopal church in Hermiston, and vows were read by the Reverend Chandler Jackson.

Wedding music was played by Paul Hudemann, as the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father.

Her bridal gown was of white crepe, styled in an empire A-line, and featured lace sleeves, a Monk's train edged with lace, and a shoulder-length veil held by a Dior rose. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce Anderson of Corvallis. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Heritage, Tacoma, and Miss Joan Bradshaw, Halsey.

Best man was Bruce Anderson, Klaus Alt, Corvallis, and Maxwell C. Jones, Richland, served as ushers.

The couple greeted their wedding guests at a reception held in the parish hall following the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Carl Golde, Umatilla; Mrs. Ken Munger, Hermiston; Cheryl Hale, Umatilla; Kathy Bond, Haines, and Delores Alt, Corvallis.

During her years at Riverside High school, the bride was prominent in 4-H club work, and received county and state fair awards for her projects in clothing.

The newlyweds are now at home at 211 N. 23rd St., Corvallis, following their wedding trip to Mt. Rainier. The bride is teaching in the elementary grades in Albany, and the groom is doing graduate work in education at Oregon State University.

Students to Attend Journalism Meet

A busload of Heppner and Ione high school journalism students and annual staff members will go to Pendleton High school for the annual Eastern Oregon Press Conference, Saturday, September 23. A full program is planned for students interested in newspaper work or annual production and their advisors.

Carl Taylor, from the Portland Oregonian, will show the newspaper students slides and discuss the operation of a metropolitan paper. Dean Rea, of the University of Oregon, will present a special talk on libel to a group meeting.

Yearbook students will meet with representatives from the American Yearbook Company. They will see slides, hear talks, and be shown examples to improve annual production.

At the closing session, newspapers that entered contests last spring will be presented trophies. The HEHSCH was entered in all divisions.

Yearbooks will be on exhibit, but no competition is involved this year in this division.

New Students Enter At Heppner High

Twelve new students have enrolled at HHS this year.

From Portland are Ron and Rob Freeman. Ron is a freshman, and attended Sellwood Elementary school last year. Rob, who attended Cleveland High school last year, is a sophomore.

Sophomores are Molly Becket and Jody Bugg of Heppner who had attended St. Helen's Hall in Portland last year. Also returning from Portland are Jeni Cross, a freshman and Lynn Key, a junior.

Darlene and Deborah Warren attended Ione schools last year. This year Darlene is a freshman and Deborah is a sophomore at HHS.

Patricia Keithley, a sophomore, transferred from Condon High school. She also is a former Heppnerite.

Junior Jill Chitty is from Enterprise High school. Sheri Brock, also a junior, came from Touchet High school in Touchet, Wash.

Leonard George, a freshman, moved all the way from Holiday, Utah.

JV Cheerleaders Chosen at HHS

Junior varsity cheerleaders for Heppner High school this year are Linda Eckman, Sheila Healy, and Linda Starks. They tried out on Tuesday, September 12.

Others trying out were Becky Fulleton, Theresa Moore, Patti Howell, and Vicky Steagall.

Each led the yell, "Let's Shout for the Gold".

The girls were seen in action at the first junior varsity game against Pilot Rock at the Fair Grounds, September 18.

They have not yet decided upon their outfits but plan to do so soon.

PTA Leaders Set Reception Date And Open House

A schedule of programs for the Heppner High School PTA was made at the organization meeting of this year's executive group held September 7 in the office of Principal Dick Carpenter. Officers present were W. W. Weatherford, president; David L. Barnett, vice president; and Mrs. Paul Warren, secretary.

Plans were discussed for the High School Teachers Reception, planned for Wednesday evening, October 11 in the high school cafeteria. Following a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m., a short meeting and film strip, "How Good Is Your Child's School?" will be shown. New teachers will be escorted to the meeting by parents of students, and Principal Carpenter will introduce his complete teaching staff.

On December 13, the annual "Open House" is planned. Following the general assembly at 7:30, parents will have the opportunity to visit 15-minute class sessions in the different departments. A social hour will close the evening in the school library.

Jaycees Attend State Board Meet

Four members of the Morrow county Jaycees attended the fall board meeting of the state organization in Springfield Saturday and Sunday. Making the trip from here were Jerry Samples, Clyde Allstott, John Privett and Daniel Anderson.

The four participated in forums on community development, leadership training, membership retention and extension, and chapter management.

They heard a talk by Edward Merdes of Alaska, who is president of the International Jaycees. He discussed international relations and some of his personal experiences in Jaycee work.

Ray Robert Packwood was speaker at the Saturday night banquet. He was named one of the 10 outstanding young men in the state last year.

Instructors at the meetings included Roger Jenkins, a national vice president, from Washington state, and Dave Green, Madras, an immediate past vice president and former candidate for the national presidency.

"The meetings were enlightening and inspiring," the Jaycees reported upon their return.

Over The Tee Cup

By MARIE McQUARRIE

Twelve lady golfers were up and at the "sticks" Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Karen Holland and Virginia Wilkinson were hostesses for the day. We were all pleased that Marguerite Chapin brought her house guest, Leola Irwin from Apache Wells, Mesa, Ariz. She practically lives on the fifth green of a golf course in Apache Wells, so has had plenty of practice at hitting that little white ball around. She was in a foursome with me and I must say she hits a "mean" ball. It was a pleasure to golf with her. "Come again, Leola."

Cora Mae Ferguson, Barbara Clough, Clita Venard, Helen Schaffitz, Beverly Gunderson, Marguerite Chapin, Hazel Mahoney and Marie McQuarrie were golfers for the day. The hostesses did not golf, but made a very nice golfing day for the rest of us.

Low score with blind partners was used for awarding the prizes. Mary Lou Kelly and Helen Scaffitz each received a golf ball.

The course is in beautiful shape, the weather is lovely, and when in the year, but in the fall, is it a better time to play golf, when you know the snow is about ready to fly soon?

CHOOSE A THEME For The 1968

RODEO PARADE

WIN Two Tickets To Two Performances of the Rodeo

Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce needs your help in choosing a theme for the 1968 Rodeo Parade which it sponsors. Requests have been made that the theme be chosen early in order to allow more time to plan entries.

If your idea is judged best, you will win the prize—two tickets to the Saturday and Sunday afternoon performances of the rodeo in August, 1968.

Make your theme idea general enough so that it can apply to a wide variety of floats and entries.

Anyone may enter this contest—just fill in the blank below and bring or send it to the Gazette-Times, Heppner, by Friday, October 6.
