

Local Lodge to Host District Convention Of Degree of Honor

District Convention of the Degree of Honor Protective Association will be held Tuesday, October 10, at the Catholic parish hall, Heppner. Registration will begin at 11:00 a.m., and potluck luncheon served by the local lodge at 12:00 noon. Banquet will be served in the Methodist church dining room at 6:30 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lincoln Nash and Mrs. Mary Bryant.

Heppner lodge will have the opening ceremonies, with a school of instructions by Mrs. Clara Gertson, national treasurer and state director, assisted by state officers. Various visiting lodges will conduct the evening session.

Theme of the convention, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Earl Soward, will be in keeping with celebrating the 80th anniversary of the lodge.

Delegates are expected from Baker, Pendleton, The Dalles and John Day, and state officers from Portland. All members are invited to the luncheon, the afternoon and evening sessions, and banquet, with tickets available at the Methodist church.

Gilliams Entertain Out-of-town Guests

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam recently were their son and daughter-in-law, Reverend Jackson and Kay Gilliam, from Great Falls, Mont., where he is pastor of the Episcopal Church of Incarnation. Rev. Gilliam serves a parish of 900. They arrived here Thursday, September 21, and left Saturday morning for the 10-day General Convention in Seattle, which he attended as a clerical delegate from his area.

Arriving here Friday, September 22, to visit with his parents were Howard Gilliam and his wife Helen, of Spokane. Gilliam serves as county extension agent in the Spokane area. They left on Sunday for their home.

Also visiting the Gilliams were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Brown of Portland, who are spending time in the area visiting friends and relatives. They are staying at the Art Keene home.

Arizona Travelers Visit Friends Here

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Irwin of Apache Wells, Mesa, Ariz., were house guests at the home of close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Chapin last week. The Irwins are avid golfers and they had a pleasant time on the Willow Creek course while visiting here.

While here they were entertained at the Ray Ferguson home with a barbecue, and spent time visiting Mrs. Irwin's uncle, Ed Bennett, and other friends. The Irwins left the latter part of last week for their home in Arizona, after spending the summer months in the Bend area.

SOCIETY

Florene Kygar is Bride Of Dean K. Robinson

An afternoon candlelight ceremony on Saturday, September 16, joined in marriage Miss Florene W. Kygar and Dean Keith Robinson. The Rev. Elmer Rosenkilde performed the 2:00 p.m. ceremony at the altar of the Adrian Presbyterian church in the presence of about 150 friends and relatives.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kygar of Route 1, Nyssa, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson of Heppner. Decorating the altar for the double ring ceremony were floral arrangements of yellow gladioli, yellow and green carnations, flanked by tapers in candleabra.

Escorted by her father, the bride appeared in a wedding gown of white embossed lace, with fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves. A chapel train extended from the waistline of the tiered bouffant skirt. Her shoulder length illusion veil was secured by a floral headpiece, and her bridal bouquet was of white lilies and red roses.

Miss Vickie Robinson, Heppner, sister of the groom, attended as maid of honor. She was attired in a street length gown of yellow chiffon, and carried an arm bouquet of green-tinted gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Miss Catherine Samer and Miss Judy Mae Steiner, cousin of the bride. They wore contrasting street length dresses of green chiffon and carried arm bouquets of yellow gladioli.

Serving as flower girls were Patty Saling, Heppner, cousin of the groom, and Donna White of Parma, Idaho. They wore matching dresses of green chiffon. Fred Spence of Boise, Idaho, attended the groom as best man. Ushers were William Rill and Donnie Munkers, Heppner, and Jesse K. Kygar, Nyssa, brother of the bride.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Jim Phifer of Adrian, who also accompanied the soloist, Ernie Lewis of Adrian, when he sang "Lord's Prayer" and "Because".

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Donnie Munkers and Jack Steiner. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kygar wore a pumpkin-colored wool knit suit. Mrs. Robinson, mother of the groom, chose to wear a multi-colored blue, long sleeved chiffon dress. Both mothers wore green orchid corsages.

The newlyweds were greeted by their wedding guests at a reception in the church social rooms. Serving the tiered wedding cake were Mrs. Roger Haney, Nyssa, and Mrs. Ray White, Ontario. Punch was served by Mrs. Fred Spence, Boise, and coffee by Mrs. Mike Saling, Heppner. The guest book was held by Mrs. Jesse Kygar and attending the gift table were Sheila Huffman, Boise; Ramona Wright, Wallowa, and Ruth Ann Cowley, Morgan, Utah. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Tony Dramica and Mrs. Gene White, both of Parma, Idaho.

Following the reception, the bride changed to a travel ensemble of navy blue wool dress with white accessories, for their wedding trip to Yellowstone National Park.

They are now at home in Nyssa, where both are employed at the Amalgamated Sugar Company. The bride was a graduate of Adrian High school and the groom was a member of the 1965 graduating class of Heppner High school. They attended Treasure Valley Community College, Ontario, where Robinson graduated last spring.

Interesting Displays Seen at Flower Show

The 16th annual Fall Flower Show, presented under the sponsorship of the Lone Garden Club, on Sunday, September 24, was considered a great success by guests and members who viewed the displays of beautiful arrangements and horticultural specimens.

The school cafeteria was decorated in keeping with the show title, "Autumn—Plain and Fancy." The large collection of dahlias on display by Bill Rawlins, local dahlia grower, added to the display of autumn beauty.

The Best of Show award in arrangement class was presented to Mrs. Garry Tullis for her entry in the "Emerald" class, an arrangement made entirely of greens. Mrs. Tullis was also recipient of the sweepstakes award, presented to the winner of the most blue ribbons in the show.

Mrs. Fredrick Martin received the Best of Show award in the horticulture class for a beautiful semi-cactus dahlia.

Junior sweepstakes honors were tied with Charlie Rawlins and Cassie Chapel each receiving the same number of blue ribbons. The Best of Show award for juniors went to Donna Palmer for her entry in the class of "Bouquet of Flowers".

The flower arranging contest was a popular event among the juniors at the show, with 14 eager young contestants competing. In the under 9 years of age contest winners were Karen Winters, first; Cheryl Turner, second; Debby Palmer, third, and Donna Palmer, honorable mention.

In the 9 to 12 age group, winners were David Tucker, first; Cassy Chapel, second; Stewart Kessler, third, and Barbara Palmer, honorable mention. This contest was judged by two of the accredited judges present and comments and hints on flower arranging given for the education of the youngsters.

Judges for the show were Mrs. Hans Blaser and Mrs. Bruce Hull of The Dalles and Mrs. Byron Bradshaw of Albany. Out of town guests who signed the guest book came from Boardman, Heppner, Albany, John Day, La Grande and other nearby towns.

Mrs. Tom Huston, club president, served as general chairman. Winning blue ribbons in the adult arrangement classes were Mrs. Tullis, Mrs. Huston, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Norman Nelson, Beta Omega Sorority. Theme arrangements were "Autumn—Plain", Mrs. Tullis, and "Autumn—Fancy," Mrs. Margaret Akers.

Rawlins, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Fredrick Martin, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Mary Lundell, Mrs. Laura Holtz, Mrs. Tullis, Mrs. Geneva Palmer, Mrs. Mary Ann Palmer, Art Vance, Mrs. Art Vance, Mrs. Norma Rea, Mrs. Delta Huber, Ninon Rill, Roy W. Lindstrom, Mrs. Sue Jones, Mrs. Vida Helker.
