

Dinner and Program Provide Enjoyment At Teacher Reception

A good attendance of parents and teachers were welcomed at the Heppner High school PTA Teachers' Reception in the multi-purpose room of the high school Wednesday evening, October 11.

The potluck dinner started the evening's activities with about 80 persons in attendance. It was under the direction of Mrs. Dave Barnett, chairman. Mrs. Bill Heath was in charge of soliciting food from the Senior class; Mrs. Roger Campbell was the Junior class mother in charge; Mrs. Orval Matheny contacted Sophomore parents, and Mrs. Mel Boyer represented the Freshman class parents.

After dinner, Bill Weatherford, president of the high school PTA, introduced other officers of the organization, both high school and elementary school. School board members were introduced and parents heard a report given by Mrs. Ed Dick on PTA publications.

A talk by the Rev. H. S. Preston was given on smoking and its effects. Rev. Preston had talked to the school students during the day and spoke to the parents as well, so they would be aware of what their children had heard.

Principal Dick Carpenter introduced his faculty to the parents during the reception, which was held to honor the teaching staff, both old and new, of Heppner High school.

A film entitled, "How Good is Your Child's School?" was shown and narrated by Principal Carpenter. Coffee and desserts were served at the close of the program.

Cafeteria tables were decorated with bouquets of fall flowers from the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rawlins.

Lotts Earn Holiday Trip to Sun Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lott will be guests of the Westinghouse Corporation for a three-day holiday at Sun Valley, Idaho, the last of October, as a result of Lott's Electric having topped their sales quota of air conditioners for their area.

Many winners from the North Pacific and South Pacific regions will gather at Sun Valley for the three days as guests of the Westinghouse Corporation.

The long term of hot weather experienced in the area helped boost their sales of air conditioners considerably. Lott's Electric also placed 42 units in the new Dodge City Inn in Boardman to top their sales quota. Lott says he could have sold another carload if the company could have supplied them, they were in such demand.

Mrs. Lott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy of Walla Walla will come and care for the Lott children while their parents are away.

MR. AND MRS. RODNEY WARREN BROWN

Couple Makes Home In La Grande After Wedding Last Month

Miss Tamara Dee Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Smith of Yakima, Wash., and formerly of Heppner, was united in marriage to Rodney Warren Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brown of Juneau, Alaska, on Friday, September 1.

Vows were exchanged at an 8:00 p.m. ceremony in Our Lady of the Valley Catholic church in La Grande, with Father Driesbach performing the ceremony. Organist was Mrs. Helen Feik of La Grande. Floral arrangements of pink gladioli decorated the church altar for the candlelight, double ring ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a self-fashioned bridal gown of white georgette over satin. A lace motif accented the fitted bodice and elbow length sleeves; the full, hooped skirt with lace trimmed hemline extended into a flowing chapel train. The waist-length veil was held at the crown by a single, satin rose. Her bouquet of white roses, with blue accent, was created by Mrs. Andy Van Schoelack of Hermiston, who also designed other bouquets of the bride's attendants.

For something old, a silver sapphire was placed in her shoe by her father, the same one used by her mother on her wedding day. Something borrowed was a necklace belonging to the groom's mother, and something blue was a garter fashioned by Mrs. Keith Bander, sister of the groom.

Miss Margaret Green, Heppner, close friend of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a street-length dress of blue lace over satin, with long sleeves and carried a bouquet of white carnations with blue accent.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Amanda Smith, Oregon City, sister of the bride; Miss Margie Elliot, Bridgeport, and Miss Jean Stockard, Heppner. All wore matching street length dresses of pale blue lace over satin, identical with that of the maid of honor, except in lighter shades of blue. They also carried white carnations with accents of blue.

Best man was Tim Smith, Heppner, brother of the bride. Ushers were Keith Bander, brother-in-law of the groom, La Grande; Jack Saunders, Cove, and Kay Mansfield, Island City.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith was attired in a beige afternoon frock, with orange accessories, and a green carnation corsage.

Mrs. Brown, mother of the groom, chose to wear a beige knit two-piece ensemble with black accessories, and a pink carnation corsage. Family and close friends greeted the couple at a reception at the home of the groom in La Grande. Centering the lace covered serving table was a four-tiered wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Kenneth Keeling of La Grande, and served by Mrs. Bander, sister of the groom. Groom's cakes and rice bags were passed, tied with blue satin ribbon.

Pouring tea and coffee was Mrs. Andy Van Schoelack, Hermiston; punch was served by Mrs. Kay Mansfield of Island City; the guest book was held by Mrs. Raymond W. Sondena of La Grande, and attending the gift table was Miss Phyllis Brown, Corvallis, sister of the groom.

Following their wedding trip, for which the bride changed to a blue two-piece suit with white accessories, they are now at in La Grande at 1704 Cedar Street.

After graduating from Dufur High school, Rodney attended Eastern Oregon College for two years. He is now awaiting to be called into service, and then will complete his college training. He is presently employed at the La Grande Lumber Company.

Tamara was graduated from Heppner High school in 1965, and has also been attending Eastern Oregon College. Several classmates and close friends of the bride traveled to La Grande to attend the ceremony.

Church Has Farewell Dinner for Member

Members of the congregation of the First Christian church participated in a farewell dinner October 4, in honor of Mrs. Leta Thomas, who has left to make her home in Arizona for the winter months. In the spring, Mrs. Thomas will then be at home near Oregon City. The potluck dinner was attended by about 40 friends of Mrs. Thomas. She was presented a potted plant and a statuette of the praying hands by the Rev. Al Boschee, along with good wishes from her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sargent of Lincoln City, former Heppner residents, were visiting friends and relatives in the area last week. They were guests of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McTimpany.

Youth Take Hayride On Evening Retreat

The United Youth group enjoyed an autumn hayride to Mrs. Anita Stockard's mountain cabin Saturday night with about 46 young people attending. Two trucks furnished by Marcel Jones and Fred Hoskins, Jr. were used to take the students, along with chaperons, to a fun evening of games, group singing, refreshments and a devotional period.

Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse, Mrs. Bob Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cline, Bill Hust, and Fred Hoskins, Jr., accompanied the kids.

The United Youth Group is comprised of student members of the Methodist and Christian churches, grades eight through twelve.

The group will continue to meet every Sunday evening at 7:15 at the Christian church for the remainder of the month of October, and will meet at the Methodist church during the month of November.

Mrs. Viola Gilman and Mrs. Iva Booker were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Omohundro in Gresham last week. Mrs. Omohundro, a former Monument resident, is a long time friend and was a school mate of the ladies during their school years. They also visited in Oregon City and Portland.

Lodge to Sponsor Sale

Holly Rebekah Lodge of Lexington will sponsor a public food sale and bazaar on Friday, October 27, in the Jaycee hall, next door to Gardner's Men's Wear. Proceeds from the sale of baked foods and varieties of handmade needlework articles will be used for the hall improvement project of the Lexington IOOF hall.

Men Organize Group In Christian Church

Nineteen men and young men from the Heppner-Lexington Christian churches met at Lexington for an early Sunday morning breakfast October 15, prepared by the Lexington men under the leadership of Homer Hughes and Carl Marquardt.

Earl Soward was master of ceremonies. The men, organized and will be called Christian Men's Fellowship with the following as new officers: Bill Hust, president, Carl Marquardt, vice president, and Clarence Baker, secretary-treasurer.

The CMF will meet the third Sunday of each month for breakfast and the next four meetings will be held in Heppner, due to the change in morning worship, as Lexington will have the 9 a.m. service November through February.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Griffin and Sheryl, and the Griffin's three grandchildren, T. J., Colleen, and Dawn Caldera, were visitors over the week-end at the home of Mrs. Griffin's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox and family. While here they also visited with Mrs. Jessie Griffin and other friends and relatives.

JUST ONE DARN MINUTE

That's the most an Accutron® timepiece will gain or lose in one month. And we'll guarantee it. Accutron looks like a watch. But it isn't. It doesn't have a mainspring, a hairspring, or a balance wheel. Accutron has replaced them with an electronic-powered tuning fork. It splits each second into 360 equal parts. And makes the Accutron timepiece so precise, it won't gain or lose an average of more than two seconds a day.
