

WEATHER

By DON GILLIAM
October 18-24

	HI	Low	Prec.
Wednesday	78	38	—
Thursday	63	34	—
Friday	63	31	—
Saturday	70	37	—
Sunday	71	37	.03
Monday	57	42	.04
Tuesday	53	34	—

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

HEPPNER

Heppner, Oregon 97836, Thursday, October 26, 1967

10 Cents

Weekend to Feature Dress-up, Kids' Parade

Oh, but there will be strange things going on in Heppner this weekend!

Some say that everyone in town will be daffy in varying degrees, because it is Crazy Days again. But others insist that shoppers who take advantage of the excellent bargains offered will be as sane as Solomon.

In any event, there is a lot of fun in store for everyone. Merchants are to dress up in weird and crazy costumes Friday, and the funniest-dressed woman and the funniest-dressed man will each receive a $5 prize from the Chamber of Commerce.

Customers are invited to do the laughing at the foolish-looking merchants.

On Saturday, it will be the kids' turn. They will parade in crazy costumes beginning at 10 a.m., and the Halloween motif will be emphasized. The funniest boy and the funniest girl will get a $5 prize, according to Bill Hust, merchants chairman.

In addition, each youngster participating in the parade will receive a treat at the end. All youngsters through the fifth grade in school may take part. The parade will assemble at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at Baltimore and Main streets.

Heppner's school band, under the direction of Arnie Hedman, will be out to add to the Crazy Days fanfare Saturday morning, and a fire truck will also be in the parade.

Other festivities will tie in with the big week-end. This is Homecoming for Heppner High school, and the school parade is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. in downtown Heppner. The Madras High-Heppner game, last home contest of the season, will start at 8 p.m. at the rodeo grounds.

And more merchants are participating in these promotional events, being spurred by excellent customer response and enjoyment by the public.

This section of the Gazette-Times is filled with outstanding values and all shoppers are invited to read the ads and to seek merchandise specially offered as bargains for this event.

Adding to the convenience for customers will be the free parking that is provided at each of the special merchants promotions. All persons in neighboring areas are invited to come and join the fun for Crazy Days!

Larry Lindsay Chosen Livestockman of Year

BEING LIVESTOCKMAN of the Year is generally more than a one-person affair, since the family shares in contributing to the honor. This is the case with Larry Lindsay, who was announced as Morrow County's 1967 Livestockman at the Farm-City banquet Wednesday night. His mother, Mrs. Alex Lindsay (left), owns Lindsay Ranches with him, and his wife, Corinne (center), is a partner with him on their Juniper Ranch. Daughters are Mary Catherine, 2, and Ann Marie, 3. (G-T Photo).

A young man, working towards his law degree at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., changed his plans abruptly in 1960 when his father, Alex Lindsay of Lexington, died unexpectedly.

The son dedicated himself to the ranch operation, taking his father's place, and now—seven years later—Larry Lindsay, still a young man, has been selected by a committee of ranchers as Morrow county's 1967 Livestockman of the Year. He thus follows in the footsteps of his father, who attained the honor in Morrow county in 1938.

Announcement of the award was made at the annual Farm-City banquet in the cafeteria of Heppner High school Wednesday night. Ned Clark, who was 1966 Livestockman of the Year, made the presentation.

Nels Anderson, former Morrow county agent and now county agent in Linn county, was principal speaker at the banquet, showing slides on his two years' work in Africa. Herman Winter, president of the Heppner-Morrow county Chamber of Commerce, was toastmaster of the affair, which is sponsored jointly by the Morrow County Livestock Growers, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Heppner Soil and Water Conservation District.

Sharing the Livestockman honor with Lindsay are his mother, Mrs. Alex (Rosella) Lindsay, and his wife, Corinne. The son and mother own Lindsay Ranches, consisting of the Home place and the Sand ranch (east of North Morrow county), and the husband and wife own Juniper ranch, which is located about

(Continued on page 6)

ALLEN TOM

National Prexy Slated to Speak To Wheat Growers

Allen Tom of The Dalles, president of the National Association of Wheat Growers, will be featured speaker at the annual fall meeting of the Morrow county Wheat League Tuesday, October 31, at St. Patrick's parish hall, Heppner. The meeting will start at 9:30 a.m., Kenneth Turner, county chairman, states.

Important committee meetings will be held at the meeting and general discussion on topics of vital interest will be held, Turner said. Highlight of the day will be a noon luncheon with President Allen Tom speaking. All business persons and interested townspeople are invited to the luncheon, which will be served by Ladies of the Lexington Altar Society.

Tom, who also owns farms in Morrow county, was a U. S. representative to the GATT negotiations in Geneva late last spring. In his presentation, he will give producers an inside picture of the Kennedy Round. He will also discuss the status of a reserve bill now pending in Congress which would raise the wheat price 10c to 15c in this area.

Market bargaining laws and organizations to maintain wheat prices will be considered in the talk.

Turner states that the wheat farmers have several important decisions to make at the meeting.

Turner urged farmers to attend committee meetings at the fall session, and stressed the fact matters to be considered are of such importance to growers that a record attendance should be on hand.

BLM Land Auction Slated November 24

Auction of some 12,000 acres of Bureau of Land Management lands in north Morrow county will be Friday, November 24, starting at 1 p.m. in the Greenfield Grange Hall, Boardman, County Judge Paul Jones said Monday.

He said the BLM officials had notified him that the land will be sold under the Public Act of 1964. There will be 26 tracts offered, ranging in size from 120 acres to 654 acres. They are appraised at $50 per acre, and that is probably where the bidding will start, the judge said.

Truck Crash Claims Life Of Driver

John Paul Johnson, 39, Heppner, who was employed by Crisp Logging Co., was killed about 4:30 p.m. Friday afternoon when the truck he was driving went over a 25 ft. embankment on the Shaw Creek grade, some 20 miles southeast of Heppner.

Louie Eng, Jr., 22, of Ukiah, a caterpillar operator for Crisp Logging, was with Johnson. He survived the accident, almost miraculously, after being treated for injuries at Pioneer Memorial hospital, he was transferred to St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, where his condition Tuesday was reported as remaining serious but not critical.

He suffered a compound fracture of his upper leg, and a brain concussion. Eng also was reported to have developed a case of pneumonia.

Oris Crisp, owner of the logging company, said Tuesday that it still had not been determined definitely what caused the accident. He said that a broken air line was found on the wrecked truck, leading to speculation that it may have caused a brake failure if it had been done prior to the accident. Safety men are investigating, he said.

Crisp said that the truck plunged head-on into a tree some 30 inches in diameter after going over the bank. Logs broke through the cab guard and continued on through the top of the cab, coming to rest in front of the vehicle. The impact shoved the motor back under the cab.

Both men were pinned in the cab until help arrived to extricate them. Hunters came upon

(Continued on page 8)

Ione Downs Pirates, Wins Football Crown

DOING a football ballet in the Riverside-Ione game as they go for a pass are Frank Halvorsen (10) of Ione, Dave Schmieder (16) and Duane Lamb (20), both of Riverside. The Pirates successfully deflected a pass intended for Halvorsen. The ball is partially visible under Halvorsen's right elbow. (Bill Johnson Photo).

Ione High's football team rolled to an undefeated league season and a sub-district championship Friday afternoon when it defeated the Riverside High Pirates, 27-0, in a Homecoming game on Memorial field at Ione.

The contest was more of a battle than the score indicated. Coach Gordon Meyers called it a "tough defensive game" and said that Riverside "played good defensive ball."

Nevertheless, the Cardinals' victory gave them a clearcut title and prevented the Pirates from deadlocking for first place, which would have happened if Riverside had won.

With the sub-district championship safely claimed for the trophy case on Ione's 4-0 record, they have won the right to play Prairie City for the district 8-man B title. This game will be at Prairie City on Saturday, November 11, starting at 1:30.

Winner will continue into the state playoffs.

Ione scored one of its touchdowns on a pass interception and another on a long punt return. These opened up a defensive battle which found both teams otherwise unable to penetrate the other to get within scoring distance.

The first came in the second quarter when Frank Halvorsen took a pirate punt on his own 25 and ran it 75 yards to score. Good blocking by his teammates paved the way. Eddie Sherman ran the point.

This 7-point lead held until halftime, and for a time it appeared that this might end the day's scoring.

However, in the third quarter, Riverside was held for downs after electing to run a fourth down play on its own 32. Eight plays later Sherman ran it over from the 12, and the score was 13-0.

The interception came in the fourth quarter when Sherman picked off a Pirate pass on the Ione 40 and ran all the way to a touchdown. Bob Ball passed to Scott Wilson for the extra point and Ione had a 20-0 lead.

Sherman had intercepted a previous pass and churned the grass for 30 yards to hit paydirt, but it was called back on a penalty.

Final tally for the Cards came when the Pirates failed to make yardage again on a fourth down

(Continued on page 8)

Madras Gridders Due For Homecoming Here

By BOB DOBBS
Heppner hosts league leader Madras at Homecoming, the high spot of the '67 football season. The game will be played Friday, October 27, at 8 p.m. at the rodeo grounds.

The Mustangs will pit their strength against a White Buffalo squad which has held the lead in the Greater Oregon League (western division) since they defeated the Prospectors of Grant Union two weeks ago. The Mustangs, on the other hand, are in no position to win the championship after their loss to the Prospectors last week.

Even though the Horsemen can't win the crown this year, they can help take the championship from the hands of the Buffaloes. A victory over the Madras club would give Grant Union a chance to take the crown. The Prospectors will have to down the Eagles of Wadonka Friday night to insure the title if Madras loses to Heppner.

Last week's loss to Grant Union is still in the minds of the Mustangs, who would like to end their football season with another win. For many of the boys it will be their last football game for Heppner High. These senior boys will take the field for their last high school football game Friday night: Alfred Drake, Dave Hall, Bill McLeod, Randy Stillman, Jim Sherman, Terry Corbin, John Rawlins, Steve Pettyjohn, Cary Davis, and Bob Dobbs.

Most of the boys played for Heppner their entire high school career. For some this is the end of their high school athletics. These boys will be missed in next year's team. They have been the nucleus of a good team as seniors. Next year's players will fill in admirably and provide Heppner with another good team, however.

The upcoming game will be

SENIOR GRIDDERS PICTURES PRINTED
Ten Heppner High school seniors will complete their football playing days in prep ranks Friday night in the Madras-Heppner game. In tribute to them, their pictures are printed on page 2, section 2, adjacent to the sponsored football page.

John Rawlins, Heppner High photographer, assisted the Gazette-Times by taking and processing some of the pictures.

the toughest encounter yet for the Mustangs. Madras is a hard-charging and aggressive team. They have had no trouble in scoring against their foes. They will be ready for a hard-fought game here. Heppner is never a push-over, no matter who they are playing.

The Mustangs sustained a few injuries last game and the week before, but they all should be ready for action by Friday. Randy Stillman will be back and wanting some playing time. Bill McLeod and Bob Dobbs will be ready to go. Terry Corbin will be on the field if at all possible.

The Mustangs had a light workout Monday and two heavy ones on Tuesday and Thursday, to prepare themselves for the tilt. They respect the strength and speed of the White Buffaloes, who in turn respect the team from the small A-2 high school.

Heppner is blessed with the fastest backfield in the conference. This week for the first time since the Burns game it will be in action 100%. Kindle, Stillman, Halls (Big and Little), McCabe and Marquardt make up the backfield possibilities. "Speed Incorporated" would be a good nickname for the HHS backs of this year.

LARRY LINDSAY of Lexington, Morrow county's Livestockman of the Year, stands in irrigated pasture at the Lindsays' Juniper ranch while grazing cattle dot the landscape behind him. Sprinklers irrigating the pasture may be seen in operation. (G-T Photo).

CONTENTEDLY roaming pasture at the Lindsays' Juniper ranch are these cattle, typical of the Lindsay herds. Main bloodlines are Hereford but there is also a sprinkling of Shorthorns. Angus bulls are used on heifers. (G-T Photo).

Boy Survives Wet Night in Woods

After being lost in the woods in the Madison Butte area overnight Sunday, Duane Steers, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer (Bunny) Steers was found about 8:30 a.m. Monday, sitting by one of several fires that members of a search party had kindled.

He endured a cold, wet night by making a crude shelter of branches over small logs that he found lying close together. Although tired out, he was none the worse for his experience and after spending the day resting

Monday returned to Heppner Elementary school where he is in the eighth grade. Duane became separated from a deer hunting party in mid-morning Sunday. With him were his father and mother, Doyle Key, and Delmer Buschke. They spent the day looking for him and enlisted aid of other relatives and friends. Eight remained out Sunday night, patrolling roads and continuing the search, setting up headquarters at Tupper Guard station.

(Continued on page 8)