

CowBelles Review Activities of Year At Luncheon Meeting

Morrow County CowBelles held a no-host luncheon October 20 in the banquet room of the Wagon Wheel cafe.

The year's activities were summarized, and they include serving lunch to 8th grade tour members; giving beef certificate gifts for the first baby born closest to Father's Day; honoring the Father of the Year with a "do-it-yourself" barbecue; decorating a booth for the Morrow county fair, giving gift certificates and cooling kits to high school Home Economics classes in the county, and sponsoring a trip to Bend for Mrs. Waller Wright, president, and her officers.

While in Bend, the group collected material for 50 tote bags to be made up by the local club and used, along with 400 place mats, at the state convention. These place mats represent Morrow county in that they have pictures on them many family-owned cattle brands within the county.

The state convention will be held jointly with Washington State Cattlemen and CowBelles groups. It is scheduled for November 1-4 at the Hilton Hotel in Portland.

The CowBelles are also making plans to serve luncheon again at the coming Kirk and Robinson bull sale.

Included in the business meeting was the appointment by Mrs. Wright of Mrs. Percy Cecil and Mrs. John Graves as a nominating committee. Next meeting will be Friday, November 17, and will again be a no-host luncheon. New officers will be installed at that time.

Anniversary Dinner Calls Local Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash were in Hood River over the week-end to attend the 25th wedding anniversary celebration of Nash's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson. A potluck dinner was served to those attending in the Alpine Hall, and an open house was held between the hours of 2-4 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Springer also attended the anniversary celebration, Mrs. Peterson being a sister of Springer. Others attending from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and girls of Ione, and Mrs. Dean Connor and two children of Heppner.

While in Hood River Mr. and Mrs. Nash visited other relatives including a brother, Marius Nash, and with Mrs. Nash's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nogowski.

Schroeder-Ostrander Wedding Solemnized

KINZUA—The Kinzua Community church was the setting Saturday evening, September 9, for the 6 o'clock wedding of Miss Becky Ann Schroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Schroeder of Omak, Wash., to David Lawrence Ostrander, son of Mrs. Edwin Ostrander of Fossil. The double ring service, read by Rev. Edwin Derrick assisted by Rev. Robert Dove, was performed at the altar lighted only by tall, green tapers in candleabra and flanked with tall baskets of yellow, green, and white chrysanthemums.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore an Empire style gown of white satin with fitted sleeves of lace ending in points at the wrist. The attached chapel train was also of the white lace. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held in place by a starched lace flower whose petals were outlined in seed pearls and crystals. She carried a shower arrangement of yellow roses, white baby orchids and stephanotis. As she and her father approached the altar, she stopped at the first pew to give her mother a rose from her bouquet.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Danniel Bell of Kinzua with Miss Sally Schroeder of Omak as her sisters maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenneth Miller and Miss Allison McRae of Portland, and Mrs. Rick Shaffer of Pendleton. Miss Connie Schroeder of Omak was junior bridesmaid. Flower girl was Sherri McMinn of Kinzua.

All the attendants wore identical floor length gowns of olive green satin with matching shoes and white gloves. Their head veils were of green net held with a green rose. They carried flower balls of yellow roses and green net.

Lighting the candles before the ceremony were Miss Vicki Wham of Kinzua, cousin of the bride, and Miss Barbara Ostrander of Anderson, Calif., niece of the groom. Both wore yellow street length dresses.

Ring bearers were Troy and Tracy Slinkard of Renton, Wash., twin nephews of the groom.

Serving as best man for his brother was Don Ostrander of Anderson, Calif. Ushers were Kenneth Wham of Kinzua, Pat Wright of Dufur, Rick Shaffer of Pendleton, and Mickey Wright of Fossil.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Kelso who also accompanied Miss Peggy Plank of Fossil who sang "The Sweetheart Tree", "More", and "The Wedding Prayer".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schroeder wore a beige knit suit with beige and brown accessories and a corsage of green chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ostrander, the groom's mother, chose to wear a two piece green suit with beige accessories and her corsage was of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. A. R. Schroeder, grandmother of the bride, wore blue with white chrysanthemums.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex where the center of attraction was a beautiful three-tiered cake, frosted in the bride's colors. It was topped with a bride and groom. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Robert Misener of Fossil.

After the young couple had cut and shared the first slices of cake, it was cut and served by Mrs. Edward Wham, aunt of the bride. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Alan Guinn of Omak, Wash., with the punch being served by Mrs. Tom Slinkard of Renton, Wash., sister of the groom.

Attending the gift table were Miss Nancy Bushnell of Prineville and Miss Alana Guinn of Omak. Mrs. Bill McMinn had charge of the guest book.

The reception was in charge of Mrs. Allen Nistad, Mrs. Wayland Hyatt and Mrs. Homer Bowman.

Leaving for a wedding trip to the Oregon and Washington beaches and to Omak, the bride wore an emerald green knit dress with white accessories and the corsage center of her bridal bouquet.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ostrander are graduates of Wheeler High school in Fossil and both attended Central Oregon College in Bend. Mr. Ostrander is now

Farras Attend Son's Wedding in East

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Farrar returned recently from a trip to Washington, D. C. where they went to attend the September 30 wedding of their son James A. Farrar to Sandra Jabas of Hyattsville, Md.

While in Washington, the Farrars saw many interesting sights, and were fortunate to be able to attend church in Washington Cathedral, where all denominations may gather together and take communion. Mr. and Mrs. Farrar spent one day viewing the Smithsonian Institute, and Mrs. Farrar comments that they didn't see nearly half of it. She also said that it made them realize that the best things in life are free, as all the exhibits in the Institute are free for everyone to see.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrar visited a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Alphin at Hagerstown, Md., and toured Gettysburg, Pa., and many historical places of the Civil War. The Farrars returned from their Eastern trip by jet to Portland from where they continued home.

Karen is Princess For OSU Homecoming

This week is full of OSU Homecoming activities for Karen McCurdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy. She was chosen as one of four princesses on this year's Oregon State University Homecoming court by vote of students following the selective pageant last Friday.

Miss Sheryl Rosvall, Tigard, was selected queen. The 20-year-old junior speech major will reign over Homecoming activities on campus, and the court will be honored at half-time of the Saturday afternoon football game between OSU and Washington State University. Their schedule through this week will include many personal appearances, including appearances in Portland on Wednesday and Thursday.
