New Novel Review By Bookworm Club

Members of the Heppner Bookworms club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Bill Weatherford on Tuesday, October 24.

About ten members were present to hear Mrs. Harold Erwin as she reviewed the book, "All the Little Things," by Wallace Stegner. The book is a fictional novel showing contrasts between three types of personalities—modern hippie types, people who enjoy life to the fullest, and another type that strikes a happy medium between the two.

A short business meeting was held and the treasurer's report was read.

A letter was read to the group from Mrs. Leta Thomas, a former member of the group, who is now in Arizona.

Mrs. Cox is Guest Of Heppner Friends

Mrs. Oma Cox, a former Heppner resident who is now making her home in Lancaster, Calif., spent a week here visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant, and then traveled to Walla Walla where she spent three weeks visiting at the home of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett.

Upon returning to Heppner, Mrs. Cox spent an additional week with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam, after which she accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Cecil (Norma) Mullins, to The Dalles, where she will remain for an additional week. Mrs. Cox will then return to her home in California.

McQuarrie Home Scene of Luncheon

Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie entertained members of her sewing club with a luncheon at her home on Wednesday, October 25.

Members present to enjoy the luncheon were Mrs. Jim Noreno, Mrs. Ray Ferguson, Mrs. Carl Spaulding, Mrs. Claude Graham, Mrs. Lowell Gribble, Mrs. E. K. Schaffitz, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Mrs. Phil Mahoney, and the hostess, Mrs. McQuarrie.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent visiting and sewing.

Jaycettes to Assist With Contest Plans

Heppner Jaycettes met at the home of Mrs. Jerry Hollomon on Thursday evening, October 26.

Mrs. Bob Hager was greeted as a new member, making about 11 members present to discuss plans for assisting the men's group with the Fiddlers' Contest to be held in Heppner November 24-25.

Posters will be made with Mrs. Lyle Jensen as chairman.

Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were provided by the hostess.

Next meeting of the group will be November 16 at the home of Mrs. Pat Wonsler.

Delegates to Report At Legion Meeting

A joint meeting of the American Legion Post No. 87, and Legion Auxiliary will be held Monday evening, November 6, at 7 p.m. in the Legion hall. The evening will start with a potluck dinner featuring turkey, which will be furnished, and members are asked to bring other dishes.

District officers will be present for the evening, and Girls' State and Boys' State representatives will also be present to give reports on their activities at summer conventions. It is announced by Jerry Rood, commander of the Heppner post.

Schoolmates Greet Newlywed Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Dick were hostesses at their home Tuesday evening, October 10, for a small gathering of former school mates to honor newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. James Farra.

Those present to extend their good wishes to the couple were Mr. and Mrs. James Cason, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Britner, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick.

Refreshments were served and the honorees were presented a wedding gift from their friends.

Cranors Announce Birth of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cranor of Portland are announcing the birth of a baby girl, Dawn Carlida, born October 17 and weighing 6 lb., 5 oz.

Mrs. Cranor will be remembered here as the former Sharon Ayers.

Maternal grandparents of the little girl are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pettyjohn, Bertha Ayers and Clayton Ayers of Heppner.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cranor and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grogan.

Berniece Matthews OCE Jayvee Queen

Berniece Matthews of Ione has been elected Junior Varsity rally queen at Oregon College of Education. In this role, she will serve the student body by leading in the support of the OCE Wolves JV athletic teams during the 1967-68 school year.

Miss Matthews, a 1967 graduate of Ione High school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews of Ione. She is majoring in elementary education at OCE.

Relatives Attend Cantwell Service

Several relatives came from out-of-town last week to attend the memorial services of Frances Elizabeth Cantwell on Tuesday, October 24.

Unable to make the trip here was a son, Lee C. Cantwell, of Campo, Calif., due to ill health. All five grandchildren attended, including Jack C. Holt and his wife from Oregon City; Mrs. Marjorie Thompson, Pendleton; David Cantwell and his wife, Vancouver, Wash.; Robert Cantwell and his wife, Monument, and Carl Bauman, University of Oregon, Eugene.

Madras Captures League Pennant With Victory Here

By GARY KEMP
and DEAN KINDLE

Heppner High's Mustangs dropped the final football game of the season to this year's Western division champs, Madras, in the rain last Friday night. The score was 34-13.

The Mustangs were in a real duel until late in the fourth quarter when two key interceptions led the game for the White Buffaloes.

Due to the rain during the game there were a lot of fumbles and interceptions for both sides, causing numerous ball exchanges in the game.

Heppner played well throughout the game, but Madras just seemed to make the right plays when they were needed most.

Madras took the opening kickoff and marched downfield for the first score of the evening, with the PAT good.

After several ball exchanges, Heppner intercepted a Madras aerial and later scored their first tally of the game with Steve Pettyjohn catching the pass. The game was tied when the PAT was kicked by Don Cossett.

On the kickoff after the Mustangs' tally, Madras ran the ball back for another touchdown, with the PAT successful.

When Madras kicked off, Heppner had a mixup, and Madras recovered but could not take advantage of its luck as Heppner intercepted just before the half.

At halftime the score stood Madras 14, Heppner 7.

The Mustangs fumbled the kickoff at the opening of the second half and Madras recovered. Heppner soon got the ball back and drove for its final score of the evening with Dave Hall running the ball in. The PAT was no good.

Several ball exchanges later, Madras had two consecutive touchdowns called back because of penalties. But again they picked off a Heppner aerial and returned it for a score with the PAT again successful. Seconds later Madras grabbed another pass and returned it for their fourth touchdown and the PAT was good.

A ball exchange later, Madras marched for their final score of the game. The PAT being no good made the final score 34-13.

KATHY MATTHEWS
Heppner Homecoming Queen

Kathy Matthews Reigns as Queen

Kathy Matthews was crowned as the 1967 Homecoming queen at the halftime of the Heppner-Madras game here Friday, October 27, to climax a busy week at HHS. Contests throughout the week brought about a show of class power as each class competed for honors.

The seniors took top honors for "Spirit Week" by bringing the most wood for the bonfire. Also they received highest points for their hallway signs, pep rally spirit, plus putting out the best float in the opinion of the judges.

The large freshman class won the tug-of-war and noise parade award for the week. The juniors took a close second in the tug-of-war, bonfire and their float.

Friday night was the grand finale as the Madras team plus two bus loads of spectators came to Heppner for the big game. Homecoming activities filled the halftime. The HHS drill team performed its first drill of the season. With umbrellas to keep the rain off, the Homecoming court was presented to the Heppner fans. Kathy was named as queen and received the traditional bouquet of roses and the crown. Her court of princesses was Sheila Luciani and Nancy Doherty seniors, and Ginny Clough and Jill Chitty, juniors.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ball is their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ellis Ball, and children who are here from Utah. Mrs. Ball will remain here while her husband completes military service in Vietnam.

Coming from Corvallis for a week-end of elk hunting was Clair Cox, who joined his father, Claude Cox, and his brother, Bill Cox, for a hunt near their mountain cabin. Bill was the successful hunter, bagging a 235-lb. elk.

Attends Conclave

Principal Dick Carpenter of Heppner High school attended a follow-up conference on the Small Schools program in Portland Saturday. This continues work of the summer conference. Administrators attending made tentative plans for a regional spring meeting. Carpenter's family accompanied him and visited with friends in Portland. They returned Sunday.

National Week Urges Visits In Area Schools

Morrow county schools will join with others over the nation in observing the 47th annual American Education Week, November 5-11, according to Miss Terry Lincecum, public relations chairman for Morrow county chapter of OEA.

Special emphasis will be placed on it in the schools, through invitations to parents to visit schools, through posters and classroom programs.

Theme for the week is "How Good Are Your Schools?"—(1) At shaping the character of our youth? (2) At Providing Learning Opportunities for All? (3) At Meeting the Challenge of Change? (4) At Providing Quality Teaching? (5) At Stimulating Lifelong Learning? (6) At Developing Vocational Competence? and (7) At Enriching Human Life?

During American Education Week, all citizens are urged to examine more closely the existing and projected programs of our schools, as well as their own individual efforts to ensure the highest quality education for all.

Parents are also urged to attend the Elementary PTA meetings Wednesday evening, November 8, as well as visit in the classrooms during the week.

Serving with Miss Lincecum to promote public relations between home and schools over the county are the following OEA members: Cecilia Delmore, Heppner; Jack Trujillo, Ione; Ruth Coy, Riverside, and Justice Weatherford, Heppner.

FFA Judging Team 2nd at Hermiston

By taking second place in the Blue Mountain District soil judging contest at Hermiston October 25, the Heppner FFA Chapter qualified to enter the state contest in Lakeview. Decision to send the team to Lakeview has not yet been made.

The local team includes Dave and John Hall, Alfred Drake, Earl Struckmeier, and John Harris. They placed second to Sherman county High's team.

Calendar ads for their second annual FFA calendar, one of the boys' money-making projects, are being sold. The early sale of the ads will mean that the calendars will be available by the first of the year.

State Committee Includes Ed Dick

L. E. (Ed) Dick of Heppner has been appointed to serve on an advisory committee which will help recommend patterns for intermediate education districts in Oregon. Others from this area are Gustav Peterson of Monument and Harrison Weatherford of Condon.

Lay persons with an active interest were selected by the Intermediate Education District Commission to offer their advice in restructuring Oregon's 30 IED's and six school districts which generally follow county lines.

Purpose of the advisory committee is to keep the IED Commission informed of local problems and possibilities, according to Mrs. Joyce Benjamin, Cheshire, who is chairman of the Commission.

The Commission is required by law to present a plan for a

"new look" in intermediate education districts by December, 1968. The area committees will be asked to provide their ideas and concerns during the next few months.

Six orientation meetings for the lay advisors have been scheduled November 9-10. Appearing at the meetings will be representative Commission members as well as nationally-noted authorities on intermediate school service centers. Local school superintendents and school board chairmen have also been invited to attend.

The November 9-10 meetings will be held in Hillsboro, Salem, Cottage Grove, The Dalles, Baker and Bend.

College Team Schedules Visits To High Schools

Visitation team comprised of representatives of the State System of Higher Education institutions will visit Heppner, Ione and Riverside High schools next week, it is announced.

A team will be at Heppner High on Thursday, November 9, at 10:30, at Ione High on the same day at 12:45 p.m., and at Riverside High on Friday, November 10, at 9:30 a.m.

Unique throughout the United States is the Oregon State System of Higher Education "visitation team" which visits every high school in the state impressing upon secondary students the need for some type of post high school education or training.

The visitation supplements the guidance program of the three high schools. Students will be given first hand information about course offerings, admission requirements, costs to attend, financial aids and scholarships and other information pertinent to planning for the college experience.

Parents are invited to attend the visitation and are urged to discuss post high school plans with their sons and daughters before and after the conference.

Representing the state institutions are Jack McFall, counselor, Office of High School Relations; Larry Stevens, team captain, director of financial aids, Oregon Technical Institute; and Howard Anderson, dean of men, Eastern Oregon College.
