

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients who were admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital during the past week, and are still receiving medical care, are the following: Dorothy Bostwick, Spray; Bess Huddleston, Heppner; Arthur Smith, Heppner; Hannah Anderson, Heppner, and Maude Boyd, Heppner. Those dismissed after receiving medical care, were Bill Chance, Kimberly, and Lee Stone, Heppner.

THESE TITLÉ chilluns also had a good time at Crazy Days. The girl with the lollipop is Mrs. Leon Ball, who won Bank of Eastern Oregon's prize for being the youngest mother-in-law. At left is one-legged Dan McQuarrie and at right is fuzzy-headed Ginger Majeske. All are part of the Central Market crew. (G-T Photo).

"THREE PRETTY LITTLE MAIDS ARE WE" might be what this trio could be singing. Decked in old-fashioned dresses and sun bonnets for Crazy Days are (from left) Mrs. Wilbur Van Bokland, Mrs. Bert Corbin, and Mrs. Snoda Blake, all of Van's Variety Store. (G-T Photo).

Siewert Presides At Bankers Meet; Pierce Elected

William F. Siewert of the Bank of Eastern Oregon, Heppner, was presiding officer of the meeting of the Mid-Columbia Group of the Oregon Bankers Association at The Dalles Country club on October 27. He has served as president of the Mid-Columbia group during the past year. Forty-six members attended.

On the ensuing day, October 28, Gene Pierce, president of the Bank of Eastern Oregon, was elected vice president of the Northeast Oregon Group of the Oregon Bankers Association at its meeting in La Grande. Pierce is also president of the Oregon Independent Bankers association.

Main speaker at both meetings was Murray McBride of Lund. McCutcheon, McBride, Inc., Portland, who spoke on "Your Oregon Banks." Donald H. Finley of Milwaukie, president of the Oregon Bankers Association, also spoke at both meetings. Lester E. Thayer, executive manager of the state association, was another speaker at the Mid-Columbia meeting, while George Mimnaugh, state director of the U. S. Savings Bond program, spoke at the Northeast meeting and presented Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds, Mrs. Dorie Demuth of Magnolia, Texas.

Officers of the Mid-Columbia group elected for the coming year are: C. W. Beckett, The Dalles, president; W. D. Walker, Moro, vice president; and Ken Shideler, The Dalles, secretary-treasurer.

Besides Pierce, officers elected for the Northeast group are R. L. Tomlinson, Milton-Freewater, president; and S. R. Ralston, Hermiston, secretary-treasurer.

Attending the meeting in The Dalles with Siewert were Jim Green, manager of the Arlington office, Bank of Eastern Oregon, and V. R. Robinson, assistant cashier there.

Film is Scheduled For PTA Program On Teenage Problem

Heppner Elementary PTA will hold its next meeting on Wednesday, November 8, at 8 p.m. in the multipurpose room at the grade school, announces Mrs. Wallace Wolff, president. "Too Tough To Care," a teenage smoking film, will be presented as part of the program, according to Mrs. Herman Winter, program chairman. Parents and teachers will be invited to take part in discussion of teenage smoking and its effects after the program.

Members of the membership committee, under the direction of Mrs. Lynn Pearson, have conducted a membership drive that ended November 1. They have been contacting parents to discuss questions and problems of PTA and to solicit membership.

Achievement Awards Given 4-H Members

We held the North Morrow county 4-H Achievement Night on October 26 at the Boardman Grange hall. American flag salute was led by Mike Proctor and the 4-H flag salute was led by Steve Acocok. Mrs. Partlow of Boardman led us in a few songs and Mrs. Phillips called the meeting to order. Gail McCarty and Mrs. Wilcoxon gave pins and cards to the leaders who presented them and other special awards to members. There were three special awards. They went to Vickie Hobbs, Betty Ritzer and Loren Wilson.

We closed the meeting with singing more songs and enjoying refreshments of doughnuts, apple cider and Kool-aid. Karen Richards, reporter

Knitting Club Meets

Busy Needles 4-H club elected officers at our first meeting, held on October 23, at Mrs. Herb Ekstrom's home. We elected D-Ann Barnett, president; Kathy Crum, vice-president; Christina Lindstrom, secretary; Jan Ekstrom, news reporter, and Kathleen McElligott, game leader. We knitted on our projects.
