The garden club members demonstrated ways of making and uses of dried weed arrangements. Landscape, abstract, and conventional arrangements were explained.

Other guests for the evening were Mrs. Norman Supple, Mrs. Jessie Faye Morris, and Mrs. Al Besshoe.

Refreshments were served to members and guests by the hostess, Mrs. Methvin, who was assisted by Mrs. Melvin Dixon.

Next meeting of the club will be Monday, December 4, at the home of Mrs. Lynn Pearson, when members will enjoy a foreign food potluck dinner.

BENEFIT DANCE FOR Sam and Debbie McDaniel HARDMAN COMMUNITY CENTER Saturday, Dec. 2 Starting At 9 P.M.

Club is Informed Of Proposed 4-H Site For Statewide Center

Colored slides of a 750-acre area which is being proposed for a state 4-H educational center was presented on the program of the Soroptimist club at its luncheon meeting last Thursday noon by Mrs. Marjorie Wilcoxon, county extension and 4-H agent.

Taking in an area of three small farms, the proposed site is located nine miles northwest of Salem, valued at $275,000. When developed, it would provide facilities for state 4-H conferences and conventions for up to 1,000 persons. The landscape is covered with a wide variety of trees and a number of ponds.

During the business period, discussion was held on money-making projects. The date of December 16 was set for a holiday food sale, to be held at Central Market. The annual Turkey Hop, teenage dance, has been cancelled due to unavailability of a band.

Soroptimist members have been asked to write letters of personal introductions which will be sent to the new sister club in Folkstone, Kent, England. The new club will replace a former corresponding club of Soroptimists in Tamworth, England.

A letter of greeting was sent to the recently formed new club in East Portland. Messages of sympathy have been sent to Mrs. Alice Harris, Enterprise, district secretary, whose husband was killed recently in a helicopter accident, and to the Hermiston Golden Age club following the death of Mrs. Olyn Hodge, organizer of the club, who also aided in starting the Heppner Golden Age club.

In recognition of United Nations Day, a special program was presented by Mrs. Charles Starke at the October 19 meeting. Attention was also called to the importance of Soroptimist work with UNICEF, helping provide food and care for children in underdeveloped countries of the world.

Reports were also heard last month from three members who attended the 14th annual District 2 meeting in Redmond. Those going from the local club were Mrs. Bill Johnson, president; Mrs. Elaine George, vice-president, and Mrs. Wes Sherman, regional representative.

Lodge to Entertain At Family Dinner

Members and invited friends will meet Saturday, November 18, in the Christian church basement for the dinner, with turkey, rolls and coffee furnished by the lodge. Members are asked to bring a hot dish, salad, dessert or relishes.

Mrs. Alice McCabe was hostess for an executive meeting on November 7 and the Carnation club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Ed Gonty on November 10.

Card Group Meets At Currin Home

An evening of pinochle was enjoyed Friday, November 3, at the home of Mrs. Ron Currin, with Mrs. Dick Robison as co-hostess.

Two tables of cards were in play, with high prize going to Mrs. Verrn Evans of Hermiston. Mrs. Bill Healy held second high and pinochle, and Mrs. Robison held low for the evening.

Guest speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Truman Robbins of Tillamook, who was a former pastor of the Milton-Freewater church.

Special entertainment will be provided by a girls' trio, The Gospel Lights, who are students at Northwest Christian college in Eugene. The girls are Vicki Musgrave and Susan Geibel, both of Salem, and Janell Albaugh of Portland. They are accompanied by pianist Judy Svendsen of Newberg.

Chairman of the annual turkey dinner will be Mrs. George Griffith, and Rainbow Girls will assist with serving.

Unit Sponsors Study Of Use of Home Tools

The extension topic of the month, "Mrs. Fixit," was used for study at the meeting of Rhea Creek Extension Unit, held November 1 at the Rhea Creek Grange hall.

During the meeting members practiced hammering nails properly and putting screws into blocks of wood. Mrs. Ruth McCabe demonstrated the replacing of washers in leaky faucets, advised on kinds of tools used to help unclog drains, and discussed different types of wrenches, screws and screwdrivers which housewives might use in simple repair work around the home.

Following sack lunches at noon, Mrs. Dorris Graves conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Beverly Wright was appointed to present Lynda Cooper with a cookbook at the 4-H Achievement Party from the unit.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, December 6, at the grange hall. Program leaders, Mrs. Muriel Palmer and Mrs. Mildred Wright, will present the program, based on a study of Mexico.
