

Willows Grange Elects Officers; To Host Pomona December 9

By DIANA KINCAID

IONE—On Saturday evening following a pancake supper served by the men of Willows Grange, Lewis Halvorsen was elected as Master for the coming year.

Other officers are Carl Troedson, overseer; Mrs. Art Dalzell, lecturer; Bryce Keene, steward; Lee Palmer, assistant steward; Mrs. Wate Crawford, chaplain; Mrs. Jim Lindsay, treasurer; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, secretary; Richard Kinzer, gatekeeper; Mrs. Berl Akers, Ceres; Mrs. Richard Kinzer, Pomona; Mrs. Bryce Keene, Flora; Mrs. Lee Palmer, lady assistant steward; and Marion Palmer, Berl Akers, and Cleo Childers on the executive committee.

HEC ladies of Willows Grange also elected officers on Friday at the home of Mrs. Perry Morter. Mrs. Hershaw Townsend is the new chairman with Mrs. Jim Johnson as vice-chairman. Secretary for the new year will be Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and Mrs. Berl Akers will be treasurer.

Grange members are reminded that Bob Coble of La Grande will be here for the installation of all Morrow county subordinate Grange officers and Pomona officers on Saturday, December 9, beginning at 10:00 a.m. The Christmas party is planned for the evening of December 16 this year.

The regular meeting of the Rebeccas was held at the home of Mrs. Edith Mathews last Thursday afternoon with the following ladies being elected: Mrs. Lucille Rietmann, noble grand; Mrs. Mabel Ring, vice grand; Mrs. Edith Mathews, secretary; and Mrs. Gladys Drake, treasurer. Those with birthdays since June were feted and games were played.

Relatives Attend Wedding
Driving to Eugene to attend the marriage of Miss Evelyn M. Jepsen to Michael E. Elder were Mrs. Mary Holtz and girls; Mr. and Mrs. John Jepsen and Jim; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jepsen and family. Kathy Holtz and Susan Jane Jepsen were candlelighters at the service which was held on Saturday evening at 7:00 in the West Side Church of Christ. Rev. Charles Knox, Dallas, former pastor of the Heppner Christian church, officiated at the ceremony. The new Mrs. Elder is librarian at Northwest Christian College and the groom is employed in the molecular laboratory at the University of Oregon. The couple is making their home at 3570 West Amazon Drive in Eugene.

Miss Kaye Roundy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roundy, and Cpl. Larry Longbrake were united in marriage on Saturday evening at the First Christian Church in Kennewick, Wash. Local relatives who attended the service were Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Huston Bryson. The couple will make their first home in San Antonio, Texas, until his discharge from the army in April.

Morgans Celebrate Anniversary

Hosts for a surprise anniversary party on Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Peck. The event, which marked 30 years of marriage for the Morgans, was attended by Mrs. John Vorhees, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Tad Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford, Rollo Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettjohn, Mrs. James Barnett, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe. A money tree made by Mrs. Jim Barnett was presented to the couple by their friends. Mrs. Vorhees and the Harlan Crawfords stayed at the parental Wate Crawford home on Saturday evening.

Week-end visitors at the home of the Berl Akers were their sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Akers, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Akers, and Jeff. Little Jeff remained here with his grandparents until Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Horton of Dallas visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Martin this week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Martin's aunt, Mrs. L. H. Bechler of Akron, Ohio.

Last Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree entertained at a dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Markham Baker who left on Saturday for Mesa, Ariz., to spend the winter. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorsen.

Paul Long took his wife and daughters back to their home in Fairfax, Calif., on Friday. He will remain here until work is completed on the pipe line.

Many Come for Anniversary

Among the out of town guests here for the Golden Wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker were her brothers and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. George Clisby of Oceanside, Calif., and Dr. and Mrs. Keith Clisby of Portland. Other guests were Baker's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Baker and Mrs. Millie Koester of Portland; Byron Baker and Mrs. Maxine Curtiss of Pasco; Mrs. Del Lawrence of Spokane; Charles Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dirks, and Mrs. Franklin Cline, all of Walla Walla; and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garby of Touchet. Following the reception on Saturday afternoon the Bakers held a family reunion.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen invited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Helmbigner, Mr. and Mrs. Markham Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Hershaw Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, to have dinner at their home.

The Bingo Club met at the home of Mrs. Blaine Chapel on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Edith Mathews and Mrs. Margaret Weaver assisting hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mathews drove to Monmouth on Friday to attend "Dad's Day." The highlight of the trip was the game between Linfield and Oregon College of Education. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ely of Salem on Saturday.
