Bryant Home Scene Of Carnation Club Christmas Social

Carnation Club of the Degree of Honor Protective Association was entertained at the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant on Friday evening for its annual Christmas party.

Adding to the enjoyment of the evening was the revealing and exchange of gifts among the secret pals and members. Gay Christmas decorations carried out the holiday atmosphere.

Mrs. Lincoln Nash presided as president for the last meeting of the year. She will be succeeded by Mrs. Bryant for the coming year. Regular meeting date of the club is to be changed to the third Wednesday of each month.

Assisting as co-hostesses were Mrs. Jim Cason, Mrs. Pete McMurry and Mrs. Nash.

A variety of cookies were served with a Jell-O dessert and coffee as refreshments to the following: Mrs. Earl Soward, Mrs. Ed Gonty, Mrs. Clara Gertson, Mrs. Archie Padberg, Mrs. Ruth Bergstrom, Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. Bill Farra, Mrs. Adolph Mageske, Mrs. Bill Cunningham, Mrs. Lucille Parrish, Mrs. Ron Haguewood, Mrs. Dean Connor and Deann, Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. Ed LaTrace, Mrs. McMurry, Miss Doris Robison, Mrs. Cason and Jimmy and Mrs. Bryant.

La Grande Jaycees Host District 13 Meeting Saturday

Several members of the Morrow County Jaycees and their wives attended the District 13 meeting in La Grande on Saturday evening, December 9.

About 150 members and guests were present to enjoy a potluck dinner which preceded the meeting of officers from the eight clubs which comprise District 13. Jaycees representing Umatilla, Pendleton, Hermiston, Pilot Rock, Milton-Freewater, La Grande, Heppner, and Willowa county were present at the meeting, in addition to a special guest, Milo Haas, an international director from Milwaukee. Other special guests from Hillsboro and Baker were also present.

Members going from Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott, Mr. and Mrs. John Frivet, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hager, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anderson, Al Osmine, and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine.

The Heppner group returned home with the traveling trophy, which is awarded to the club having the most man-miles traveled.

Members of the La Grande Jaycettes were hosts to visiting wives for an evening of cards and games.

Dinner, Program Of Unit Meeting Centered on Mexico

The regular meeting of the Rhea Creek Extension Unit was held at the Grange hall Thursday, December 7.

The topic chosen for the day's discussion was the study of Mexico.

Hostesses Mrs. Elmer Palmer and Mrs. Walter Wright prepared and served a dinner of tacos, fried beans, chicken spaghetti casserole and guacamole tomato salad. A Mexican dessert of Flan (custard pudding) was served with Mexican wedding cookies.

After dinner, slides of Mexico were shown and narrated by Mrs. Jack Sumner.

The meeting ended with the breaking of a Mexican pinata. Next regular meeting of the group will be January 3. The topic "Becoming Color", with Mrs. Barton Clark and Mrs. Lester Grasser as project leaders, will be the program for the day.

Altar Society Names Officers; Plans Made For Parish Dinner

Officers for the coming year were elected at the last meeting of St. Patrick's Altar Society, held December 5 at the parish hall. Re-elected to the office of president is Mrs. Harold Currutt. She will be assisted by Mrs. Bill Kenny, vice-president; Mrs. Wilbur Worden, secretary; and Mrs. Jerry Sweeney, treasurer.

During the business session, plans were made to help with the parish Christmas party, which will be held Sunday, December 17, following the 11:00 a.m. mass. Parish members and their families will join together for a potluck dinner, to be followed by a movie and a visit from Santa, with treats for the children.

During the social part of the meeting, altar society members held a gift exchange. Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Tim Moore and Mrs. Ron Leonnig.

Guy Hall, former Heppner resident who is now making his home in Laramie, Wyo., where he works as a train conductor, has been visiting his brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Phillips in Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. William Smethurst in Ukiah.

Jan Hager is Guest At Bridal Shower

Miss Jan Hager was feted at a bridal shower given in her honor Saturday afternoon, December 9, at the Methodist church. Hostesses for the afternoon shower were Mrs. Harold Erwin and Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland.

Special guests for the shower were Jan's mother, Mrs. Jim Hager, and Mrs. Vern Evans, mother of the groom-elect.

Assisting Jan with her many lovely gifts were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bob Hager, and Chris

Evans, sister of Kenneth Evans. The church rooms were decorated in green and white, the colors Miss Hager has chosen for her wedding. A lovely centerpiece featuring candles and a miniature bridal couple decorated the refreshment table where guests were served desserts, coffee, and punch.

Miss Hager's marriage to Kenneth Evans will be an event of Saturday, December 16, at 2 p.m. in St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner.

Invitation Extended To Saturday Wedding

The marriage of Miss Jannette Marie Hager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hager, to Kenneth Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Evans, will be solemnized at a 2:00 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, December 16, in St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner.

The couple takes this opportunity to cordially invite their friends and relatives in the surrounding area to attend the ceremony, and the reception which will follow in the parish hall.

Group Holds Shower Party for Methvins
