MR. AND MRS. HENRY BAKER of Ione cat the first piece of an-niversary cake at a reception honoring them on their 50th anniversary at Valby Lutheran church November 18.

Reception to Honor

John Wagenblasts

Sunday Reception To Honor Wrights

Bakers Are Honored On 50th Anniversary At Valby Reception

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast in Lexington will be the scene of a reception which will honor their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Wagenblast, on Sunday afternoon, December 17, between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker of Ione were honored on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception November 18, given by their children at Valby Lutheran church. They have resided in the Ione community for the past 42 years.

The Bakers were united in marriage at the bride's home in Gustavus, Ohio, on November 18, 1917. They came west in 1919 to Walla Walla, Wash. In 1925 they moved to Ione to their present farm home, where they have since resided.

All of their five children were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker of p.m.

The young college couple was married September 17, and are presently enrolled at Oregon State University. A special invitation is extended their classmates in the Heppner and Pendleton areas to attend, as well as other friends and relatives of the family.

present farm home, where they have since resided.

All of their five children were present for the reception. Included are David Baker of Ione, Merle Baker of Portland, Clarence Baker of Heppner, Betty Orton of Woodburn and Helen Schlessner of Pendleton. They are grandparents to 22 grandchildren and one great-grandson. All of these were present, except five grandchildren.

Other out of town relatives present were Mrs. Baker's two brothers, Mr. Baker's four sisters and three brothers, plus numerous nieces and nephews.

A family reunion was held at the Baker home following the reception.

the Baker notice to the control of the Valby church served as hostesses, taking care of arrangements and serving during the reception hours. A beautiful white three-tiered anniversary cake, decorated with gold flow-cake, decorated with gold flow-ca ers, was topped with the numerals "50" in gold. Gold ribbon streamers extended to four individual cakes surrounding it.

The happy couple received many good wishes and congratulations from the large gathering of friends and relatives who attended. During their years together, they have been very active in church and community affairs

Wedding of Niece Attended by Couple During Portland Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles traveled to Portland December 8, for a combined business and p'easure trip and to attend the wedding of Ruggles' niece, Miss Leona Ruggles, to Clifford Thomas Alexander, Jr.

The wedding was held at 7:30 Friday evening in the Valley Community Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles also attended the reception following the e-remony.

On Saturday Ruggles bowled in the state finals of the Bowl Down Cancer tournament at Kell-ogg Bowl in Milwaukie. At last report, he had placed sixth in the state competition, but final tabulations are yet to be reported.

Saturday evening, the couple attended the Holiday on Ice show at Memorial Collseum. They returned home Sunday, December

Pinochle Club Plays At Keithley Home

A Christmas season card party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Keithley on Saturday evening, December 9.

Those present to enjoy the two tables of pinochle in play were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Elwayne Bergstrom and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Keithley.

Men's high and the traveling pinochle prize was won by El-wayne Bergstrom and Mrs. Lyle Jensen held high for the women. Guests were served refresh-ments of pumpkin pie and cof-

BOX 848

Unites Boardman Couple in Marriage

BOARDMAN-Miss Elrene De BOARDMAN—Miss Elrene DeAnne Wear, daughter of Darrol Dean Wear of Boardman and Anne Hudson Wear of Portiand, became the bride of Kurt Henry Gantenbein, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Gantenbein of Boardman, in a 2 p.m. double ring ceremony Saturday, November 25, at the Board man Community church. The candielight service was performed by the Rev. Henry Warber of Mesa, Wash., unc. le of the groom.

le of the groom.

Mrs. Wayne Kuhn sang "Because" and "True Love." accompanied by Mrs. Albert Partlow, who also played the nuptial who also played the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a floor length sheath gown, in white lace over crepe. It was fashioned with a high neckline and long sleeves. Her nine foot vell was held in place by a large white rose, and attached were two blusher vells. She carried a bouquet of Jack Frost roses and stephanotis, and wore the traditional blue garter.

Miss Karrol Wear was her sister's maid of honor and wore a floor length olive green sheath gown, fashioned with Empire waist and long sleeves, with lace overlay on the bodice. She carried roses and stephanotis, and had a green velvet ribbon headplece.

Bill Getz of The Dalles was

Bill Getz of The Dalles was best man, and Tony Branco of Arcata, Calif., brother-in-law of Arcata, Calif., brother-in-law of the groom, was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. The cake was served by Mrs. George Neeley. Mrs. Arnold Classen poured the coffee, and Mrs. Tony Branco, sister of the groom, was at the punch bowl. Mary Wear, sister of the bride, had the guest book.
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wear wore a green knit wool suit with brown accessories. The groom's mother chose a rust colored sheath dress with black accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.
For going away the bride

For going away the bride changed to an olive green wool dress with green shoes and bag. Her corsage was of white roses and stephanotis.

and stephanotis.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Riverside High school and attended Blue Mountain College. For the past several months she has been employed at Meier & Frank Co. in Portland. The groom is a 1960 graduate of Riverside High school, and is a member of the National Guard. He received six months army training with the guard. After a short trip they are living in Boardman where the groom is in the dairy business with his father.

in the dairy business with his father.
Out of town guests included the groom's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmuck of Nenana, Alaska; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Warber of Mesa, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman of Camas, Wash.; Mrs. Marie Haneberg of Estacada; his grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Gantenbein, and his unlee Andrew Gantenbein, of Gresham; and his cousins, Sandy haneberg of Bellingham, Wash., and Marie and Jerry Schmuck of Portland. A cordial invitation is extended friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Orian Wright to attend a reception which will honor them on their 50th wedding anniversary, on Sunday afternoon, December 17.

Friends and relatives in the surrounding areas are invited to come to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert (Junior) Wright in the Ruggs area between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m., and extend greetings to the honored couple.

Conventions Call Venards to Valley

Mr. and Mrs. John Venard at-tended the 40th annual Oregon Wheat League convention held at the Sheraton Hotel in Portland the week-end of No

Mrs. Len Ray Schwarz enter-tained members of her pinochle club on Friday evening, December 30.

Venard then attended informative sessions on banking in ber 8, at her home.

Holding high score at the end of play was Mrs. Joe Balfe; second high, Mrs. Dick Robison; low, Mrs. Pat Hammond, and traveling pinochle, Mrs. Bob Laughlin.

Other members present were Laughlin.

Other members present were Mrs, Merlin Hughes, Mrs. Dan Brosnan, Mrs. Jim Follensbee, and the hostess, Mrs. Schwarz. Friday, December 8.

Gazette-Times ads pay

FOR THE CHILD

WHO HAS TOO MUCH-

OR TOO LITTLE-

A SAVINGS ACCOUNT

OPEN AN ACCOUNT TODAY

Accounts Now Insured to $15,000

PENDLETON

SOCIETY

MR. AND MRS. KURT HENRY GANTENBEIN (Lyons Photo)

Group Makes Plans For Coming Dinner

Members of the Heppner Jaycee-ettes will hold their regular monthly meeting Thursday, December 14, at the home of Mrs.
Lyle Jensen. Time of the meeting will be 8 p.m.
Plans will be made for a progressive dinner to be held Saturday, December 16, and election of new officers will be held,
it is announced by Mrs. Jerry Hollomon, president.
All members are urged to attend this meeting.

When you patronize Gazette-Times advertisers, you help make a better paper. Tell them you saw it in the Gazette-Times.

Bride-elect Feted At Shower Prior To Friday Wedding

Miss Kathy Coppock of Portland was greeted by friends Sunday afternoon, December 3, at a bridal shower given in her honor with Mrs. Matt Hughes, Mrs. Terrell Benge, Mrs. Vivian Hayes, Mrs. LeRoy Gardner, and Mrs. Jack VanWinkle as host-

The shower was held at the Hughes home and was attended by about 37 guests.

Festive holiday decorations in shades of green were used about the rooms, and the refreshment table was centered with a honeycomb bride doll.

Special guests were Miss Copny.

Grade School Musicians Instill Spirit of Christmas

Audience of the Heppner Ele-mentary school Christmas pro-gram Monday evening was mentary school Christmas program Monday evening was moved swiftly into the real spirit of Christmas as a capacity crowd enjoyed the merry voices of children singing together and playing of band numbers appropriate to the Christmas season.

Christmas season.

Children in grades five through eight presented an accomplished musical program. Songs of the chorus and small groups carried out the theme, "Christmas Is So Many Things", under the direction of Mrs. Ola Mae Groshens. Mae Groshens.

Mae Groshens.

Tinkling bells, played by Tami Meador, Dianna Wright and Shery Kemp, added background to the opening four-part round. "I Love to Hear the Christmas Bells". A greeting song, "Heigh-ho Heppner People Here" was used as a welcome and entrance song for the chorus Serving as narrators to introduce several of the numbers were Benham Malcom and Jeff Marshall.

Familiar Christmas carols,

Jeff Marshall.
Familiar Christmas carols, dressed up in new arrangements, included "Silent Night", "What Child is This?", "O Holy Night", "We Three Kings", "Joy to the World" and Jingle Bells". Several individual students were featured as soloists and in small groups.

Drawing enthusiastic apfeatured as soloists and in small groups.

Drawing enthusiastic applause were seven boys who joined in harmony in a humorous arrangement of "Down at the Barber Shop". Taking part as barbers and customers were Greg Davidson, Barry Munkers, Luke Padberg, Ricky Pettylohn, Charley Sumner, John Myers and Gary Hunt. Verses of the number, "We Three Kings" were sung by John Roark, Jim Marquardt. John Luciani, Ray Curnutt. Mike Warren, Joe Kenny and Kelwayne Haguewood.

Second part of the program was a group of three well played numbers by the fifth grade beginner's band, directed by Arnie Hedman. This was followed by a variety of five waltz and march numbers by the sixth grade band, which displayed confidence and good control of instruments.

instruments.

pock's mother, Mrs. Harry Barnes of Portland and Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland, Heppner, mother of the groom-elect.
Guests were served chiffon cake with whipped cream, strawberries, and coffee.
Miss Coppock's marriage to Dale Van Blokland will be Friday, December 15, at 8 p.m. in the Methodist church in St. Helens, A reception at St Helens armory will follow the ceremony.

Finale of the evening was a group of four stirring band numbers by the seventh and eighth grade intermediate band. Full balance of instruments provided a good presentation of the numbers, which closed with the familiar "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," arranged by Herfurth.

Herfurth.

The program was presented to parents and adult friends in the multipur pose room Monday night. Children of the school had heard the program earlier, and was presented to high school students Monday morning.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients who were admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital during the past week, and are still receiving medical care, are the following: A. C. Crowell, Ione: Florence Nolan, Heppner; Martin Riggins, Spray; Vern Fisher, Spray, and Marjorie Wilcoxen, Heppner.

Those who received medical care, and were later dismissed, were the following: Dolores Ayers, Heppner; Dean Wimer, Kinzua, and Darrell Smith, Condon. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFadden, Heppner, are announcing the birth of their first child, a daughter, born Thursday, December 7, She has been named Billi Jo, and at birth weighed 7 lb., 3½ oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howell, Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols, Ione.

Auto Hits Cow

Jim Sherman. 17, Heppner High school senior, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, escaped unhurt Friday night after his car struck and killed a cow on the Heppner-Pilot Rock highway near the John Hanna place, He was returning to Heppner after taking a friend home following the basketball game here. The car skidded on wet pavement when he applied the brakes, and it spun around on the highway following the impact. Front of the car was badfily damaged in the accident. The cow and other cattle, owned by Don Bennett, had apparently broken out of their passes. ed by Don Bennett, had apparently broken out of their pas-ture. An unusual number of ac-cidents have been reported re-cently, too, of cars hitting deer, emphasizing the need for par-ticular care in night driving.

Make it a Bright Christmas for HIM: Our colorful styles and fabrics will light up his Christmas with smiles. ROBES-GOOD SELECTION IN ALL SIZES DRESS SHIRTS-ALL COLLAR STYLES, WIDE ASSORTMENT OF COLORS, ALL SIZES SPORT SHIRTS-NEW COLORS AND PATTERNS WOOL SHIRTS-FINE PENDLETON SHIRTS, A PERFECT GIFT FOR ANY MAN DRESS RAINCOATS-WITH ZIPOUT LINERS SWEATERS-A FINE SELECTION IN MANY COLORS, STYLES JACKETS — SLACKS — PAJAMAS SHORTS - BILLFOLDS

AND MANY MORE WONDERFUL GIFTS AT-

GARDNER'S MEN'S WEAR

MARJ and LeROY GARDNER

HEPPNER