

School Children Present Program

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—"Mother Goose's Christmas Party" was presented at the school gymnasium Wednesday night, December 20, by the Boardman Elementary school. Many children portrayed parts of the various characters.

Riverside High school chorus, under the leadership of Bob Chlman, presented the following: "Carol of the Bells", "The Birthday of a King", "A Christmas Noel", "The Coventry Carol", "Silver Bells", "Rise Up Shepherd", "Do You Hear What I Hear?" Members of the chorus are: Julie Alexanian, Linda Tolman, Julie Jackson, Pam Kuhn, Sandi Martin, Ruth Nordstrom, Kathy Hinton, Donna Pummel, Karol Wear, Teresa Ball, Brenda Barnhart, Darlene Gollyhorn, Laura Rice, Linda Tatone, Richard Shoemaker, Gary Baird and Mike Linnell.

Following the program, Santa Claus appeared and gave candy to all children.

Mrs. Tom Wilson won the pinochle prizes. Mrs. Chub Warren was hostess.

Mrs. Zearl Gillespie was honored on the occasion of her birthday Friday when a group of ladies held a surprise luncheon for her at noon. Those present included Mrs. Roy Ball, Sr., Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mrs. Ralph Earwood and Mrs. Frank Marlow.

Holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Moore included Mrs. Moore's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Clem of Otis, Colo., her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Finch and son Shane of West Kelso, Wash.; her mother, Mrs. Pearl Hoag and children Marlene, Kenny and Billy, and Rube Berg of Arlington, and Bill Brown of Portland.

Pvt. Johnnie Pierce is home for a 30 day leave from Fort Lewis, Wash. at the home of his mother, Mrs. Betty Zeimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Earwood and daughters Becky, Linda, Laura, Allison and Melanie of Torrance, Calif., are spending the holidays at the home of Earwood's mother, Mrs. Ralph Earwood, and his brother-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Don Downey, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kruger.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Flub went to Monmouth to spend Christmas at the home of Flub's mother, Mrs. Jack Flub.

Jerry Peck left Friday for Pre-sidio, Calif., to spend the holidays at the home of his in-laws, Col. and Mrs. Robert Heald, where Mrs. Peck and sons have been the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Carpenter and sons Russell and Tommy of Payette, Idaho, were Christmas visitors at the home of Mrs. Carpenter's mother, Mrs. Hazel Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson and son Robert of Portland were holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Davidson's mother, Mrs. Roy Partlow.

Mrs. Frank Marlow accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Smith of Pendleton, to Portland Saturday to visit Mrs. Smith's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Satchell. Mrs. Marlow went on to Medford to spend Christmas at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marlow. She will also visit at the home of her other son, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Marlow at Salem, on her way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chlman left Friday to spend the holidays in California with relatives. They will visit Mrs. Chlman's brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gummarsall at Los Gatos, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gummarsall at San Jose, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Westerman at Sebastopol; and her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Brown in San Jose.

Cafeteria menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Elementary school for the week of January 2-5 are as follows:

Tuesday—creamed beef with biscuits, corn, beet pickles and fruit.

Wednesday—fried chicken, whipped potatoes, celery sticks, rolls and pudding.

Thursday—chili burgers, cheese and pear salad, cookies and ice cream.

Friday—clam chowder, peanut butter sandwiches, carrot sticks and cobbler.

Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

Crump Service Held at Chapel

Della Flossie Crump, 76, a daughter of early Morrow county parents who homesteaded in the Sand Hollow area, and mother of Mrs. Harold (Edna) Peck, died in the Salem Memorial hospital on Friday, December 22, following a lengthy illness. She had been a resident of the Salem area for the past six years.

Born February 7, 1891, in Wisconsin, she was the daughter of Darwin and Hattie Northrup. She came west by wagon train with her parents to Pilot Rock, who later homesteaded a ranch in Sand Hollow.

On February 5, 1911, she was married to Henry Crump, in Pendleton, and they, too, were occupied in ranching in the same area. He preceded her in death in 1937. Mrs. Crump left the Heppner area approximately 25 years ago.

Funeral services were held at Sweeney Mortuary chapel on Tuesday, December 26, at 2:00 p.m., with the Rev. Dirk Rinehart of All Saints' Episcopal church, officiating. Interment followed in Heppner Masonic cemetery.

Survivors include three sons and three daughters. Sons are Everett Crump, Corvallis; Henry Crump, Cottage Grove, and Henry Crump, Santa Maria, Calif. Daughters are Anne Minnieck, Vancouver, Wash.; Edna Peck, Heppner, and Elsie Langis, Walla Walla, Wash. Also two brothers, Edison Northrup, Richland, Wash.; Edgar Northrup, Yakima, Wash.; two sisters, Dora Ellenberger, Pilot Rock, and Myrtle Northrup, Camas, Wash.; 18 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Service Leaves Granted To Some for Home Visits

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—The people of Lexington are happy to see some of the servicemen home for the holidays.

Among those who have been able to visit friends and families for short stays were Steve Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Peck, who is in the U. S. Navy stationed in San Diego aboard the USS Piedmont; Mike Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer, who is with the US Army in Fort Lewis, Wn.; Herbert Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson, who is stationed at Fort Ord, Calif. in Communications; Frankie Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, who is with the Marine Corps at Whidbey Island, and Donald VanWinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. VanWinkle, who was previously stationed in Ohio but is now enroute to Vietnam, and Kenneth Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Jones, with the USS Navy at Long Beach, Calif., serving on the USS Galveston.

Among others in the service, but unable to be home are Mike Burcham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burcham, who is with the US Navy and seeing duty on the USS Rogers in Vietnam; Billy Klingler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth (Pete) Klingler, who is with the US Navy stationed in San Diego aboard the USS Montrose, and Nalbro Cox in the US Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cox, is stationed in Memphis, Tenn.

Also in service are the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Padberg, John Wallace, in the Air Force, who just returned from duty in Turkey and is now at Norton Air Force Base in California; Gene Wallace, in the U. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske returned home Tuesday after spending Christmas in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith spent the holidays in Glendale, with Mr. Smith's mother.

Mrs. Emery Burnside of Spray, who has recently been released from Pioneer Memorial hospital, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Lola Breeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Breeding and sons have been recent visitors in Lexington.

Grange Club Holds Luncheon

Mrs. A. F. Majeske and Mrs. Florence McMillan were hostesses to a Christmas luncheon at the Majeske home last Thursday. Holiday decorations were carried out throughout the rooms with gaily decorated individual tables and favors. Those present for the luncheon were Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mrs. Nora Turner, Mrs. Ola Ruggles, Mrs. Martha VanSchoick, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mrs. Cecil Jones, and invited guests, Mrs. Everett Brock and Mrs. King.

Following the luncheon an H.E.C. business meeting was held. At this time an appreciation gift was given to Mrs. Cecil Jones for her work as subordinate H.E.C. chairman and lecturer of the grange for the past year. Secret Sister gifts were exchanged, sisters revealed and new names drawn for the coming year.

The next meeting is scheduled to be an all day sewing meeting when bibs and carryalls for wheel chairs will be made for the Oregon State Hospital. This meeting will be held at the Jones home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor and son Kevin of Boardman and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool and children of Pendleton were visitors of

Pfc. Wallace Makes Call from Okinawa

A welcomed pre-Christmas gift for Mr. and Mrs. Buster Padberg was a direct telephone conversation with her son, Pfc. Richard Wallace, stationed at Camp Foster in Okinawa. He is a teletype operator and message sender, and through connections with a ham radio operator, made direct contact with the parents by phone. The message came through on the afternoon of December 20 at a time when Mrs. Padberg was the only one at home to visit with her marine son.

Pvt. Wallace has two brothers also in service. Gene Wallace is serving his second tour with the Seabees in Vietnam, stationed recently in the Chu Lai province. SSgt. John Wallace, a career man, is starting his seventh year in the Air Force, now stationed at Norton Air Force Base in California.
