CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of Mrs. Gallier and my family, we would like to extend our appreciation to the volunteer fire department and the many citizens of Heppner who helped with the fire at our house on Court street. We are especially grateful to the people who offered clothing and their services in our time of need. A fitting tribute to a great community that responded with so many kind deeds. Again we say thanks.

Bill Weatherford On Holiday Leave

Bill Weatherford, son of W. W. Weatherford, is on holiday leave from the navy and is spending the time here. He arrived on December 23 and expects to leave Friday for Long Beach, Calif.

The ship on which he serves, the USS O'Brien, a destroyer, has been undergoing a major overhaul. After the holiday period, she will ship out as the crew undergoes underway training.

The O'Brien is scheduled to leave in April for active duty and will go to serve in the Vietnam war.

Blue Birds Meet

The Dancing Daisies and Bluebell Blue Birds had a Christmas party at Ruth Anne Keithley's house. We sang songs and had refreshments of Christmas cookies, ice cream and punch. We told what we were going to do at Christmas time. Some of the girls took their tree decorations home that we had made. Our next meeting will be January 9.
 Kathy Marshall, reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles enjoyed Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fastabend and six children in Richland, Wn.
