MR. AND MRS. KENNETH J. EVANS (Jan Hager) (Lyons Photo).

Jan Hager is Bride of Ken Evans At Pretty December Ceremony

Marriage vows were exchanged between Miss Janette Marie Hager and Kenneth Joseph Evans in a ceremony at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner on Saturday, December 16, at 2 p.m.

The service was read by Father Raymond Beard before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli placed near the altar rail and in altar vases.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hager, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon E. Evans, all of Heppner.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her floor length, lace trimmed gown of white organza over taffeta featured empire styling and a double chapel train. Her shoulder length bridal illusion veil was held in place by a pearl trimmed floral headpiece. She carried a shower bouquet of white gardenias and pink rosebuds on a small white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Peggy Snyder and bridesmaids were Miss Kay Daggett of Heppner and Miss Donna Potter of Fortuna, Calif., all former classmates.

The three bridal attendants were dressed in identically styled floor length gowns of emerald green velvet, with matching green tulle headpieces.

Miss Snyder carried a long stemmed single pink rose and bud, and Miss Daggett and Miss Potter each carried a long stemmed single pink rose.

Organist was Miss Marguerite Glavey, who also accompanied Mrs. Dale Holland, soloist, when she sang two wedding selections.

Serving as altar boys were Bobby Moore and Jeff Marshall. Best man for the groom was Mitchell Ashbeck of Pine City, Ushers were Sherrill McDonald and Gregory Johnston, both of Heppner.

Mrs. Hager, mother of the bride, was attired in a pink metallic suit, with harmonizing silver hat, white shoes and gloves. Mrs. Evans, mother of the groom, chose a pink metallic sheath, complimented with black accessories.

Mrs. J. O. Hager, grandmother of the bride, attended in a blue print A-line style dress and jacket, with matching blue accessories.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the newlywed couple greeted their many guests at a reception in St. Patrick's parish hall.

The serving table, centered by a three-tiered wedding cake, was decorated with white tapers in crystal holders and vases of pink and white gladioli. After the bride and groom cut and shared the traditional first slice of wedding cake, guests were seated and served at individual tables decorated with silver and emerald green centerpieces on silk covers.

The large cake was cut and served by Mrs. LaGrande Guild of Snohomish, Wash., and Mrs. Jim Tucker of Everett, Wash.

Mrs. Robert Hager, sister-in-law of the bride, served punch, and Mrs. Vern Evans, Jr., sister-in-law of the groom, served coffee from a table decorated with a floral arrangement of pink and white gladioli, centered with pink carnations.

Attending the gift table were Miss Erin Dick and Miss Marsha Sowell. Mrs. David Gray had charge of the guest book.

Miss Sara Miller presented and pinned corsages on the honor guests.

Christine Evans, sister-in-law of the groom, handed out wheat bags to guests to shower the bride and groom before their departure.

For her going away ensemble, the bride changed to a red tailored coat ensemble, accented with black accessories. She wore a white gardenia corsage.

After a wedding trip to Portland and points along the Oregon coast, the couple will be at home in Heppner.

The new Mrs. Evans graduated from Heppner High school in 1967, and attended one term at Blue Mountain Community college in Pendleton.

The groom graduated from Heppner High in 1965 and is employed at Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company in Heppner. He also serves the area as state brand inspector.

Among relatives and friends who attended from the surrounding areas were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gilliam of Condon, Mrs. LaGrande Guild and Bob Guild, Snohomish, Wash., and Mrs. Jim Tucker of Everett, Wash.

Other relatives of the couple who came from out-of-town were Homer Hager, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Greiner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greiner, Tom Greiner, Cathleen and Janet, all of Condon; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schomp, Mayville; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Evans, Jr., Hermiston, and Mrs. Dean Acocck and Bobbie of Irigon.

Couple Announces Engagement

The engagement of Miss Ginny Moore and Michael Parrish, both students at Eastern Oregon College of Education, La Grande, has recently been announced. The traditional candle-passing ceremony at Dorion West Hall, where Miss Moore resides, announced the engagement on November 28.

The future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Moore of Heppner and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Parrish of Condon.

Plans are being made for a June wedding, following Miss Moore's graduation from EOCE, where she is majoring in secondary education. She was a graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1964.

Mr. Parrish attended Gonzaga University following his graduation from Condon High school in 1964, and is now enrolled at the La Grande college.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Higgins enjoyed a visit during the Christmas holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Foster, their two sons and two daughters, who were here last week from Klamath Falls, where Mr. Foster is employed by the Forest Service. They returned home Saturday after visiting here with the parents and with friends in Pendleton.

MISS GINNY MOORE

Among relatives visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Wright during the holidays was their granddaughter, Bonnie Zimmerman, a former Peace Corps volunteer. She returned to her sophomore studies at Oklahoma State University at Stillwater, Okla., on January 1, after visiting here, and with her father, R. C. Zimmerman and two uncles of Hermiston. Also here was her brother, Clayton Zimmerman, who is a student at the Klamath Falls Vocational School.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Healy and boys Mark and Scott, of Roseburg, have returned to their home after spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Healy. Also at the Healy home to enjoy the Christmas holidays was their daughter, Marty, who is a student at E.O.C. in La Grande.
