Jill Padberg Installed As Worthy Advisor

Jill Padberg was installed new worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at formal ceremonies Sunday afternoon, January 7, in the Heppner Masonic hall. Nineteen other young ladies were seated with her to make up the slate of elected and appointed officers for the winter term.

For her installation the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elden Padberg, Lexington, chose red and white as her colors, and "The Greatest of These is Love" as her theme of office. She greeted her fellow members and guests in a sheer floor-length gown of red chiffon.

Miss Padberg was escorted to the altar by her father for the crowning ceremonies performed by master counselor Boyd Thomas, Jr. of the Blue Mountain Chapter of DeMolay, Hermiston. This was followed by the "Arch of Steel" by nine other members of the chapter, assisted by their dad advisor, Boyd J. Thomas, Sr.

Lynda Orwick, immediate past worthy advisor, served as installing officer, assisted by Linda Heath, installing marshal; Willa Johnson of the Ione Assembly No. 89, installing recorder; Bonnie Morgan of Ione, installing chaplain, and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, installing musician.

Other officers who were installed for this term were the following: Sara Miller, worthy associate advisor; Teresa Harshman, charity; Patti Howell, hope; Sue Melby, faith; Jana Lee Scott, recorder; Lynda Orwick, treasurer; Glenda Van Winkle, chaplain, and Karla Weatherford, drill eader.

Those holding the color stations are Linda Cooper, love; Karen Cox, religion; Jerri Keithley, nature; Dovy Alderman, immortality; Jill Scott, fidelity; Tami Meador, patriotism; Teresa Wright, service; Marie Van Marter, outer observer; Cindy Harshman, confidential observer; Lisa Cutsforth, choir director, and Christy Taylor, musician.

Serving as mother advisor is Mrs. Rachel Harnett.

Mrs. Sam Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Carmichael, dedicated a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer" to the newly crowned advisor.

Present to observe the ceremonies were Jill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Padberg; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Padberg; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg; an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Padberg, and an aunt, Mrs. Archie Padberg.

Following special introductions and acknowledgements, presentation of a past worthy advisor's pin was made to Lynda Orwick, and an ivory gavel was presented the new worthy advisor from her parents.

A guest of honor was Mrs. Bill Cox, worthy matron of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star. Also present were Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, Grand Ruth of OES; Berli Akers, worshipful master of Ione Masonic

Rebekahs Make Plans For Coming Dinner; Joint Installation

Several items of business were under discussion at the last regular meeting of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge on Friday evening, January 5. Mrs. Ed La Trace, noble grand, welcomed 19 members and three visitors from Holly Rebekah lodge, Lexington.

Plans were discussed for the annual installation dinner, held jointly with Willows IOOF lodge, for members, their families and friends. The dinner is planned for Saturday evening, January 13, at 6:30 p.m., with a joint installation of new officers to follow at 8:00 p.m. The lodges will furnish rolls and ham, with the rest of the dinner to be solicited among members. District Deputy Presidents, Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Herman Green, will be among those attending.

A special ceremony was the draping of the charter in memory of Mrs. Claude (Margaret) Buschke, who had been a member over 30 years, with earlier membership in the Mistletoe Rebekah lodge of Hardman. As a memorial to Mrs. Buschke the lodge voted a contribution be sent to the IOOF-Rebekah Educational Fund, which is made available to help any needed young person in furthering his education.

Mrs. Scott Furlong and Mrs. La Trace served as hostesses during the social hour.

Completing the current term of office, Mrs. La Trace expressed appreciation to her officers and presented each of them with a white milk glass bud vase. Gifts were also presented to four members with perfect attendance, Mrs. Tom Huston, Esther Bergstrom, Mrs. Lincoln Nash and Mrs. La Trace.

Kitchen committee appointed for the dinner includes Mrs. Archie Padberg, Mrs. Mary Bailey, Mrs. La Trace and Mrs. Furlong. On the decorating committee are Mrs. Huston and Mrs. Gerald Rood. The Rainbow Girls will assist in serving.

Mrs. Doyle Key, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Floyd Hutchins and Mrs. Vic Groshens, traveled to Portland Thursday, January 4. Mrs. Hutchins remained in Portland for the week to receive medical treatment while staying at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Angel and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Groshens and family of Portland brought their mother home Saturday night and remained to visit it at the Groshens home for the week-end.

Don McQuarrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie, left Friday, January 5, to attend Bend Community College. McQuarrie was accompanied on the trip by Larry Heath, who is currently on furlough from military service.

Assisting with the serving and in the kitchen were Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mrs. William Van Winkle and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth.

Miss Judy Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Jones, has transferred her studies from O.C.E. in Monmouth to the University of Oregon in Eugene. Miss Jones, a sophomore this year, has chosen speech pathology and audiology as her major field of study.
