Chapter Represented At 75th Anniversary Of Pendleton Lodge

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox, and Mrs. Larry Prock attended the 75th anniversary celebration of the Bushee Chapter, Order of Eastern Star in Pendleton, on Saturday, January 13.

Over 200 people attended the program and reception, which was held in the Vert Auditorium and Club Room. Past history of Bushee Chapter, established in January of 1893, was reviewed as an interesting part of the program by Mrs. E. J. Caspersen, worthy matron of the chapter.

On Saturday, January 20, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson attended a reception for Gloria Twelfth, grand chaplain of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in Portland, held at the Eastgate Masonic Temple.

Birthday Celebration Honors Groshens Boy

Scott Groshens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Groshens, celebrated his seventh birthday Saturday afternoon at his home with a party given in his honor by his mother.

Young friends who attended the party were Ronald Young, Craig Robinson, Jerry Baker, Jody Jensen, Jay Devin, Mike Lott, Mike and Renee Jensen, and brothers of Scott, Greg and Harry Groshens.

Games and favors were enjoyed by the boys during the afternoon, followed with refreshments of cake and ice cream, served by Mrs. Groshens and Mrs. Lyle Jensen.

Jaycees Entertain At Skating Party

Morrow County Jaycees held their monthly social with a potluck supper, followed by an evening of cards and roller skating at the Fair pavilion, Saturday evening, January 20.

About 25 members and wives attended the affair, with Al Owsin serving as chairman.

County Treasurer Chosen For Honor

Mrs. Sylvia E. McDaniel, Morrow county treasurer, was recently selected to be among a chosen group from this area whose biography will appear in the 1968 edition of "Outstanding Personalities of the West and Midwest."

She received the certificate authorizing this honor on January 18, "in recognition of past achievements, outstanding ability, and service to community, state and nation, worthy of note by other citizens."

Mrs. McDaniel also had the honor in 1966 of being listed in the 4th edition of "Who's Who of American Women." Besides holding the responsible office of county treasurer for several years, she has also been active in many of the women's service groups and church organizations in the community.

Sans Souci Lodge Begins Active Year At January Meeting

The regular meeting of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 on January 19 was a busy evening, with a full slate of business to come before the newly installed noble grand, Mrs. Tom Huston.

Appointment was made of Mrs. M. N. Kirk to act as deputy president to install officers who were unable to be present for the joint installation ceremony on January 13 with Willows Lodge No. 66, IOOF. Assisting Mrs. Kirk as deputy marshalls was Mrs. Larry Cook. The following were installed into their respective stations: Miss Esther Bergstrom, warden; Mrs. Lincoln Nash, color bearer, and Mrs. Dean Connor, musician. Nearly all of the new slate of officers were present to assist Mrs. Huston in the beginning of her new year of leadership.

The new noble grand read her list of committees to serve in the various phases of Rebekah work. Mrs. Ed La Trace was elected trustee for a three-year term, and Mrs. McMurtry, outgoing treasurer, gave a year-end inventory report. The trustees were applauded for their hours of work in compiling this listing.

Mrs. La Trace, chairman of the installation dinner, reported that over 70 persons were served. She also thanked the lodge for the past noble grand jewel presented to her by Mrs. Kirk, who explained the symbols of the emblem of the service jewel and commended Mrs. La Trace on a perfect attendance record during her year of leadership.

A letter was read from Mrs. Lulu Johnson, a veteran member of Sans Souci, who makes her home in Hawaii. Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinton, were pioneers of the Heppner area and charter members of the lodge over 80 years ago.

A contribution was voted to the Millie Doolittle Memorial Fund at the Christian church, in memory of Mrs. Doolittle, a loved and faithful member of the lodge for over 60 years. The charter will be draped in special ceremonies at the February 2 meeting.

A proclamation from sovereign grand lodge was read by Mrs. Gerald Rood urging all branches of the order to observe during the month of January the 186th anniversary of the birthday of Thomas Wiley, the founder of Odd Fellowship. To comply with this decree, a candle lighting ceremony was held by Mrs. Cook as the proclamation was read.

Following the reading and acceptance of the auditing report the secretaries were commended for work throughout the year in maintaining and keeping records and books in good order.

Mrs. Huston was hostess for the social hour, assisted by Mrs. Letha Archer.

Club Holds Meeting At Bergstrom Home

Mrs. Ruth Bergstrom was hostess to 12 members of the Carnation club of the Degree of Honor Protective Association at her home January 17, for their meeting.

A short business meeting was conducted, after which members enjoyed an evening of games with Mrs. Alice Luttrell winning high score. The door prize was won by Mrs. Carl King.

Next meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective Association will be February 13, at the Episcopal parish hall, with Mrs. Bill Farra as hostess. The Carnation club will hold its next meeting February 21 at the home of Mrs. Farra.

Omitted from the last club report was the name of Mrs. Cecil Jones, who was elected to the office of second vice president.

Youth Slate Dance After Saturday Game

Youth of the Heppner, Ione, and Condon areas are invited to attend "The Happening," a teenage dance being held at All Saints' Episcopal parish hall immediately following the Heppner-Condon basketball game here Saturday night, January 27.

Entertainment for the dance will be provided by the Condon "Banshees," a youth combo. Admission at the door will be $1 per person. The dance will be held from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m., and is under the sponsorship of the Inter-Church Youth group, comprised of young people of All Saints' Episcopal and the Lutheran churches. The group is under the leadership of Rev. Dirk Rinehart and Rev. Don Pederson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wonsor and Robin visited in Bend Friday through Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wonsor, and with her mother, Mrs. Ray Cooley, while Wonsor participated in National Guard maneuvers there.

Club Shares Program On Collectors' Items

IONE — "What to do with that old 'junk' was the subject of the educational program given by Mrs. Diana Kincaid at her home for the January business meeting of Beta Omega. Ideas for using antiques in decorating, refinishing antiques, and displaying collectors items were part of the program.

In addition to Mrs. Kincaid's collection, items made and decorated by Mrs. Birdine Tullis, Mrs. Delta Huber, Mrs. Elaine Rietmann, and by Jim Johnson were on display.

During the business meeting plans were made for the annual benefit party to aid the Crippled Children's Hospital school in Eugene. Mrs. Maxine Rietmann, co-hostess, served refreshments to the 15 members in attendance.

Altar Society Plans For Coming Party

The annual dessert and card party sponsored by St. Patrick's Catholic Altar Society will be Monday, January 29, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Bill Kenny and Mrs. Randy Lott will be co-chairmen for the annual public affair, which is to be held in the St. Patrick's parish hall. Bridge and pinochle will be in play.
