Kinzua Corporation Scholarship Given

The Kinzua Corporation of Heppner presented $250 to the Oregon State University scholarship fund, the Oregon State Board of Higher Education announced at its recent meeting in Portland.

A wide range of gifts and scholarship grants to Oregon's public colleges and universities regularly come from individual firms and organizations in all parts of the state. The latest group totaled 260 from 84 communities.

Chancellor R. E. Lieuallen and the executives of the nine public higher education institutions have stressed that such gifts have stressed that such gifts and grants, while not the largest source of such funds, play a significant role in opening the door of educational opportunity to Oregon's young people.

Gifts and grants are reported at each meeting of the State Board of Higher by the Board's Academic Affairs Committee, headed by Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of Redmond.
