Families are United At 50th Anniversary Of M. C. Moynihans

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark and family returned home last Monday from Toledo, where they went Saturday, January 20, to attend the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mrs. Clark's grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Moynihan of Toledo. Rev. Moynihan serves as the Episcopal minister in Toledo.

All five children of the couple and their families attended the celebration, with the exception of a grandson, Bruce Spencer, who is currently on duty with the military service.

A total of about 45 members of the family attended a dinner party in Corvallis Saturday evening, January 20, for the honored couple.

A reception and open house for their parents was held the next day, January 21, by the children and families of the couple, among them the Rev. and Mrs. C. Bruce Spencer, former residents here.

Accompanying the Clarks was Mrs. Clark's sister, Mrs. Ellis Ball and children. Mrs. Ball, whose husband is serving in Vietnam, remained in Toledo to accompany her parents to their home in Shafter, Calif., for a few weeks visit.

Popular Mystery Reviewed at Club

"A Spy Called Michael-E", by Amelia Elisabeth Walden, was, in part, reviewed by Mrs. Madge Thomson at the regular meeting of the Bookworms club on January 23, at the home of Mrs. Ted Smith.

Ten members were present to listen as Mrs. Thomson reviewed the suspense story of C.I.A. work. The popular mystery book is on the young adult age level.

Refreshments were served to those attending by the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

Club Meets Tuesday

Members of the Heppner Golden Age club will meet at the Episcopal parish hall Tuesday evening, February 6. The evening of activity will begin with the usual potluck dinner at 7:00 p.m., followed by a brief business meeting and a variety of entertainment. All members are urged to attend, and guests are always welcome.

New Officers Chosen For Rhea Creek HEC; Plan Cleaning Day

At the regular monthly meeting of the Home Economics club of Rhea Creek Grange, held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Oran Wright, officers for 1968 were chosen.

Mrs. Harold Wright was elected to serve as chairman; Mrs. Oran Wright, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Walter Wright, secretary-treasurer.

A cleaning day for the grange hall was discussed, and the afternoon of Thursday, February 8, was selected.

Regular grange meeting will be Friday, February 9, beginning with a potluck dinner at 6:00 p.m., followed by a business meeting and a party after the meeting.

The members voted to contribute to the Heart Fund, Cancer Fund, March of Dimes and the Easter Fund.

Those attending the potluck luncheon and meeting were Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Evelyn Farrens, Mrs. Doris Graves, Mrs. Harold Wright, Miss Marilyn Bergstrom, Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Ron Haguewood, Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mrs. Lewis Ball and the hostess, Mrs. Wright.

Church Youth Elect; Plan Coming Events

Election of officers of the United Youth Fellowship group was held at the Methodist church on Sunday, January 14. New officers are Jim Sherman, president; Sue Chally, vice president; Sara Miller, treasurer, and Karla Weatherford, secretary.

Several new items of business were discussed, with plans being made to hold a car wash at Van Winkle's Chevron station on Saturday, February 3, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Charges of $1 will be made for a wash job and $1.50 for cleaning both inside and outside.

A pie sale will be held at Central Market on February 10, with all profits going to Teen Challenge in Brooklyn, N. Y., to aid drug addicts, alcoholics and other unfortunates.

Also among future plans for the youth group are plans to attend the Billy Graham movie, "For Pete's Sake," to be held in Pendleton February 18. The movie is being sponsored by the Pendleton Ministerial Association. Advance ticket sales for the movie will be held, and anyone desiring to attend must sign up in advance.

Next Sunday night's meeting of the United Youth Fellowship will be held February 4, at 7 p.m., in the basement of the Christian church. Rev. Mel Dixon will speak on the archaeological validation of the finding

Scritsmier-Wakefield Marriage Performed In Portland Ceremony

Miss Jean Marie Scritsmier and Timothy Mark Wakefield of the U. S. Air Force, were united in marriage in a nuptial mass on Saturday, January 20. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Scritsmier, 3786 N. Melrose Drive, Portland, and former Heppner residents. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Phyllis A. Wakefield, also of Portland.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2:00 p.m. at Holy Rosary Catholic church, Portland, by the Rev. Father Cassidy. At the altar were standards holding floral arrangements of white gladioli and stock.

The bride was escorted down the white carpeted aisle by her father. She was attired in a floor-length A-line gown of white velvet, fashioned with scooped neckline and an empire waist accented with venise lace. The wrist-length sleeves were fitted and the detachable velvet train was held at the back with two velvet bows. A cluster of venise lace petals and seed pearls formed the crown which held the elbow-length veil of illusion net. She carried a nosegay of white rosebuds, carnations and stephanotis. She also wore a sapphire in her shoe for good luck.

Maid of honor was her twin sister, Jane Scritsmier, of Portland.

Another sister, Sue Scritsmier, was honor bridesmaid. Three former classmates, Misses Joan Scholler, Mrs. Carol Stephens, and Carol Neill, all of Portland, also attended as bridesmaids.

The attendants were identically gowned in floor-length gowns of moss green velvet, styled with empire waists and short sleeves. Their headpieces were matching velvet roses backed with rows of green net. They carried white fur muffs instead of the traditional flowers.

Best man was William Dikeman of Portland. Serving as ushers were John Scritsmier, Portland, brother of the bride; John Stinch and Ron Stephens, both of Portland, and Gregory Wallwork, Oregon City.

Tamr Prock, Heppner, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Her long dress was identical to the bridesmaid's dresses, and she carried a basket of white carnations and rosebuds.

Serving as ring bearer was Jon Prock, Heppner, also cousin of the bride.

The newlyweds were greeted by their wedding guests at a reception following the ceremony in the Capri Room of the Cosmopolitan Motor Hotel.

They left for a honeymoon trip to Seattle and into Canada. For traveling the new bride was attired in a camel hair suit with cranberry accessories.

They are now at home at San Bernardino, Calif., with the groom stationed nearby at Norton Air Force Base.

The bride was graduated from Jefferson High school and prior to her marriage was employed as a receptionist at the Tuberculosis Survey Center and as a model for Gloria LaVonne Studio.

Several relatives and close friends of the bride attended the ceremonies from this area. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Prock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Cutsforth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cutsforth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Faye Prock, Mrs. Vivian Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Prock and Terry of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Prock and Mrs. Ilene Wyman.

OSU Honor Student Joins Campus Groups

Miss Maralee Murray, a freshman in the school of pharmacy at Oregon State University, will be initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen women's honorary, on February 11, according to word received by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray.

On February 3 Miss Murray will also be initiated into Sigma Kappa sorority. She has served during the past term as vice-president of this living group's pledge class, and had the honor of being selected as one of this year's nominees for "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi".

Birthday is Occasion For Surprise Party

Mrs. Bill Hust entertained with a surprise birthday party in honor of her husband Friday evening, January 19, at their home.

Friends of the couple who gathered to greet Hust on his birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wishart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bergstrom and family, Rev. and Mrs. Al Boschee and family, and the hostess and their children.

An evening of games and cards was enjoyed, with Mrs. Hust serving refreshments at the close of the evening.
