By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA — The Father-Son Banquet held last Thursday night at Jeffmore Hall, sponsored by the Kinzua Community Club, was a great success with 106 fathers and sons being served turkey with all the trimmings. Pies were furnished by the women of the community and the meal was served by the women of the Kinzua Community church and high school girls.

The dinner was followed by a Walt Disney cartoon and a film of the Highlights of National Football League action.

Milt Borin, chairman of the Community Club, explained the purpose of the Kinzua Community Club Scholarship Fund which is to provide a scholarship for a Kinzua boy or girl graduating from Wheeler High school.

The town was a beehive of activity during the week-end when the Community Club men hauled gravel to driveways and parking areas. This was all volunteer work and is greatly appreciated by everyone.
